

TEAS AND COFFEES OF MERIT

There is no question about Wood's Teas and Coffees. They are superb. Include some of these in your next purchase: Wood's Queen Bee Tea—Jaona, Wood's Primrose Tea—Black and Green; Chase and Sanborn's Orange Pekoe Tea, Red Bell Japan Tea, and also Tea Balls at 35c; Dutchess, Penn's Cafe and Special Blend Woods Coffees; also the well known "P. G." Ideal Blend and White House Coffees.

BOYLES BROS., - Johnson, Vt.

JOHNSON

Carl Pease is clerking at Hotel Johnson.

Mrs. Ella Tracy is numbered among the sick.

Mrs. Maria Davis is failing. Her family is with her.

W. E. Tracy was in Windsor last week attending court.

The attendance at the M. E. Sunday school Jan 16 was 83.

Ruth Parker is bookkeeping for D. A. Barrows at his office.

Miss Georgia Wells returned to Montpelier Seminary Monday.

Mrs. Candice Carpenter has returned from a visit to Cambridge.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Horton Doty Thursday, Jan. 13.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Warner Saturday, Jan. 1.

Mrs. Helen Barrows of Coventry visited her son, H. A. Barrows, recently.

Mrs. J. J. Hickey, who has been ill from pneumonia, is much better.

Daniel Gray has returned from Coventry and is stopping with Morris Hill.

Mrs. Sarah Mansfield has gone to Hardwick for the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Chauncey Shattuck is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nelson Jaynes.

Miss Ida Perry has returned to East Hardwick, after visiting her aunt, Mrs. P. C. Stearns.

Miss Lizzie Cobb has finished her school in district No. 9 and gone to her home at Westford.

Miss Gale has finished her school in the Waterman district and returned to her home at Westford.

Mrs. Carrie Whitten returned to Burlington Monday, after spending a few weeks at E. E. Holmes'.

A promenade was given at K. P. Hall Friday evening and supper served for the benefit of Johnson Serenade Band.

Mrs. Myrtle Tucker of Jeffersonville who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Patten, returned home Saturday.

Several from Waterville are attending the Pentecostal services. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Stebbins.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sargent of Wolcott are visiting at Mitchell Sherbert's and attending the special evangelistic services.

The evangelistic services were held all day at the church Saturday, and Sunday evening, Jan. 16, again at the Opera House.

Mrs. Harry Fullington was in town from Stowe the first of the week and is about to leave for Chicago to join her husband.

Mrs. William Fancher, who has passed several weeks with her sister, Mrs. E. O. Story, returned to her home in Fairfax the first of the week.

Mrs. Irving Bailey was called to Waterville last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. B. L. Munn, who is suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

The people are cautioned to be very careful in the use of the village water, as it is very low. The reservoir for fire protection has been nearly empty of late.

Sharon Converse of Putney has been called here by the illness of his sister, Mrs. Maria Davis. Mr. and Mrs. William Davis of White River Junction are here.

Arthur Wells and Orin Jones were in Jeffersonville last Tuesday night and installed the officers of the Grange, and on Thursday night were at Eden for the same purpose.

Rev. I. A. Ranney lost his driving horse last week. He drove home from Waterville after attending an evening service, and his horse died soon after reaching the stable.

Mrs. E. C. Judd of Wolcott, Mr. and Mrs. Austin of Waterville, Thomas Armstrong and a gentleman friend of Moores, N. Y., and several others are in town attending the Pentecostal meetings.

Miss Callie Stinson, who was recently operated on for appendicitis at Yonkers, N. Y., has returned home and visited her sister, Mrs. R. H. Royce, last week. Her sister, Mira, returned with her.

There will be a whist party Tuesday evening, Jan. 25, at Abram Nolan's for the benefit of the R. C. church in Hyde Park. Refreshments will be served. The bill is twenty-five cents. All are cordially invited.

The evangelist, Rev. Eckerson, continues services this week with the exception of Tuesday evening, when he preached at Waterville. Eighteen were received into the Pentecostal church last Sunday.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barlow last Saturday night at their home on the Newcomb farm. Over forty of their old neighbors on Clay Hill and new neighbors were present. Refreshments were served.

Rev. Josiah Poeton was in Burlington Tuesday.

A large number of Pentecostal people attended the meeting in Waterville Tuesday night.

Mrs. Saxby of Morrisville is stopping at Thomas Wilson's and caring for Mrs. Wilson, who is ill.

Miss Mary Remice of Wolcott, who is here attending the Pentecostal meetings - stopping at S. A. Griswold's, also Mrs. O. A. Griswold of Hyde Park.

Howard Courser, while skidding logs last Wednesday, had the misfortune to have a log roll and strike him in the face. His face and head were badly cut and bruised.

Mr. Poeton's mother gave a very interesting address Sunday evening at the Congregational church and led the Woman's prayer meeting Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage.

The Stowe High School students were entertained last Friday evening by the Senior class of Johnson High School at the Opera House. A promenade was indulged in and refreshments served.

The club tea was held with Mrs. Farrington Monday afternoon, thirty-five being present. The entertainment was much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Farrington and Miss Lord proving for the second time their exceptional ability in this line.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church held their annual business meeting last week and elected officers for another year:—Pres., Mrs. Joseph Muzzy; Vice Pres., Mrs. Levi Tatro; Sec'y and Treas., Mrs. Lewis Wareham.

There were twenty-nine in attendance at the O. L. C. meeting last Thursday evening. The work was taken up in a very interesting manner. Mrs. Allen read from one of Shakespeare's plays, which added much to the evening's program.

Saleeby's semi-annual clearance sale, which began Monday last, promises to surpass any previous attempts of this enterprising firm and if anything will bring the people out, the prices named in the big advertisement on page 7, should fill the store during the remainder of the sale, which will last two weeks. Go early and get the best offerings.

The Senior Exhibition of the Johnson High School will be held on Friday evening, Jan. 21, at the Opera House. Following is the program:—Powers of Music, Jennie Maxfield; English Gentlemen, Winnie Wilson; Immigration of United States, Rollo Balch; Roman Supremacy, Lloyd Pearl; French and Indian War, Howard Sargent. The school will furnish music.

The Junior Philathea class met with Miss Imer Foss Friday and elected the following officers:—Pres., Marion Tinker; Vice Pres., Gertrude Jones; Sec'y, Florence Baker; Treas., Inez Perry; Missions Com., Hersa Richards, Evelyn Lambert, Margaret Hunt; Social Com., Alice Mills, Nellie Fitzgerald, Muriel Peck; Lookout Com., Marion Tinker, Margaret Hunt, Nellie Fitzgerald.

CADY'S FALLS

School closed last Friday.

Nathan Cobleigh and family visited at Andrew Calkins Sunday.

About 40 couples attended the dance at the hall last Friday night.

Austin Wilkins and wife attended the ball at Hyde Park Tuesday night.

Mrs. Amos Hilliard who has been sick for the past few weeks is on the gain.

Mrs. C. B. Terrill who has been suffering with Rheumatic trouble is better.

Henry Mudgett and daughter, Josie, were recent visitors at Geo. Mudgett's.

Mrs. James Clark and children from Hardwick were at Emily Town's over Sunday.

Fred Garrow has moved into Joseph Sherman's house on the hill. Mr. Garrow is working for Geo. Gale.

Lorenzo Calkins and wife and A. H. Calkins and family attended the Campbell reunion at Will Jefford's in Hyde Park last Saturday.

NORTH WOLCOTT

School closes this week Friday.

Chas. Wilson has purchased a horse of Bert Pike.

Mrs. Flora Allen and daughter, Nellie of Morrisville are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Russ visited at John Churchill's last week Wednesday.

Chas. Wilson and family are making an extended visit to his mother in Canada.

Mabell Miller who has been receiving medical treatment of the eyes at Burlington, has returned home.

Carroll Rollins, who has been visiting the past week at A. E. Woodmansee's returned to his home in Newport, Monday.

ELMORE

Several from here attended the funeral of E. E. Goodell Sunday.

No church services were held last Sunday, owing to the absence of the pastor.

Rev. H. A. Jones, who has been confined to the house the past week, is able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Cross are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter Tuesday, Jan. 18.

STOWE.

C. F. Eddy has been in Boston for several days.

S. A. Kaiser is visiting his son and family in Elmore.

Jesse Moody is employed at Green Mountain Inn.

Miss Adah Currie was a visitor in Burlington Wednesday.

W. L. Demeritt transacted business in Jonesville Thursday.

A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Kaiser.

Charles Rathburn of Northampton, Mass., is a guest at A. W. Collins'.

Walter Gillette of North Dakota is visiting his sister, Mrs. Foster Dow.

Miss Martha Wright is spending the week with her brother in Waterbury.

Mrs. A. S. Seaver has been spending a week with her sister in Waterbury.

Dr. Ransom Styles of St. Johnsbury was in town a day or two last week.

The C. E. Society will give a social evening at the Cong'l church on Friday evening.

J. E. Miles of Burlington and W. G. Shaw of Bethel were visitors in town Tuesday.

Spaulding High School easily defeated Stowe High Saturday night, the score being 43 to 17.

A singing class has been organized by Prof. Geo. Burnham, holding meetings in the Banquet Hall.

The last entertainment of the Lecture Course comes Thursday night, Jan. 27—the Edwin K. Weeks Co.

"Too Much Church, Too Little Christ" will be Rev. Mr. Raspe's topic at Unity church Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. P. D. Pike was in Plainfield last week on account of the illness and death of her sister, Patrick Ladd.

Don McAllister and family of North Hyde Park spent Sunday with Mr. McAllister's parents, on the Branch.

Will Simmons of Hartford, Conn., is spending a couple of weeks in Stowe, after an absence of eighteen years.

Claude Chaffee has been engaged by Burt and Raymond to look after their Rochester farm and lumber property.

The Rev. Donald Fraser gave a very interesting lecture at the Congregational Church Thursday evening on Scotland.

S. H. S. and Montpelier High played a very close game of basketball Wednesday night, the score being 25 to 24 in favor of Stowe.

Rev. Donald Fraser of Berlin gave a witty and instructive lecture upon "Scottish Life" at the Congregational church Thursday evening.

Rev. W. A. Buzza, of Hatfield, Eng., a college friend of the pastor, will preach at the Cong'l church on Sunday next, and hopes to sail for home next week.

W. H. Felix and daughter, Delia, were in Montpelier Sunday to attend the funeral of Wm. Morey. Miss Felix will remain with her aunt through the winter.

A union service will be held at the Methodist church on Sunday evening next at 7 o'clock. Address by Rev. J. Q. Angell, and special music by the united choirs of the churches.

The funeral services of Ira French were held from the home of his mother in Stowe Hollow Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. Q. Angell officiating. Interment was in Riverbank cemetery.

Mrs. A. P. Cate of Worcester, Mass., and Fred Scribner of Bath, Me., have been here for several past, called by the illness of their mother, Mrs. C. P. Scribner. Mrs. Scribner is now slightly better.

Mrs. E. T. Houston is expected from Cleveland, Ohio, this week to spend some time with her people here. Mr. Houston has been obliged to give up his position in Cleveland, the climate not agreeing with him.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shaw, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boardman and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Douglass attended the Commandery Ball at Hyde Park last night. All report a fine time.

Officers elected at the business meeting of the Congregational Ladies' Circle are:—President, Mrs. Anna Kimball; vice-president, Mrs. Cheney A. Tomlinson; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Truman B. Smith; business committee, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller, Mrs. Mary Belden and Mrs. William A. Aldrich.

Last Friday evening at a farmers' meeting at Akeley Memorial building, M. C. Tuomas and Lowell Roubush of Ohio gave addresses upon the improvement of corn crop and fruit raising. Both gentlemen were very interesting and gave valuable information, gained from a practical knowledge of their subject.

A horse belonging to the Russell livery and driven by Harry Warren became frightened and ran away last Friday evening. The horse came home without damage except to the sleigh. Harry and the young lady whom he was escorting to the dance, were the chief sufferers as they were spilled out and obliged to walk in from Stowe Hollow.

The remains of Mrs. P. H. Ladd of Plainfield were brought here for burial Sunday. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ladd's sister, Mrs. P. D. Pike, Rev. A. G. Cornwell officiating. Mrs. Ladd is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Pike, Mrs. Eunice Pottle, Mrs. Mary Atwood, and a brother, George Town, of South Framingham, Mass.

Five Grammar school boys were arrested last week for chicken stealing. Their depredations having covered several weeks and been carried on upon quite an extensive scale. All pled guilty and were sentenced to the State Industrial School for their minorities. Upon payment of costs amounting to $5.00 each, their sentences were suspended and the lads were placed in charge of the Probation officer.

WOLCOTT.

The village school closed here the first of the week.

C. E. Haskell left Monday on a business trip to Boston.

C. J. Kimball lost a valuable horse the first of the week.

George Colbeth spent Sunday with relatives in Albany.

G. E. Downing and wife of Barre were visitors in town over Sunday.

C. W. Humphrey is confined to the house with a quinsy sore throat.

Alden, the infant son of J. E. Wheeler, Jr., is ill with bronchial pneumonia.

Miss Mabel Austin of Craftsbury has been a recent guest at J. T. Hubbell's.

Mrs. Angeline Jones is ill and her sister, Mrs. Susan Jones, of Barre, is nursing her.

G. F. Allen has been confined to the house several days the past week with a lame back.

Archie Ballard and Raymond Golden returned home from Burlington Monday, full-fledged butter makers.

M. A. Butler & Son lost one of their livery horses Sunday. This makes a total of seven in the past four years.

Clare Wheeler has moved from the Scofield home to the tenement in Fife's block, vacated by A. W. Foster.

Installation of the officers of Wolcott Camp, M. W. of A., takes place to-night, W. S. Sillway installing officer.

Henry Paddleford, who was operated on at the Holden hospital in Hardwick Thursday evening for appendicitis by Drs. Rublee, Valleau and Johnstone, is rapidly convalescing.

[At the last meeting of the Wolcott Grange the officers were installed by Brother Lovejoy, assisted by Deputy Goodrich. At the next meeting on Jan. 24 there will be a question box and music.

Lawrence A. Wilson will give a series of lectures on popular religious questions at the Cong'l church beginning Jan. 24. Following are the subjects:—Monday, Does it Pay to Pray? Tuesday, Is There Any Use in Reading the Bible? Wednesday, What is Heaven Like? Thursday, Is There a Hell? Friday, What Do We Mean by Faith?

EDEN

B. B. Blake went to St. Albans Monday.

Mr. Anderson is caring for Martin Shattuck.

Mrs. F. H. Raymore is very poorly these days.

Bernard Maxfield lost a very good horse last Friday morning.

Some from here have attended the meetings, in charge of Miss Helen M. Jones, at North Hyde Park.

J. G. O'Brien started to cross Lake Eden on ice for the purpose of rolling the road, when horses and roller went into the water but were saved.

The Grange meetings are well attended. If their object is to benefit farmers and their occupation, it is surely one of the very laudable orders and one that should be encouraged.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. Sylvester last Thursday afternoon. Twenty-two partook of the bountiful supper. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. J. Atwell Thursday afternoon, January 27.

EDEN MILLS

Arthur Russell is driving team for A. E. Sargent.

Mrs. Frank Morgan is suffering from a throat trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leach were in Morrisville Friday.

Supervisor Harding was in town visiting schools Thursday and Friday.

Lyman Miller and wife from Lowell visited at O. D. Whittemore's Sunday.

The Dorcas Ladies served dinner to about 30 Tuesday at their meeting in the church vestry.

Those who attended church Sunday listened to a very able sermon by our pastor, Rev. Coolidge.

Frank Chase closed a successful term of school on East Hill Friday and went to his home in the west part of the town.

Mrs. W. H. Emery is in Waterville helping care for her infant niece, Erma Davis, who is suffering from pneumonia.

F. L. Whittemore, wife, daughter and others went to North Hyde Park Tuesday night to attend one of a series of revival meetings being held there by Miss Coolidge and Miss Jones.

Green Cut Bone and Meat.

THE COLD WEATHER POULTRY FOOD.

Fowls have a natural craving for animal food, especially when the weather is cold. All kinds of grains are good, but to produce lots of eggs, an occasional ration of green cut bone and meat is absolutely essential. This product can be obtained of Carroll S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt. He will ship a 200 lb. barrel to any address on receipt of $3.50 and at this price pay the freight to any railroad station in New England or the Middle States. Money may be sent at his risk by registered letter, postal money order, check or express money order. When writing him mention this paper.

Try This Store

For Everything in the line of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes Rubbers, Leggings, Men's Heavy Coats and everything for your comfort this cold weather. Also a full line Family Groceries.

J. R. WELLS, Stowe.
McCall Patterns.

CRAFTSBURY
J. D. Leavitt has purchased the Geo. Chase house for $500.

S. R. Carey, who has been seriously ill with heart trouble, is more comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard returned last Friday from a several days stay at St. Johnsbury.

A public installation of the Woodmen officers was held and banquet served by them last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Susie Black of Greensboro was called to this town last week by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. William Wilson, who suffered a relapse last week, is more comfortable. She has a trained nurse from St. Johnsbury.

T. N. Gallagher and son, Renfrew, Mrs. Norah Renfrew, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hanson were in St. Johnsbury Friday.

A suit for $3,000 damages was brought Saturday by Levi O. Wilder of Middlesex against the Vermont Power & Lighting Co. at Montpelier for alleged damages to land of the plaintiff caused by the water from the dam of the defendant company flooding about 40 acres. The case is returnable to the March term of Washington County Court.

Fresh Cut Meat and Bone as an Egg Producer.
Fresh Cut Meat and Bone has been called the Ideal Food for laying hens because it contains in a highly concentrated but easily assimilated form all the materials which are contained in the egg. If your hens are not laying you had better send to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., for a 200 lb. barrel of this Food. It will cost you only $3.50, freight prepaid, to your railroad station. When writing him mention this paper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD

THE GREATEST NEWSPAPER OF ITS TYPE

IT ALWAYS TELLS THE NEWS AS IT IS. PROMPTLY AND FULLY

Read in Every English Speaking Country

It has invariably been the great effort of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World to publish the news impartially in order that it may be an accurate reporter of what has happened. It tells the truth, irrespective of party, and for that reason it has achieved a position with the public unique among papers of its class.

If you want the news as it really is, subscribe to the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and is thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unexcelled newspaper and the News and Citizen together for one year for $1.75 in Lamolite County; elsewhere $2.00.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.25.

In spite of the decided advance in cost, we are still selling...

RUBBER GOODS AT THE OLD PRICE

A Complete line of the famous "BANIGAN and SHAWMUT lines."
EDDY & MACUTCHAN,
STOWE, VERMONT.

A FEW OF THE MANY THINGS YOU CAN GET AT

RILEY'S

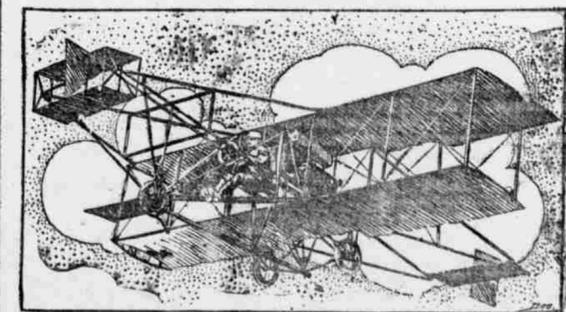

School Supplies of all kinds, Stationery that is strictly up-to-date, Candy that is always fresh, Cigars that are just right, Sheet Music, Drugs, Patent Medicines, Toilet and Fancy Goods, Rubber Goods, Crutches, Trusses, etc. :: ::

Courteous treatment, prices that are right every time.
REXALL GOODS—One for each human ill, every one GUARANTEED.

RILEY'S DRUG STORE

STOWE, VERMONT.

TAKE A FLYER!

Don't Be the Wrong Mr. Wright
Holiday Advertising is the Aeroplane That Gives Business a Lift.
GET ABOARD! TAKE A FLYER!

THE JANUARY MARK-DOWN SALE For 10 Days

COMMENCES ON THURSDAY, JAN. 13

Six doz. Overcoats from $3.00 to $12; from $2.00 to $4.00 saved on each. Men's and Youths' Suits, all prices; from $1.00 to $8.00 saved on every suit. 150 pairs of Pants from $1.00 to $3.00 a pair; odd Pants and odd Vests from 50c to $2.00 cheaper than elsewhere. Men's $1.00 Shirts for 50c, Ties, etc. in proportion. Rubbers and Leggings at greatly reduced prices, special line of large sizes. Ladies' Dress Goods 10c to $1.00 per yard. Our Grocery Line all new; this means a saving to you. Tobacco and Confectionery of all kinds.

THREE TENEMENTS TO RENT
We take all kinds of farm produce at market prices.
L. P. BOWEN, Morrisville, Vt.