

SALEEBY'S 15TH SEMI-ANNUAL SALE

A Merciless and Relentless Price Slaughter on Men's, Women's and Children's Wearing Apparel, Begins
THURSDAY, JULY 16th AND CLOSSES SATURDAY, AUG. 8th, 1914

Greater than ever in magnitude because of the increase of stocks in every department

This will be welcome news to every one who believes in economy.

Better than ever from every point of view, because reductions were never so great and prices were never so low

Many do remember the great money-saving opportunity offered by our Semi-Annual Clearance Sales in the past. Fourteen times in our history we have given the people in these surroundings the greatest values they could obtain, and we assure you we intend that this sale shall eclipse all previous records. We are putting our greatest efforts into this sale. Our stock is immense, and we are more determined than ever to close out all summer goods on hand before the end of the season--this being our business policy--not to carry merchandise over from one season to another. In making the reductions for this occasion, regular prices, cost, and real values have been completely disregarded. Nothing but a firm decision on our part to dispose of every garment and do it quickly, would make such prices as these possible.
