Fuller of Stowe Hollow, were driving down the hill near Abram Burnett's on their way to church, Sunday morning, when the horse became frightened at something and began to run, colliding with a carriage just ahead, in which George E. Fowler was riding. The Fuller carriage was overturned, and a tug and thill were broken. The horse freed itself from the harness and after running a short distance turned around and came back of its own accord. Miss Elizabeth had one wrist severely hurt and her face and mouth scratched. Her sister had slight injuries. Mr. Fowler's carriage was slightly damaged.

Child Killed By Fall

A sad accident occurred Friday evening at the home of F. M. Sears by which Lloyd Donald, the four months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Paine, lost his life. The babe was lying in its carriage on the veranda, where the rest of the family were sitting. Mrs. Paine, who was sitting by the child, rose to put away some work when the carriage, jarred perhaps by her sudden movements, began rolling and in spite of the efforts of the others of the family rolled off the veranda to the ground, three feet below. The carriage overturned and the babe, falling beneath it, had its neck dislocated and died almost instantly. The funeral was held at the house, Saturday afternoon, Rev. Lemuel Davis conducting the service. The burial was in the West Branch cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Paine have one surviving son, Robert Raymond, two and one-half years old. Mrs. Paine, who was formerly Miss Margaret Raymond, is the granddaughter of Mr. Sears.

Notch Road Travel

William M. Barnes, the veteran lumberman, whose lumber camp is at the junction of the Long Trail and the road to Smugglers' Notch, reports a large amount of travel on both the trail and Notch road. The road is in fine condition, Mr. Barnes having put in a good deal of work on it on his own account. The Green Mountain Club has placed a register at Mr. Barnes' camp and desires to have all visitors by trail or road, record their names. Mr. Barnes thinks there is no danger of the region of Smugglers' Notch being deforested, as has been recently suggested. All the lumber has been taken that will be for the present, and the growth is so rapid that what has been taken is not much missed. Mr. Barnes is doing only a small amount of lumbering this summer. In the unfrequented places where the lumber is cut Mr. Barnes finds some of the rare ferns which have almost disappeared in the Notch. A large amount of the roots of these ferns have been taken away from the Notch in the past few years by florists and nurserymen.

Wife's Privilege. "Bach said that his wife habitually chastised him and that he could stand it no longer." This is not a quotation from a comic opera or a funny paper, but from a report of court proceedings. The report proceeds: "Mrs. Bach proved, however, to the satisfaction of the court that she was frequently justified in administering corporal punishment to her husband, and she was let off with payment of the costs."—The Outlook.

Unkind Words. Unkind words do as much harm as unkind deeds. Many a heart has been stabbed to death by a few little words. There is a charity which consists in withholding words, in keeping back harsh judgments, in abstaining from speech, if to speak is to condemn. Such charity hears the tale of slander, but does not repeat it; listens in silence, but forbears comment, then locks the unpleasant secret within the very depths of the heart.

Speed Mania. "I am not flincky," said the watchful waiter, "but I can't think of any business that is so urgent that a man has to blow his soup in order to save time."
