

JOHNSON

Little Katherine Bennett is ill. Mrs. E. J. Gauthier is visiting friends in Hardwick. Mrs. George Fowler of Stowe is visiting Mrs. Herbert Scott. Parties are shipping gravel from here to Highgate for cement work. Mrs. Emma Hodgkins is in Belvidere, visiting her sister, Mrs. G. Ward. Mr. and Mrs. Y. G. Nay of Jericho have been guests at M. H. Gonyea's. Miss Ruth Crowell of Concord has been a recent guest of Mrs. Mary Darling. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitney will move to Eden to live with his mother this winter. The Sunday school attendance at the Cong'l church Oct. 31 was 104, collection $149. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hill and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Porter were in Morrisville Monday. A. K. Stinehour of Swanton visited with old friends at J. M. Miller's last Tuesday. Mrs. Ida Perry has returned from Concord, N. H., where she has been visiting relatives. Several carloads of gravel are being carried at Johnson station to be sent to Swanton. Mrs. Carrell Mann has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Stearns, in Morrisville. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Caswell are taking a carriage drive in Essex and Franklin Counties. Miss Mildred Joslyn's parents and friend, R. K. Farrant, from Newport were in town Monday. Mrs. Edith Mudgett was called to her home in Eden Tuesday, by the death of her father, Henry Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Laraway, Jr., have returned from Eden and will live with his father this winter. Lewis Davis, who has been working for Joseph Shavenough the past two weeks, has gone to Jericho for an indefinite stay. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shavenough, who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Hunt of Hiram, Maine, returned home last Saturday. The next regular meeting of the Oread Literary Club will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 4, conducted by Miss Emma Elliott. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Terrill, who have been visiting relatives and friends in town, went to Morrisville Wednesday to visit relatives. The Normal and High schools resumed work Tuesday, after a short vacation for the teachers to attend the state convention at Rutland. Mrs. M. M. Reynolds of Cambridge, visited her cousin, Mrs. E. M. Green, on her way to Morrisville to visit her son, Prin. R. G. Reynolds. A. B. Chapman has bought out the Riverside Restaurant and will serve the public in the place of Alfred Fay in the B. S. Fullington Block. The old ice house near the W. H. Stearns flouring mill is being taken down and a new one is being built by George Bradley, who will furnish ice for the village next season. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Whiting have gone to housekeeping again in the W. H. Stearns tenement in the mill block. Mrs. Whiting has been making a good improvement since returning from the hospital. Special meeting of Eastern Star Friday evening, Nov. 5. District Deputies will be present. Coral Chapter of Morrisville is invited. Refreshments will be served. All members are earnestly requested to be present. Regular meeting of the Oread Literary Club at the Library, Thursday evening, Nov. 4. Everyone is asked to bring a paper bag of potatoes to help the sale committee. Friday afternoon the ladies of the club will meet to sew for the sale. Dr. McSweeney of Burlington was called to see the six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Agnes Bennett on Tuesday and took the child, accompanied by the mother, to the hospital for an operation for appendicitis, on his return home in his automobile. At the next meeting of Johnson Grange, which occurs Nov. 4, a class will be instructed in the first and second degrees, after which there will be a short literary program. By vote of the Grange the anniversary will be observed Thursday evening, Nov. 11. The program will be announced later. On Thursday and Friday, Nov. 11 and 12, the woman of Johnson will hold their annual Rummage Sale in the G. A. R. Hall, the proceeds to be given for the beginning of a Gymnasium Fund. On Friday at 6 p. m., there will be a splendid chicken pie supper at 25 cents. At 8 p. m. Byron Clark, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will give a talk, illustrated by lantern slides. After Mr. Clark's talk, there will be a sale of food, doughnuts, rolls, cakes, pie, etc. Mrs. Flavilla Holmes Sunday school class gave her a surprise visit on her seventy-fifth birthday Monday, Nov. 1, at her home. Eleven sat at the table filled with delicious food, which all seemed to enjoy exceedingly. A birthday cake completed the menu. Mrs. Holmes was asked to relate some childhood remembrances, one was that seventy-two years ago Oct. 22, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall, she enjoyed a sleigh ride. The chins used in serving the supper was very ancient, some of the pieces being over 100 years old and others over 200 years.

Several young men from the Cong'l Sunday School were given an auto ride to Elmore last Monday afternoon. They were winners in an attendance contest. Gov. Stearns and Harry Maxwell carried the youths in their autos. Congregational Church The monthly business meeting and social of the C. E. Society was held Tuesday evening at Mrs. Fullington's. The subject of the consecration meeting, Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock, will be "Tasks that Are Waiting for the Church of Christ." The bi-monthly Communion will be held Sunday morning. High School Notes A Halloween masque was held Monday evening in the assembly room. The attendance was good and the proceeds were turned over to the gymnasium fund. Mr. Davis, Miss Jackson and Miss Nutting attended the convention in Rutland last week. Methodist Church The 60th anniversary of the dedication of the M. E. church at Johnson is to be celebrated on Sunday and Monday next. The Rev. R. F. Lowe, who was pastor of the church from 1896 to 1898 and is now superintendent of the St. Johnsbury district, will preach both Sunday morning and evening and will give an address to the Young People's meeting in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The order of exercises at the dedication of the church on Nov. 8, 1855, which are as follows, will be repeated at the morning service: 1. Psalm 22, "I was glad when they said unto me, etc." 2. Invocation and reading of Scriptures. 3. Singing Anthem. 4. Prayer. 5. Singing Hymn 656, "Great King of Glory Come." Tune 294, Lenox. 6. Notices and Offertory. 7. Sermon Rev. R. F. Lowe, St. Johnsbury. 8. Responsive Reading, "Lord God of Israel, there is no God like Thee," etc. 9. Dedication prayer. 10. Singing, Hymn 659, "Thou whose name unsounded temple stands." 11. Benediction. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will also be administered. On Sunday evening the service will be held at 7 o'clock. Soloist, Mrs. J. H. Bean of Jeffersonville. Monday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 p. m. the anniversary meeting will be presided over by the district superintendent, Rev. W. B. Dukeshire, of St. Albans. Program:—Hymn 167, "O God our help." Historical sketch of the Church, Miss Oakes. Letters from former pastors and members. Addresses:—Old members, Mrs. J. T. Baxendale, Rev. G. C. Westcott. Old pastors, Rev. R. F. Lowe, Rev. C. D. Pierce, etc. Other churches, Mr. I. L. Pearl, Rev. F. W. Hazen, Rev. E. Gallup. Hymn 159, "Blest be the tie that binds." Benediction. Tuesday evening, Nov. 9, service will be held in the church at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon will be preached by Rev. F. T. Clark of Fairfax. The fall meeting of the St. Albans District Methodist Association will also be held at the Johnson M. E. church Tuesday, Nov. 9. Following is the program:—9:30, a. m. Devotional service, Rev. W. F. Hill, Waterbury Center. 9:45 Business. The Relation of the Church to the Community:—Commercial, Rev. O. E. Aiken, Swanton. Social, Rev. Verne L. Smith, Waterbury. Spiritual, Rev. G. Locke, Sheldon. The mid-week prayer-meeting and its redemption, Rev. Stead Thornton, Montgomery. 1:30 p. m. Devotions, Rev. T. H. Cressey, West Berkshire. 1:45 p. m. Methodism and the doctrine of Christian Perfection, Rev. F. R. Keeler, Wolcott. The Methodist Forward Movement, What it is, Rev. F. A. Lendrum, D. D. St. Albans. How to achieve it, Rev. W. T. Best, Morrisville. Vital Questions for the General Conference consideration, Rev. P. A. Smith, Westford. Is the Organized Sunday School class taking the place of the Epworth League? Rev. C. S. Quimby, Cambridge. Echoes from the Atlantic City Convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America, W. E. Douglass, Enosburg Falls. The public is cordially invited to all the meetings and services. On Dec. 2, 3 and 4 the Ladies' Aid in connection with the church will hold a three days' Fair. Waterville Sam Stanley has moved to Fletcher. Mrs. Nellie Langdell is visiting in Canada. Leonard Langdell has moved back to his farm. Mrs. Elda Willey visited in Morrisville over Sunday. Mrs. W. P. Smilie visited in Morrisville last week. Maud Locke has moved into Mrs. Gray's tenement. Victor Langdell and wife and Leonard Langdell were in Canada Sunday. L. E. Tillotson and wife visited their daughter at Greensboro last week. The cemetery meeting will be with Mrs. Ella Ewins Friday afternoon. Judge H. A. Jackson and wife have returned from an extended wedding tour. Mrs. Willis Sherman and Mrs. F. M. Ober of Morrisville visited at O. G. Kelley's last week. Mrs. Arthur Beeman and son of Essex Junction visited Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Beard last week. Mrs. D. C. Smith who has been with her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Smilie, the past year, has returned to her home in Morrisville.

STOWE

C. F. Eddy is in Orleans this week on business. R. R. McMahon visited in New Hampshire Friday. Clarence Russell of Middlesex was in Stowe Friday. L. C. Raymond is confined to the house by illness. Miss Bernice Parker visited schools in Waterbury Thursday. Dr. D. D. Grout of Waterbury was a visitor here Saturday. Stafford Boardman is in town this week from Burlington. Mrs. Charles H. Stone is with her daughter, Mrs. C. O. Burt. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lucas passed a part of last week in Burlington. H. W. Best of Stowe High school visited in Burlington Thursday. A. A. Aiken and family visited in Orleans and vicinity last week. Carroll Wheeler has rented J. C. Larkin's house on Maple street. Henry Kennedy of Montpelier was a business visitor here Saturday. Miss Belle Buzzell was at home from Montpelier Seminary over Sunday. Fay Tinker of Morrisville is caring for P. R. Sargent, who is quite poorly. Mrs. A. N. Camp and little daughter of Morrisville were in Stowe Thursday. Jesse Moody and Mr. Henry of Bethel were guests at N. R. Moody's Sunday. Henry Raymond and John Wells transacted business in Rochester last week. Mrs. Anna Kimball and Mrs. C. A. Simmons passed last week in Greensboro. Editor H. C. Whitehill of the Waterbury Record was a visitor here Saturday. The young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Spaulding has been ill with pneumonia. There was a Halloween dance at Chas. Sanborn's on West Branch Friday evening. Miss Della Felix of Montpelier is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Felix. Mrs. Malinda Drugg has returned from a visit of several weeks with her sister in Montreal. Miss Marjorie Watts is assisting in the office of the Mt. Mansfield Creamery Association. Mrs. Henry Demeritt of Waterbury visited her uncle, A. D. Slayton, the first of the week. W. L. Demeritt has sold his large farm, one of the best on the West Branch, to Brandon parties. Harry Warren returned last week from Middlebury, where he has been working of late in a shoe store. The south bound mail now leaves on the 11 o'clock car, instead of at 5 o'clock as through the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adams of Chelmsford, Mass., are visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Russell. Messrs. English, Cooley and Burnham of the High school attended the teachers' convention in Rutland last week. Mr. Fred Ploof was called to West Lebanon, N. H., last week by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. John Bettie. It is said that Stowe is the only village of its size in the State without a resident lawyer. And it gets along very well. Miss Atchinson gave a Halloween party to her pupils of the eighth grade at the school building Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tomlinson and son, Clitus, and Mrs. Clara Robinson visited Mrs. Nettie Law in Morrisville last week. Mrs. Gracia Tomlinson went Friday to Moretown, where she will pass some time at the home of her nephew, George Cutler. Mr. and Mrs. George Pray of Montpelier have been guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bamforth at Green Mountain Inn. Mrs. H. H. Demeritt of Waterbury is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Slayton, and cousin, Mrs. Howard Thomas. Taxes remaining unpaid at the close of the time allowed for discount amounted to about $735, about $100 more than last year. A husking bee at F. M. Claire's last Wednesday evening was attended by about 50. After the corn was husked supper was served and sports and games were enjoyed. Mrs. Loretta Parsons, who recently moved to Burlington, was a business visitor in Stowe last week. Her daughter, Miss Evelyn, has entered the Burlington Business College. Mrs. E. C. Wells received news Thursday of the birth of a son to her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cutler, of Moretown. Mr. Cutler was formerly a resident of Stowe. The Halloween party at the Unity church parlors Friday evening was carried out very successfully. The play, "The Wishes Halloween," was given by about a dozen children. W. F. Churchill has sold his farm on Maple street to E. C. Russell, reserving the buildings. This was occupied for many years for many years by the late, C. R. Churchill and is a fine property. Clifton Mallory, always popular in Stowe, appears at the Auditorium Saturday night in "The Hazard," which he calls the best play he has ever rendered, under the auspices of the High school. At Hotel Hall, Friday Evening Geo. Kiln presents Mrs. Leslie Carter in "Do-berry," in six parts. Admission 10 and 20 cents.—adv.

The Rexall Store Make the Invalid More Comfortable Medicine is not the only requisite when sickness comes. There are other things very necessary, and these we carry in our sundry department. Have things more convenient, get these comfort necessities. Air Cushions, Feeders, Bed Pans, Drinking Tubes, Rubber Sheeting, Sponges, Absorbent Cotton, Plasters, Hot Water Bags, Fountain Syringes, Thermometers, Beef Bouillion Cubes. Our prices are reasonable and the quality is right. Perhaps the roads are bad, or it's storming, or you are too busy to go to town. These things need make no difference to you. You can do your shopping at the Rexall Store just the same. You do not need to leave home. All you have to do is to drop us a postal card, or call up on the 'phone—and we will send what you want by Parcel Post. We are here to serve you the best we know how. ARTHUR L. CHENEY, Druggist MORRISVILLE, VERMONT.

A husking party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Parsons on West Hill Wednesday evening was attended by 30 of their friends. After the corn was husked lunch was served and games were played. A basket ball game at the town hall between the Stowe High school Seniors and Sophomores against the Juniors and Freshmen Wednesday evening resulted in a score of 36 to 24 in favor of the Seniors and Sophomores. Ten members of the Stowe High school Girls' Outing Club walked home with the Misses Lois and Ruth McCuen Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served. The return was also made on foot, making a tramp of several miles. Prizes were awarded to Stowe boys at the State Agricultural and Industrial Exposition at Rutland as follows: Potatoes, (best 10), Orlo Jenney, 1st; Frank Bedell, 2d. Carrots, Orlo Jenney, 1st; Don Moulton 2d. Squash, Frank Bedell, 1st. Johnnie Latache and Miss Pearl Laraway were married at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Latache, last Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Lemuel Davis performing the ceremony. The young people are visiting relatives in Montpelier and Barre. Herbert E. Harlow and sister, Miss Sadie Merrill, have returned from an automobile trip to Boston. Miss Merrill left Stowe Friday for Detroit on her way to her home in Negaunee, Mich., after several weeks with relatives in this vicinity. E. J. Adams, who was threatened with typhoid fever, is recovering and resumed a part of his work in P. D. Pike & Son's factory Thursday. Mr. Adams has received word that his son, C. A. Adams, manual instructor at Tufts College, is recovering from acute anemia, from which he has been ill several weeks. C. L. McMahon, O. E. Lucas, F. S. Boardman and R. R. McMahon visited Smugglers' Notch Thursday. Surveyor Williams of St. Johnsbury, who is in charge of the surveying for the State road, had reached the Smugglers' Notch spring on the Stowe side last week. Mr. Williams pronounces the route a feasible one. The bridge builder and inspector of the Central Vermont railroad was here last week inspecting bridges in behalf of the C. E. & F. O. Burt Lumber Co., who are contemplating the purchase of a traction engine for use in hauling logs to their mill. Most of the larger bridges in town were built by the late John S. Smith of Moscow, who was for many years bridge builder on the Vermont Central road. The expert found their construction admirable and pronounced the bridge over the Waterbury River at the village safe for a train of cars and considered all bridges adequate to the use of the machine the Burts are constructing, with the exception of that over the Waterbury River at the lower village, which requires the rebuilding of one trestle to render it safe for ordinary travel. Cady's Falls Mrs. Lillie Mudgett has gone to Burlington. Mrs. Geo. Hicks was a visitor in Johnson the past week. Mrs. A. H. Calkins visited at John Peck's in Morrisville Friday. Mark Towle and family of Johnson were recent guests at L. J. Smith's. Miss Betsey Stone has returned to Elbridge Worden's, after a two weeks' visit in Stowe. Mrs. Sylvester Wood and Mrs. Blanche Corry were visitors in Hyde Park last Wednesday. Repairs are being made on the house across from the electric light plant occupied by Geo. Warren. Mrs. Austin Wilkins and Mrs. Helea Towne of Morrisville visited friends in this place the past week. Belvidere Corners John Campbell was home from his work in Enosburg Falls over Sunday. Ralph Carr has gone to Waterville where he is working for James Brown. Miss Benah Campbell was at home from her school in Johnson over Sunday. A "Halloween" party was given at A. P. Brown's Saturday eve. A large crowd was present and the evening was pleasantly passed by "Halloween" games. The house was trimmed with red and green and lighted with jack-lanterns. After refreshments the jolly party departed for home. EDEN Hotel Mt. Norris at Eden is open to the public. Harley Hodges has sold his farm to Mr. Poronto of Lowell. Miss Zelta Shattuck has returned to her school in Barre. The Ladies' Aid meets Nov. 4 at the church hall. Dinner will be served. Mrs. Thomas Peck has been spending a few days with Mrs. Chandler Havens. Jerry Rushford is moving to his farm and Mr. Cooleage is moving to Lowell. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sylvester and Malon Dubois and family spent Sunday at Lowell. Herbert Reed and Joseph Pond are in East Berkshire, repairing Mr. Pond's buildings. The Town Clerk's office is completed and is a pleasant and commodious place to transact business. Miss Marian Blake went last Friday to Wethersfield, Conn., where she has employment with Mr. Pitman. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cooleage have moved to their former home in Lowell, and Jerry Rushford has moved to the Atwell farm. The Halloween party at the Mills church vestry Saturday evening was well attended and enjoyed. The Takozza Club is wide awake. The community was shocked and saddened Monday afternoon by the sudden death of Henry Adams. He was about the house as usual in the morning, but passed away at 4 o'clock. He was a native of Eden, and leaves a wife and three children, several grandchildren, and a host of friends to mourn his loss. The funeral was held at the Mills church at 1 o'clock this afternoon. RIVERSIDE Ed Liley from the Village was in this place Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Quimby were in Woodbury recently. Oscar Fleming from Wolcott, was a recent visitor in this place. Chas. Lucas is confined to the bed with a severe attack of rheumatism. Mrs. George Cutler is spending some time with friends in Wolcott and Elmore. Charles Emerson from Johnson is moving into R. S. Page's cottage on Sunnyside Avenue. Mrs. Grace Elliott and son from the Street visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lucas, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mills, from Johnson, spent a short time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, who spent a few days at Vernon Quimby's, have returned to their home in Woodbury. Mrs. Clarence Styles has returned from Cornish, N. H., where she was called by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Gordon. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller are the happy parents of a son, born last week. Mrs. Sylvester from Johnson is caring for mother and child.

WOLCOTT Raymond Golden is home from Morrisville. C. E. Haskell has traded for a Ford automobile. Lillie Lueador is working at the home of W. E. Foss. Sadie Barter is convalescing from an attack of jaundice. Edgar Johnson is in the Hardwick hospital for treatment. C. M. Wood was a business visitor in Morrisville Saturday. Ed Kilgartin of Hardwick is working for J. E. Wheeler, Jr. C. H. Carpenter and Willard May were in Morrisville Saturday. James L. Peck and wife have been recent visitors in Johnson. George Emery of Randolph was in town the first of the week. O. H. Cogswell of St. Johnsbury passed Sunday here with his wife. Remember M. A. Bainter and Son's auction Monday next. See posters. Miss Hazel Clegg of Craftsbury is working for Mrs. Chester Clark. Walter Sabin was a business visitor in Morrisville the first of the week. H. C. Elton and wife of New Haven, Conn., are guests at W. E. Foss'. R. Goodall of East Calais spent Sunday at the home of Amos Boardman. D. W. Hartson of Charlotte was a week-end visitor at A. W. Foster's. Mrs. Wells and son of Burlington are guests at F. E. Kipp's for the week. Glenn Powers and wife are in Worcester, where the former has employment. Mrs. C. P. Leach and Mrs. Lydia Peck visited relatives in Waterbury Tuesday. John Poof of St. Johnsbury was a visitor at "Twin Cliff" the first of the week. A. W. Converse of Palmer, Mass., was the guest of his niece, Mrs. A. W. Foster, Friday. C. W. Jones and wife and Truman Jones and wife were visitors in Barre Tuesday. Austin Albee and wife were guests Wednesday of Albert Dimick in East Hardwick. George Houghton has purchased a piano from the Bailey Music Rooms in Burlington. There will be a meeting of Geo. P. Foster W. R. C. at their hall Saturday afternoon, Nov. 6. R. G. McDonald and family passed Sunday at the home of his brother, W. G. McDonald, in Greensboro. F. J. Warren and Mrs. Leon Benjamin were united in marriage last Wednesday evening at the latter's home here. Mrs. Hattie Hubbell passed Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Ashton Mudgett, in Burlington, where she underwent an operation. W. S. Sillo-way was called to Hanover, N. H., Tuesday by the serious condition of his sister, Mrs. Ed Potter, who is in the hospital there. NORTH WOLCOTT Mrs. Horace Hill is numbered among the sick. Ray Stoddard is visiting relatives in this place. Harry Griswold visited out of town over Sunday. Willis Reed is moving back to his farm in Morrinstown. N. H. Reed is soon to take possession of his farm again. A. E. Woodmansee was in Hardwick two days last week. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Woodmansee were Morrisville recently. B. R. Woodmansee was a business visitor in Hardwick Monday. Ernaie Boardman of Pottersville visited at A. E. Woodmansee's Sunday. E. D. Andrus began his duties with the Grand Union Tea Co. this week. Ruth Moodie, while playing at school Wednesday, had the misfortune to break her arm. B. R. Woodmansee and E. D. Andrus were business visitors in Morrisville last Thursday. Mrs. Frances Wright of Lisbon, N. H., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wells, returned home Friday. Her Father Noticed It. "I suppose it is hardly necessary for me to tell you, sir, that I am in love with your daughter?" said the trembling suitor. "Not at all, young man!" replied her father. "And, furthermore, I've seen enough idiotic symptoms in the last month to convince me that your passion is reciprocated."

BILLHEADS We Print Them LETTERHEADS We Print Them Well ENVELOPES HANDBILLS We Print Them Too We Print Everything Well DROP IN AND SEE US AND BE CONVINCED She Has Left Me! WHEREAS—My wife, MYRTLE CULVER, has left my bed and board without just cause or provocation. I will pay no bills of her contracting after this date. LEWIS CULVER. STOWE, VT., Nov. 3, 1915.

Warning Special Town Meeting The legal voters in March meeting, of the town of Hyde Park, are hereby notified and warned to meet at the Town Hall, in said town on Tuesday, the 9th day of November, 1915, at one o'clock in the afternoon, to transact the following business:— First—To see if the Town will vote to rescind the vote taken at the annual Town Meeting in March 1915, directing its Committee to build the Lanpher Public Library Building on what is known as the "School House Grounds." Second—To see if the town will vote to accept the "Lilly Lot" as a gift and will vote to authorize the Building Committee elected; to build the Lanpher Public Library Building on said "Lilly Lot" when conveyed to the Town unincumbered. Dated at Hyde Park, Vt., this 26th day of Oct. 1915. H. B. LANPHER, Selectmen D. S. McALLISTER, Town H. A. DAVIS, Hyde Park