Bridge-Thayer
This afternoon at the Universalist parsonage occurred the marriage of Miss Idamae Sylvia Thayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Thayer of the west part of town, to Ellis Cleo Bridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Bridge of this village. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. D. Crammer, the couple being unattended. Both are well known and popular young people, the groom having been a student of P. A. until recently. Congratulations.

A Farewell Reception
Last Friday evening at the home of Hon. and Mrs. Clement F. Smith on Dorchester Heights, a reception was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mark P. Smith and son; who left Monday evening for their new home in Wiley, Colo. About thirty guests were present and the evening was pleasantly spent with games and a social good time. Rev. W. T. Best made appropriate remarks and at the close of the evening, the guests joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Smith and son a pleasant journey and health and prosperity in their new home, a sentiment in which the News and Citizen joins heartily. They were presented with a half dozen fruit knives by the guests.

LOCAL NEWS

MORRISVILLE

The Woodmen will give a dance at Woodmen's hall Thursday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Silloway spent Thanksgiving at the home of W. S. Silloway in Elmore.

Mrs. William McDonald and three children of Greensboro Bend have been guests the past few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDonald on George street.

Mrs. Clara Crowell entertained as Thanksgiving guests Ned and Davis Davis and Misses Clara, Ruth and Marion Davis of Wolcott and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richardson and baby of Morris-town.

Last Friday a pleasant family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Ellis on Winter street, when the usual Thanksgiving dinner was none the less enjoyable if one day late. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Miss Nita Ellis, Raymond Ellis, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Johnstone and daughters, Harriet and Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Mark P. Smith and son Ellis.

The Sterling Trust Company

is the name of Johnson's new savings bank which is getting ready for business and will commence operations Jan. 6th. J. D. Corley, formerly assistant treasurer of the Central Savings Bank of Orleans, is to be the treasurer and he is now on the ground and getting affairs into shape for the commencement of business. The organization is not yet complete, but it will be made up in the main of some of Johnson's representative men, which is a guarantee of its solidity and success. Attention is called to the advertisement on this page.

Home Again!

E. E. Harris and George E. Towne returned Saturday from a western trip, having visited in several states and the Expositions. Mr. Harris spent some time in Sierra Madre, Cal., with Mrs. Harris, who is spending several months with their daughter, Miss Brenda Harris. Elmer says it is a great country but thinks the weather has had nothing on Vermont the past fall. The sheriff stopped off to see his brother, Frank Towne, at Charlotte, Mich., where he found the latter busy but happy with his duties as president and manager of a large automobile truck factory.

Killed Instantly in Woods

Charles Jackman, 62 years of age, was instantly killed while chopping on the Orrin Blanchard place in Elmore last Friday forenoon. A tree which he felled lodged, and when he was cutting away the obstruction, a limb struck him on the head, inflicting a deep gash and causing instant death.

The funeral services were held at his home at Elmore Pond Sunday forenoon at 10 o'clock, Rev. W. T. Best of Morrisville officiating. Interment was in Sterling. He leaves a wife and three children, who have the sympathy of the community.

Morse—Titus

Announcements were received here last week of the marriage of Hon. George A. Morse of Morrisville and Mrs. Laura A. Titus of Hardwick. The ceremony was performed in Hardwick on Wednesday morning of last week, Rev. E. G. French of the Congregational church of that place officiating. Only the immediate relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony, following which Mr. and Mrs. Morse left by automobile for a short wedding trip. They will be at home at the Morse residence on Congress street after January 5.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Morse have a very large circle of friends in Morrisville, the latter having always resided here until going to Hardwick to live about twelve years ago. She is a graduate of Peoples Academy in the class of '93. Judge Morse is one of Morrisville's best known citizens and a lumber dealer of prominence. He was County Senator in 1890-1902 and was elected Associate Judge in 1898, serving two terms.

J. E. Russ and family of Stowe were guests last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Minnie Smalley.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Luce returned last Saturday from an extended trip to points in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

A. A. Thayer of the west part of town was among the successful hunters last week, getting a nice buck near the Chas. Sargent place on West Hill last Saturday.

George F. Collette and Miss Mildred Smith, both of Morris-town, were united in marriage at Hyde Park on Monday, Nov. 22, Rev. W. R. Hamlin officiating. Congratulations.

The condition of Mrs. C. W. McFarland, who has been confined to the bed recently by a severe attack of rheumatism in one foot, is much better. Mrs. Lou Rublee has been nursing her.

Charles Smith of Elmore went to Winooski last Saturday, where his five years old son, Foy, was operated upon a week ago for appendicitis, at the Fanny Allen Hospital. The little fellow is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spaulding of Hardwick were Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Spaulding on Maple street. The families of M. H. Boardman and C. T. Morrill were also entertained at dinner at the Spaulding home that day.

Miss Catherine Chaffee, P. A., '08, daughter of Mrs. Addie Chaffee, formerly of Morrisville, who has been engaged in social reform work in New York City for some time, has accepted a call to act as resident club organizer and parish visitor at All Saints' Parish House in that city.

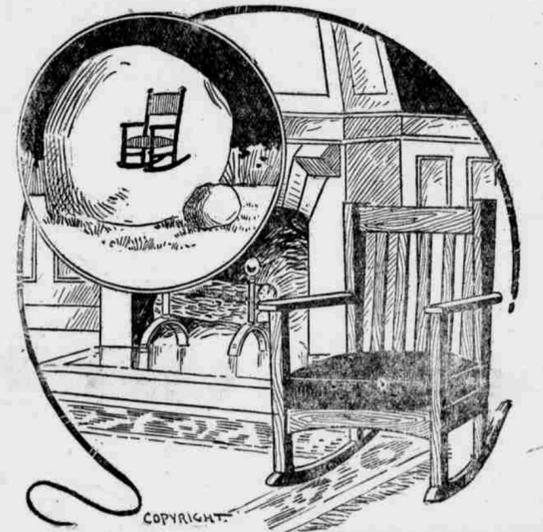

A. B. Simonds, the well-known traveling man, has returned from his western trip, during which he attended the marriage of a son at Salt Lake City and visited the California Exposition and other points of interest. While away he had a substitute on his route, the first one in thirty-three years, which is a pretty good record. "Abe," as everybody well knows, is always "on the job."

Miss Lantha Howard and Miss Mary Sheehy, teachers in the St. Albans public school, were guests a part of their Thanksgiving vacation at Mr. and Mrs. Page Ufford's. These young ladies were associate teachers with Mrs. Ufford and undoubtedly had a fine time in recalling old events.

The recent sale of the Cyrus Perry farm leaves but one farmer in that locality (the Center) who was a resident there 25 years ago and that is Albert Whitcomb. He is the last and has lived on the same farm in the neighborhood of 50 years. One can scarcely realize that Mr. Whitcomb and Mr. Perry are the last of that sturdy lot of men which included Benj. Campbell, Robert Campbell, Alvin Hubbard, Chas. Whitcomb, Quartus Noble, David Sherwin, Wm. Wheeler, Hiram Kellogg, A. C. Collins, Calvin Campbell, Edw. Davis and Ariel Wilson. Great changes sure have taken place in that neighborhood.

First Settler of Orleans County

Now that the Library location is set, it might be proper to give attention to "the first settler of Orleans county," John McDaniels, Esq., whose remains repose in the old cemetery in the west part of this town, just off from the road to Johnson. This part of Lamoille county was at one time a part of Orleans county and "Squire Mac" was not only the first settler of the county, but was identified in many ways with the early history of Hyde Park. He kept hotel at one time in the hostelry then located on the Finnegon farm, east of the present farmhouse; he was a long time a justice of the peace, and many interesting anecdotes are told of him in connection with his duties in that capacity. He was also one of the organizers of Mt. Vernon Lodge F. & A. M. (now located at Morrisville) which had its beginning in his hotel. Many other interesting events are connected with his life. It is suggested that a monument be erected in his memory at some point in our village, perhaps on the academy campus. Surely, such an interesting character is worthy of such recognition.
