

JOHNSON

Mrs. Frank Miller is ill.
Read Nye's adv't on page 3.
Miss Sybil Davis is teaching in Wolcott.
Frank Ober went to Burlington Tuesday.
Work on the new bank is progressing rapidly.
Freda Davis is working in Hyde Park during session.
Harry Griswold has returned to his school in Wolcott.
Forty-one deer were reported killed during the season.
Mrs. W. E. Tracy and Tracy Smalley were in Burlington Monday.
Miss Ila Hoyt passed the first of the week at her home in Morrisville.
C. H. Courtney has returned from Rochester and is working for E. J. Woodward.
Mrs. E. G. Wilson of Morrisville was a recent guest of her cousin, Mrs. Anna Pearl.

Sterling Trust Co.
OF JOHNSON, VERMONT

OUR BANKING ROOMS will be completed Jan. 1st, 1916, and shall open for business about the 6th.

SAVINGS DEPOSITS made not later than the 10th of January will draw interest from the 1st.

STERLING TRUST CO.

Normal School Notes

The second number of the Lecture Course will be given on Friday evening, Dec. 10, at the opera house. Marcelle, ventriloquist, slight of hand performer and Yogi wonder worker will entertain. He comes very highly recommended and the entertainment promises to be an interesting one.
Miss Mildred Montgomery, Miss Jennie Sherbert and Miss Dorothy Gardyne have entered school.
Harry Griswold spent his vacation at the Normal.
Miss Fannie Eastman has taken the position as Critic teacher at the Training School, which was formerly held by Miss Clapp. Miss Clapp has returned to the Grammar School position in Montgomery which she held before coming here.
The Glee Club will give a public entertainment on Tuesday evening, Dec. 14th, at the town hall. The evening will be given over to songs and scenes of Vermont winter.
Rev. A. W. Hewitt spent four days in Johnson last week. He seemed well pleased with the condition of the school.

STOWE

Mark Chaffee of Manchester is visiting his children here.
Mrs. Phoebe Adams of Edson Hill is quite ill from pneumonia.
Miss Susan Dower of Morrisville was a guest at her home here Sunday.
Mrs. Phoebe Adams is ill at her home on Edson Hill, pneumonia being feared.
The Misses Elsie Alger, Mildred Gale and Beatrice Gale were in Waterbury on Saturday.
The remains of Mrs. George Smalley of Middlesex were brought here for burial Sunday afternoon.
A social for the benefit of the Cemetery Association will be held at the Memorial Building Friday evening.
The Shiner sawmill on Cotton Brook, owned by the C. E. & F. O. Burt Co. of this place, burned one night last week.
The first basket ball game of the season will be played here Friday evening by S. H. S. and Waterbury High school.
S. H. Moody is on crutches as the result of a limb falling on one of his feet while he was working in the woods.
The killing of 125 deer was reported to the game wardens, most of them does, and the majority small deer. Many others were wounded.
Mrs. Lucius Morrill is in a critical condition. Mrs. Morrill, who has been an invalid for ten years, suffered a severe shock Saturday.
Mrs. F. D. Van Dusen returned Saturday from Ellenburg, N. Y., where she has been since the death of her father, H. P. Cooledge, Nov. 11.
Miss Caroline Swift, until recently Superintendent of the Barre City hospital, is visiting Miss Susan Bigelow at her home on West Branch.
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McMahon and daughter, Ruth, leave Thursday for Los Angeles, Cal., where they expect to remain through the winter.
Herbert Cleveland was in Burlington Monday and returned with Mrs. Cleveland, who has been receiving treatment at the Fanny Allen Hospital.
The funeral of Joseph Papineau was held at the town farm Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. F. T. Crane. The burial was in River Bank Cemetery.
Dr. P. E. McSweeney of Burlington was in town Monday and operated upon Caroline, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pike, for appendicitis. The child is expected to make a rapid recovery.
H. E. Shaw's new store is one of the show places in this village and promises to be one of the busiest stores in Lamoille County during the holiday season. Every department is filled with strictly new goods. He has an important announcement in this issue.
Miss Ruth McMahon and her class of pupils gave a public demonstration of the Fletcher music method at the High School building Saturday afternoon. The audience was much interested in the work of the small pupils. Geo. Jenney played selections, one of which he composed; Cedric Scribner also played a selection.

Good Target.

A target having the usual center and concentric rings is so constructed that the marksman's bullet ignites a colored fire at the point of impact, showing the rifeman the place and value of his hit and making it unnecessary to keep a marker at the target.—"Wonders of Today," in National Magazine.

Daily Thought.

A great work of literature is more lasting than the mountains because it is imbued with mind. The mountains will crumble to dust, but a great work of literature will last while the world endures.—H. McKelton.

MORRISVILLE

Death of Old Resident

Benjamin W. Stewart, one of the oldest residents of Morrisville, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, on Olive street yesterday morning at one o'clock from a complication of diseases incident to old age, having been in failing health for nearly a year.
The funeral will be held from the home tomorrow at one o'clock, Rev. George W. Tabor officiating. Interment will be in the Morrystown Plains Cemetery.

Benjamin Woods Stewart, one of seven children of Samuel and Elizabeth Boutwell Stewart, was born in Lowell, Vt., March 15, 1827. He spent his boyhood days in Lowell and was united in marriage to Almira Electa Wedge, daughter of Eastman and Electa Tyler Wedge, on October 6, 1852, and came to Morrisville to live 49 years ago, residing for many years on Morrystown Plains. Nine children were born to them, eight of whom survive, with their mother. They are Melissa A. Gymer, Stowe; Celia F. Hoagboom and Edwin B. Stewart, Lowell, Mass.; William B. of Hardwick; Fred L. of Morrisville; Anna M. Willey, Arlington, Mass.; Angie G. Greene, Swiftwater, N. H., and Jessie S. Ring of Morrisville.

A son, Arthur, died 28 years ago. He also leaves twelve grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.
Mr. Stewart was the last survivor of a family of remarkable longevity. A brother, the late Eben Stewart, lived to the age of 96, dying about four years ago. Two other brothers, William and David, lived to the ages of 78 and 93 respectively, and a sister, Maria, died at the age of 79. A brother, Hiram, died in Lowell last May, aged 86.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was the last survivor of a family of remarkable longevity. A brother, the late Eben Stewart, lived to the age of 96, dying about four years ago. Two other brothers, William and David, lived to the ages of 78 and 93 respectively, and a sister, Maria, died at the age of 79. A brother, Hiram, died in Lowell last May, aged 86.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

Mr. Stewart was an honest, upright citizen and during his long residence in town had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends. After a few years, spent in Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to live with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ring, and family, four and one-half years ago. During his last illness he had been tenderly cared for by the children.

BIJOU THEATRE

W. M. JOHNSON, Manager

Bijou Maxim—"A man is known by the company he keeps"—A manager by his programs.

WEDNESDAY

Marguerite Courtot in a two-act Kalem Comedy drama "For High Stakes" (see lobby posters)

"The Spark and the Flame"—Lubin.
"The Repentance of Dr. Blinn"—Vitagraph.

"Dreamy Dud"—Cartoon.
THURSDAY

I do believe it "pays to advertise," also that it pays to read the advertisements.
"Neal of the Navy."
"The Maker of Dreams"—three act Kalem.

FRIDAY

Am not putting out fliers but am putting on good shows.
Hazards of Helen—"A deed of daring"—Kalem.

"Hearst Selig"
"Pat Hogan Deceased"—"the Big Four" in Vitagraph Comedy.

SATURDAY

My Saturday night shows are up to date.
"A Man Afraid"—three act Essanay.
"Mr. Jar's Big Vacation"

MONDAY

Till I can do better shall run a four act Broadway feature on Mondays. Tonight it will be Myrtle Tannerhill in the "Barnstormers"—Kalem
"The Cab and the Daisy Chain"—Vitagraph comedy.

TUESDAY

"The Red Stepano"—special two part Vitagraph feature. Western tonight.
"The Secret of the Cellar"—western detective.
"Ham and Bud."

This has been Kalem week.

WOLCOTT

R. M. Hubbell was in Stowe Saturday Clyde Little has returned home from Barre.

F. B. Morse of Morrisville was in town Saturday.
Miss Maynard of East Fairfield is teaching on East Hill.

Horace Peck of Cabot was in town the first of the week.
L. C. Udall and Ormal Hubbard were in Johnson Friday.

Clinton Spaulding has purchased the Edgar Johnson farm.
Charles Wells and wife have returned home from Marshfield.

Albert Williams of Burlington is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Cooper.
Mrs. Laura Patterson of Barre has been a recent guest at B. W. Guyer's.

Mr. Randall of Ryegate was a recent visitor at the home of his son, H. I. Randall.
Joe Poor who has been employed in Adams, N. Y., the past three years, has returned home.

Charles Parsons has returned here from Pawtucket and is now working for Cogswell and Mudgett.
Ernest Kelley and wife are soon to leave for East Hardwick, where he has a position in the creamery.

Mrs. Henry King has been a recent guest of her daughters, Mrs. Hugh Calderwood and Mrs. Allen Pike, in Craftsbury.
Mrs. W. G. McDonald and children of Greensboro and Mrs. Bruce McDonald of Morrisville were guests at R. G. McDonald's Thursday.

A dance at the M. W. A. Hall Friday evening of this week, with a chicken pie supper served at the Wolcott House from 6 until 12 o'clock, for the benefit of the new hotel.

Word recently received here from our former townsman, A. A. Whiting, who now resides in Wollaston, Mass., is that he has been ill for eleven weeks and is confined to his bed.
Do not forget Tuesday evening, Dec. 14, 8 p. m. Third evening of the Wolcott Lecture Course. Lecture by Clarence E. Campbell of Boston, subject, "The Grist of the Gods" or "Man in the making," with a musical prelude in which the lecturer is assisted by Mrs. Campbell. Tickets for sale at Perkins' store, 35¢ & 25¢.

Eden
S. R. Miller and wife of Johnson were Sunday visitors at W. J. Atwell's.
Bert Parkhurst is working on a lumber job for George Lanpher and Rufus Emery for Mr. Tillotson of Lowell.
Albanus Earl died at 12 o'clock Sunday night. He was 87 years old. The funeral was held from the church at the Mills Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lavinell of Lynn, Mass., has been passing a few days with Mrs. E. A. Dodge. They went the first of the week to Massachusetts to visit friends.
Plans are being made for a town Christmas tree at the church at the Corners on Christmas Eve. The chairman of the committee are as follows:—Tree Com., Rollie O'Hear; Literary Com., Mrs. Lula Maxfield; Musical Com., Mrs. Hazel O'Hear; Decorating Com., Mrs. Nellie Davis. Everyone is asked to help the committee to make this occasion the usual success.

Read the advertisements in this paper of the live business men.

Special for Saturday Evening only, after 6 o'clock

One extra nice beef at the following prices:—

- Round Steak, 15c. Best cuts rump, tenderloin, sirloin 19c lb
- Best Boiling Pieces, 10c per pound.
- 25 Chickens and Fowls, 15c per pound.
- Pork, best steak and loins, 15c per pound.

Only enough sold to one person for one meal for their family. No more than one beef and one pork and 20 chickens will be sold.
No goods charged at these prices. No goods saved for anyone.
You will have to be on the spot.

A. W. WAITE, Morrisville, Vt.

Our Christmas Suggestions

At this time of the year, the Merry Christmas season, everybody wants to look his best, and must dress in keeping with the spirit of the season.

We suggest a New Suit, Made up in Our Handsome New Wool Goods. We have time yet if you order now.

If you cannot have a new garment, our French Dry Cleaning plant is at your service.
Bring in your Furs for alteration.

J. L. GOODKIN

Lamoille County's Only Tailor Morrisville, Vt.

Buying and Selling

It is claimed there is more business to the square inch down here on the Wharf than any place in Lamoille County.

You can get your horse shod, shirt laundered, hair cut, watch repaired yourself a gravestone, a suit of clothes, a ton of coal, a slice of beef, steak, a pound of Revere Coffee, a ton of Clover Leaf Dairy Feed, visit the 5 and 10c store, or the picture show, and there are other things. It pays to do your business down on the WHARF.

H. WAITE & SON, Morrisville

SUITABLE

Christmas Gifts!

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Hats, Bonnets and Toques at Big Discount from Dec. 8 to Jan. 1, 1916

Ribbons, Stamped Goods, Aprons, and many other useful articles.

MRS. M. A. MUDGETT
Wolcott, Vermont

Arbuckle Shop Open

I have recently purchased the Arbuckle shops at Wolcott and am now prepared to do all kinds of

Woodworking and Repair Work
Automobile Truck Bodies a Specialty

Years of experience and satisfaction guaranteed.

R. A. COTEY
Wolcott, Vermont

Raw Furs Wanted!

We need large quantities Fox, Coon and Skunk to fill our orders and will pay for the average quality of prime skins as follows:

Fox	$7.00	$5.00	$3.00
Coon	$3.25	$2.25	$1.25
Skunk	$3.00	$2.00	$1.00

Furs of extra quality at higher prices; also large trappers' lots of well handled skins are more valuable.
Tel. 118-21

CARROLL F. MUDGETT,
Cady's Falls, Vermont.

ABE COHEN

Morrisville Junk Man
Buys all kinds of Hides and Skins.
SAVE YOUR JUNK FOR HIM
Tel. 133-10 Randolph St.

Estate of Felix L. Wells

State of Vermont—District of Lamoille, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Lamoille.

To all persons interested in the Estate of FELIX L. WELLS, late of Stowe, in said District, deceased.

At a Probate Court, holden at Hyde Park, within and for said District, on the 7th day of December, A. D. 1915, an instrument purporting to be the last WILL and TESTAMENT of Felix L. Wells, late of Stowe, in said District, deceased, was presented to the Court aforesaid for Probate.

And it is ordered by said Court that the 27th day of Decr., A. D. 1915, at the Probate Office, in said Hyde Park, be assigned for proving said instrument, and that notice thereof be given to all persons concerned by publishing this order three weeks successively in the NEWS AND CITIZEN, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, in said District, previous to the time appointed.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the probate of said Will, if you have cause.

Given under my hand at Hyde Park, in said District, this 7th day of December, 1915.

NOYES G. WOOD, Judge.

Reminder

When you give us an order for Job Printing of any kind you take absolutely no chance of failure on our part.
We have samples of all grades and sizes, and you can see just what you are going to get before a single type is put into a stick.

Eden Mills

Allen White is staying with his sister, Mrs. Levi Deague.
Mrs. Etta Whittemore is able to be about the store again.
Herbert Hinds and Mrs. Onias Whittemore remain about the same.
Miss Arlie Wescome visited at Nick Ingalls' several days last week.
Remember the big auction sale of Henry Adams' property, next Saturday.