Masonic Temple Site Selected

At a meeting of the members of Mt. Vernon Lodge, F. & A. M., last Wednesday evening the report of the building committee was presented. This report referred mainly to the location of the proposed Masonic Temple. Several sites had been suggested, but the committee were unanimous in reporting as the best location, all things considered, the so-called Matthews lot on Portland street, just below Drown's block and adjoining the Woodbury lot. The place can be bought for $3100 and the lot is large enough for a large building and would leave a good building lot beside. The lodge voted unanimously to purchase this site and instructed the committee so to do.

Rural School Teachers

The following teachers have been engaged for Morrisville's rural schools for the fall term: No. 2, Cady's Falls, Eltha Robson; No. 3, Morrystown Corners, Leafie Kinney; No. 5, South Laporte, Florence S. Hayford; No. 15, Mud City, Myrtle Bowen; No. 19, Billings mill district, Lois McCain. Nos. 4 and 7 are not yet filled.

Store Robbed in Daylight

Monday afternoon while H. F. Smith the clerk in H. G. Hutchins's store at Lake Elmore, was in the basement the cash drawer was robbed of $28.00. Upon returning to the main store Mrs. Arthur Titt was found waiting. Soon after her departure the loss was discovered. Mr. Smith immediately notified Justice LaFontaine of Morrisville who sent Sheriff Stevens to the Titt home in Elmore, where after searching the house and threatening Mrs. Titt with the prospect of a vacation in the Lamolle County jail at Hyde Park she finally gave up the money. On account of the absence of Mr. Hutchins, the final decision is not known at present writing.

A Coming Wedding

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of George Noyes Slayton, son of H. A. Slayton, and Miss Pauline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boynton. The ceremony takes place Wednesday, August 2, at 8:30 p. m., at the Congregational church at Rutland and will be followed by a reception at The Bardwell. The couple will be at home at Wyoming, New Jersey, after October 1st.

Miss Boynton is a graduate of the Rutland high school, was a student for a year at Oberlin conservatory of music and is a well known teacher of music in Rutland.

Mr. Slayton is a graduate of Borden-town, N. J., military academy, Amherst college, and Columbia Law school. He also attended the Harvard Law school. He is at present with the firm of Burlington, Montgomery & Beecher of New York City.

A Pleasant Re-Union

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Towne entertained a large company of relatives and friends at their pleasant home, the occasion being a most enjoyable family gathering. Those present, besides the members of the immediate family were Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Campbell and daughter and Pember Ballou of Hyde Park, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clark and three children, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Davis and daughter, Miss Gertrude, and Ralph Thomas of Hardwick, Mrs. E. M. Stevens and two children of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Helen Towne of Morrisville. The day was quietly spent in visiting, a picnic dinner being served at noon.

Hardwick Merchant Fails

Pearl R. Slayton of Hardwick, a merchant, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with Clerk F. S. Platt of the United States court, having 66 creditors. His attorneys are Dutton & Mulcahy. Burlington creditors are Arbuckle & Co., $29.02; Berry Hall & Co., $60.80; O. C. Taylor & Co., $132.22; Burlington Grocery Co., $101.26; Salzberger & Sons, $72.63; Vermont Fruit Co., $18.28; H. P. Prindle, $88. The total liabilities are $6,574.23 and he has assets of $4,923, with $1,493 claimed exempt.

Auto Crashes Through Door

Andrew Calkins, usually one of the careful drivers in this vicinity, and his new Maxwell, furnished plenty of excitement for the throng on lower Portland street in the early part of last Saturday evening. When in front of the Bijou Andrew found the autos and teams pretty thick and decided to slow up and in changing into intermediate, he threw the car into reverse, which began to back rapidly. At this point the driver lost control and the car backed until it reached the Wilson block, where it turned onto the sidewalk and crashed into the door to the upstairs tenement. The door was torn from the casements and thrown against the stairs, the upper part which was glass, being completely demolished. A rear spring was broken and the top to the car somewhat damaged. Mr. and Mrs. Calkins and Mrs. Everett Calkins and little child, who were in the car, were unharmed, although badly frightened.

Twenty-first Birthday Party

A family gathering was held at the home of Judge and Mrs. Geo. M. Powers yesterday, in honor of the twenty-first birthday anniversary of their son, H. Horace Powers. Those present included Mrs. U. A. Woodbury, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Woodbury and son, Urban, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Woodbury and son, Murray, and daughter, Elsa and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Page of Burlington, Mrs. Lila Woodbury Lane and son, John, of Cambridge, Mass., Mrs. Caroline Powers and Miss Carrie Powers of Morrisville. The company made up an automobile party for Lake Mansfield, where dinner was served at the Club House. They returned here for supper at the Powers home, where the evening was most enjoyably spent. The guests returned home this morning.

The barns on the Warner Gilbert farm, which have been enlarged and thoroughly remodeled, are practically completed and ready for the crop of hay, which is now being harvested. The carpenter work on this job and Ld E. Bliss' new barn was in charge of E. D. Hilliker and son.

HYDE PARK

Gertrude Jewett spent Sunday with her parents; returning to Morrisville Sunday night.

That hay scattered from one end to the other of Main street other ought to be gathered up.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thomas and son from Jeffersonville were visitors today at the home of H. A. Noyes.

The condition of Mrs. S. B. Waite, who was injured by a fall down stairs last week, remains about the same.

Somebody's dog made a raid on the "Village Farm Poultry Yards" last Sunday and annihilated upwards of thirty chickens.

Mrs. Cora Knight of Medford, Oregon, who has been spending a few days at Cowansville, P. Q., arrived here last evening for a visit.

Miss Myra Noble of Hardwick, who is attending the summer school at Johnson, spent Sunday and Monday here with her cousin, Miss Frances Noble.

A linen "shower" was given Miss Helen Wood at the home of Mrs. Donald Scribner yesterday afternoon. Thirty-five were present and the usual good time was enjoyed. There were several dainty gifts.

Mrs. James Jewett, accompanied her brother, Winn George, and his niece, Mildred Heardsley, to the Fanny Allen Hospital, Sunday, to see Mr. George's wife, who is recovering from a serious operation. Ernest Page took them down in his auto.

Almon Clark, the purchaser of the Maxwell block, has moved his family into the upper part and now has a couple of carpenters renovating and repairing the building. The front veranda is to be rebuilt and a double-decked veranda built upon the north side. The interior of the store will be remodelled and put in first-class shape for an up-to-date store.

Mrs. C. A. Keeler, aged 88 years, died last Wednesday at the home of W. H. Harris. She had been in poor health a long time and death was due to old age. She received kind care and attention from Mrs. Harris during the time she was in her charge. The funeral was held from the house last Friday, Rev. W. R. Hamlin and W. T. Best officiating. Many old friends and neighbors were present. The burial was at Morrystown Corners. Caroline Keeler was a daughter of the late Roswell Clark and a sister of the late Samuel Clark. She was born in Morrystown. Her husband was Edward Keeler, who was a "Forty-niner," going to California at that time with Calvin Campbell and others from this vicinity. He was successful in mining there and came back here, where he remained several years and again went to California, where he died in 1881.
