Change in Business

E. G. Wilson has sold his business conducted so long by him in the store on Portland street, near the depot, to Ernest Mills of Johnson, who has taken possession of the same, renting the south half of the store and also the tenement overhead. Mr. Wilson reserves a portion of the rear of the store for piano and organ business. Mr. Mills for several years has clerked in the stores at Johnson and is a good business man as well as an exemplary young man. We welcome him and his family to Morrisville.

Tom Leland of Waterbury was in town on business Saturday.

A. C. Sulham was a business visitor in Essex Saturday.

Miss Nellye Tyndall returned last evening from a visit with relatives in Hardwick.

Glen Dana of Springfield, Mass., is spending the week with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Campbell and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bassett were visitors in Franklin today.

Miss Ella Sargent of Stowe was a guest from Wednesday until Saturday of her sister, Mrs. R. B. Wiltshire.

Mrs. F. W. Mould and daughter, Esther, and Mrs. R. L. Barrows and son, Ralph, ate guests of relatives in Johnson.

Glen Cram of Boston came last Saturday night for a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Oram.

Gideon Burnham will finish work in the H. P. Munson store this week, and expects to enter Dean Academy this fall.

Clarence Bates, who is employed at Clark's garage in Hardwick, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bates.

Miss Agnes M. Linehan, who has been in Connecticut for some time, arrived in town Monday for a visit with Mrs. J. A. Waite and other friends.

Mrs. Mary Camp and daughter, Rebecca, went to Richford today to remain until Friday as guests of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Puffer.

Miss Gladys Stetson, who has been at her home in Newport on account of illness, returned Tuesday evening to resume her duties as operator in the Citizen's Telephone Co. office.

Miss Catherine Wilcox arrived from Burlington last evening to remain until the opening of the school year at P. A. Her mother, Mrs. S. C. Wilcox of Morgan, is spending a few days with her.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smalley, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Waite, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. White, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Raymore and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Mead are among those who are attending the State Fair today.

Miss Juliet Brooks returned this morning from a ten days' stay at the guest of Miss Viola Woodruff of Fitchburg, Mass., Nantasket Beach, and at the home of her uncle, A. B. Hill of North Charlestown, N. H.

E. A. Smalley was nominated for town representative on the Republican ticket by a vote of 298 to 159 for Geo. L. A. Smith. Geo. Thomas was nominated without opposition as the Democratic candidate.

John Dillon of Hardwick was a guest over Sunday at the home of John Tyndall. Little Magdalene and James Dillon, who had been guests for a week of their father, returned here with him and are at the home of their grandfather.

Looks As If Roger Had Won

It looks as if "Roger" was a winner for Lieut. Gov. nomination. Lamoille county gave him a majority of 565. This gives him a vote of 13,639 against Week's 13,447. It may take the vote of the soldiers on the border to settle it. All the same Roger has reason to feel proud of the splendid endorsement he has received, which was brought about without any great work on his part.

The vote in Morrisville is gratifying to the supporters of Senator Page in view of the amount of work put in for Mr. Fletcher. There was a large vote cast, nearly 600, as quite a good many were spoiled. The whole number of votes counted was 556, of these Page had 328; Fletcher 205 and Gates 34.

School at Peoples Academy and in the Rural districts will commence next Monday, Sept. 13.

THE EARLE STORE

New Arrivals this Week

Ladies' Suits and Coats from some of the best New York makers just in this week. The suits are fine looking, nicely made and lined and very distinguished in appearance. The Separate Coats are very warm and heavy, made up from the latest styles in cloakings, nicely trimmed and are simply splendid garments. We advise early selection as the price of materials is steadily advancing.

Kimona Aprons

This style of apron is very popular and much in demand. We have some new styles, including the one with rubber at the belt; some new styles open in the front and with neat belt. The best of it is you buy them at the old price of 50 cents.

Maurice and Tracy Speak

Editor News and Citizen:—
I wish to thank the voters of Lamoille County for their loyal support for so long. It is only fair to say that I shall not be a candidate for this office in 1918.

M. P. MAURICE

Mr. Editor:—
Through the columns of your paper I wish to thank all the voters of the county who supported me for State's Attorney. I especially thank the voters of Johnson for their practically solid support. This should convince the voters of the county that I was worthy of their support. Respectfully,
Johnson, Sept. 13. W. E. TRACY.

Woman's Club

The members of the Woman's Club are reminded that the first meeting for the season will be held Monday evening, Sept. 18, at the Library at 7:30 sharp. It is hoped that all members will endeavor to be present and thus manifest their interest in the work of the Club and be prepared to take their share in the evening's program. Year books may be procured at the Library.

W. C. T. U. Notes

The postponed meeting of the Union was held in the vestry of the M. E. church last Friday afternoon. In the absence of president and the vice presidents the meeting was in charge of the secretary. Mrs. J. J. Bennett was elected secretary, pro tem. Mrs. Maud Jones was elected to serve as superintendent of the literature department, with Mrs. C. F. Tiltonson as assistant. Delegates for State W. C. T. U. Convention at Barre Oct. 10, 11 and 12—Mrs. C. S. Wilder and Mrs. Edna Miller.

A short literary program on Suffrage was given. Three visiting members from Wolcott were present and took part in the program. Miss Grace Prior reported a temperance lecture heard recently at Magog, Que., given by E. Tennyson Smith, lecturer and preacher from England.

At Earle's may be found a fine assortment of ladies and misses fall and winter garments.

County S. S. Convention

The County Sunday School Convention will be held at Wolcott, Sept. 19. Remember the date.

Mines to Re-open

The asbestos mines at Lowell, owned by the Gallaghers, are to be re-opened and work on the same will commence at an early date. A syndicate has got control of the same, we are informed.

HYDE PARK

Several from here are "doing" the State Fair.

Miss Regina Federer of Kingston, Ont., is visiting friends in this place.

Miss Bernice Atwell of Barton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. C. White.

Mrs. Henry Hebb of Jeffersonville spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lizzie White.

Miss Beatrice Lovejoy of Worcester, Mass., visited at her uncle's, John Ladeau, a part of last week.

M. O. Gagne and Miss Georgianna Dushamel of Burlington were guests at Thomas Finnegan's the past week.

Congressman Greene of St. Albans with about sixty friends called on Senator Page this afternoon and congratulated him.

Nathan Cobleigh of Cady's Falls dug a hill of potatoes Tuesday in which there were 23 potatoes, one of which weighed 1 1/4 lb. and another a pound. Some potatoes those, just what may be expected in these Republican landside times.

Col. Wheeler, who was taken to the asylum at Waterbury last March, escaped from that institution a few weeks ago and after wandering about the country reached his home in this town last Sunday. Tuesday afternoon Sheriff Stevens and Jailor Elliott located him at James Wilson's, where he had gone visiting. He was found in the hay mow under a lot of hay. He was brought to jail and Supt. Groat notified of his capture.

CARD OF THANKS:—We wish to extend thanks to all friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our husband and father. Mrs. B. G. ROONEY AND FAMILY.
