The date of the Bazaar to be given by the Congregational ladies has been fixed for Tuesday, Nov. 21, afternoon and evening.

Next week Tuesday afternoon C. H. A. Stafford & Sons will hold and auction sale at the Utton stable on Maple street, when they will sell a large number of cows and young stock.

Illegal Trappers Fined

Monday Ed. Recor of the Laporte road and Frank Bowen, Jr. of Hyde Park were brought into court, upon complaint of County Game Warden J. T. Stevens to answer the charge of illegal trapping. They were prosecuted by States Attorney Maurice, convicted and fined $5.00 and costs each, which they paid. Five fox skins, three coon skins and one skunk skin, which it was proven, were trapped out of season, were confiscated.

Eight Cent Milk

On and after November 1, Morrisville consumers will be called upon to pay eight cents per quart for milk, the local dealers giving notice that owing to an advance in cost to them they are obliged to make the raise. They will give thirteen quarts for $1.00.

Woman's Club

The subject of the Woman's Club meeting next Monday evening is Current Events. The committee having the program in charge considers itself fortunate in securing George Gorham Grout, Professor of Economics at the U. V. M., who will discuss in a non-partisan manner the issues of the coming presidential election. Prof. Grout's study of the social and economic questions make him especially well qualified to speak on this topic.

Club members have the usual privilege of inviting guests and their attention is especially called to the fact that the hour of meeting is eight o'clock, instead of 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Raymore, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Waite and Mrs. J. A. Waite made an auto trip to Burlington Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gates of Swanton were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. Frank Jackson at dinner last Monday. Mrs. Gates accompanied Mr. Gates on his regular business trip to this section this week.

Harlie W. Camp, who has been assisting at the local station for several months and who was formerly in charge of the freight depot here, has been given the position of station agent at Sheldon and went there last week Thursday.

A Yale and Towne lock expert was in town last Thursday on his regular visit of inspection at the bank. While in town he opened the large safe in the Town Clerk's office, which Mr. Niles has been unable to get into for about a month.

The condition of Mrs. Walter Isham, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Panny Allen Hospital, is improving satisfactorily. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Barrows called on her at the hospital last Sunday, being taken to Burlington by Harry Smith of Elmora.

Again the Associated Bible Students of Morrisville are pleased to announce the coming to this place of a noted pastor, A. M. Graham, of Boston, who will lecture on "Which is the True Gospel?" at the town hall in Morrisville Oct. 29 at 3 p. m. All are invited to hear him. The lecture is free.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Waite, Dr. and Mrs. J. Frank Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Raymore were in Barre last evening, where they attended a presentation of "The Blue Paradise." Others from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wheeler and son, William, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Spear, E. S. Story and F. O. Lunt.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mould and Mrs. Frances Greene and son, Porter, went to Beaver Meadow Saturday afternoon, where they spent Sunday at the "shack." They report excellent weather, which made the climb to Madonna Peak most enjoyable. They made the trip to the entrance and return by auto.

C. H. Herrick & Sons have sold their farm on the Randolph road to Fred Thorne and son of Holyoke, Mass., and possession will be given in about two weeks. The sale includes stock, tools, etc., and will make a first-class proposition for the new owners, who are practical farmers. The plans of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Herrick are not yet completed but their many friends hope they will decide to remain in Morristory.

Last evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Patch was the scene of a pleasant gathering, when nearly seventy members of the advent society, neighbors and friends called at their home. The event was in honor of Mr. Patch's 70th birthday and also a donation party for Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Bennett. As "Uncle William" supposed it was simply a donation party that he was to entertain and the parson supposed he was just coming to the birthday affair both were pleasantly surprised. Mr. Patch received a large postcard shower, and other expressions of esteem and the donation consisted of vegetables, etc., and a purse of money. The presentations were made by Harold H. Patch. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and refreshments were served.

Election Returns at Bijou

Manager Johnson of The Bijou Theatre has made arrangements whereby the election returns will be thrown upon the screen Tuesday evening, Nov. 7. The returns will be received during the regular show and as long as obtainable.

S. S. Convention at Morrisville

At the State Sunday School Convention held in Brattleboro last week, Rev. W. E. Baker, pastor of the First Congregational church, in behalf of the local churches, extended an invitation to the association to hold the next convention in Morrisville and the invitation was accepted. It will be held about this time next year.

The delegates present from Morrisville were Mr. and Mrs. Clement F. Smith, Rev. W. E. Baker and Miss Fay Bates. H. A. Slayton was re-elected a trustee and also a member of the international committee.

At the convention last week resolutions expressing appreciation of the work of Mrs. Edith Balch Wright, field secretary for ten years, demanding the enforcement of the law against the sale of cigarettes to minors, deploring the tendency to commercializing and secularizing the Sabbath by baseball, golf, moving pictures and other amusements and demanding the enforcement of the laws against such desecration were adopted.

Opening Number in Course

The entertainment committee of the Woman's Club wish to call the attention of the public to the opening number of the Lecture Course on Tuesday evening, Oct. 31, when they present Miss Sumayah Attiyeh in her lecture-entertainment, "Turkish Life and Customs."

Miss Attiyeh is a young woman of talent and broad intelligence and comes from a family of high station. She received her elementary education at an American Mission School in her native land, coming to this country seven years ago for the purpose of continuing her studies. Because of her father's high official standing, she has had, both here and in her own country, entry to many places and ceremonies, closed to the ordinary person, and has thus gained an exceptionally broad knowledge, which enables her to address an American audience with rare intuition and intelligence.

Attired in her native costumes, which are not only beautiful in themselves, but which also set off to the best advantage her dark beauty, Miss Attiyeh is indeed an enchanting figure. She brings to the platform a wealth of interesting, first-hand information and incident regarding her native people, which she tells in a most charming manner and with complete abandonment to faithful portrayal. This makes her lecture not only entertaining but also instructive and we bespeak for it a large attendance. No one can afford to miss it.

Parish Supper Tomorrow Night

The annual parish supper of the Congregational church will be held in the vestry tomorrow evening, beginning at 7:30. It will be a chicken pie supper, following which matters of importance will be discussed and a message will be given by the pastor, Rev. S. W. Anthony of St. Albans will be present and his remarks will be devoted principally to the ten-centenary program which coming event is of much interest to Congregationalists.

Lamoille Grange

The Grange will hold its regular meeting Friday evening, Oct. 27. A very interesting program is being prepared. Some nice surprises are in store for all patrons who come and all are earnestly urged to be present. Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

Following is the program:—Opening song, choir; piano selection, Mrs. L. C. Emmons; song, Orrin Jones; music, by a quartet in charge of Mrs. Fred Silloway; James Whitcomb Riley, His Life and Works, Mrs. Hattie Jones; this to be followed by readings and recitations taken from his poems, by Mrs. Edna Farr, Mrs. Bernice Brigham and Miss Oella Thompson; song, Kyle Farr; Harmonica solo, Arthur Hollis; What Shall We Ask of Our Legislature at Its Next Meeting? C. D. Howe. Worthy Master Geo. Terrill will bring some worthy notes from the Dairy Show.

A Neighbor's Estimate

Oct. 24, 1916.

To the Editor:—
Geo. I. A. Smith stated before the Primary that he would not put forth any special effort to secure the election. Feeling it is only fair to Mr. Smith and also to some of our voters who may not be personally acquainted with him I would state through your columns that Mr. Smith has been a life long resident of the town, having been born here 55 years ago. He has always been a very highly respected citizen and for the past fifteen years has served his town faithfully as school director. The voters will make no mistake if they elect Mr. Smith to the General Assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Prior were in North Montpelier the first of the week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodrich of Benson, who will remain here for a few days.

THE EARLE STORE

New Percalés We have just received a nice line of Light Percalés, suitable for Dresses, Shirt Waists, and Shirts for Men. We are selling them at the old price of 12½¢ the yard.

New Laces in Colors Is one of the natty things used for trimmings. They come in Silver color and Gold. If you wish something to brighten up a Dress or Waist, you should be pleased with these goods.

Corduroys In both colors and white are much in vogue and we are showing a nice range.

Bed Blankets We are showing a splendid assortment of these bed comforts. The prices are no higher than last year, owing to Early buying.

Window Scrims Anything in Window Scrims can be found here, and as it is the time of year when new curtains are in demand we are well prepared.

Everybody come and help in a worthy enterprise.—adv.

U. S. Chrysotile Company

The U. S. Chrysotile Company, who have control of the asbestos mines at Lowell and Eden are doing great business in getting ready for developing the mines. A large motor truck makes trips to Hyde Park twice a day for supplies, gets over the ground in good shape, carrying large loads. The buildings at the mines are being put in good order and a system of sewerage and electric lighting will be put in. Mr. Ferla, the vice president, is on the grounds superintending the business.

Insane Man Estray

Archie Whittemore, aged 40 years the demented son of Dau Whittemore, disappeared from his home last Saturday and at this time no trace has been found of him. Parties have been and are now scouring the woods for him. Should anybody see him they will please notify his father, Dan Whittemore, at Eden Mills.
