D. A. R. Hold Sale

Capt. Jedediah Hyde Chapter D. A. R. held a most attractive and successful sale on Wednesday afternoon last from three to five o'clock at the home of Miss Louise Slocum on Union street. The spacious parlors were crowded with eager purchasers and the stock in trade was soon depleted and the Chapter coffers correspondingly filled. Among the items offered for sale were fancy and household articles made by the ladies, a most interesting display of domestic and foreign basketry, and a tableful of miscellaneous craft trinkets, some of which were made by the Shakers of Sabbath Day Lake, Me.

In the dining room tea and cakes were dispensed to the weary shoppers, who pronounced this feature of the sale most gratifying. The Chapter cleared about forty dollars from their venture.

Churchill-Hislop

Frederick L. Churchill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Churchill of this place and Miss Althea Hislop daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hislop of Johnson, were married at the latter place on Tuesday, April 5th, by the Rev. George R. Akers of the Methodist church. The bride came to Johnson about a year ago. The groom is a graduate of People's Academy and is one of Morrisville's popular young people. Congratulations are extended from this community.

One On Walter

News come from a city in Oregon announcing the marriage of Walter Benson (25?) and Miss Eleonore Clingsbäron (legal age.) How sad that Walter should be obliged to leave our New England where the woods are full of fair damsels, and go to the pacific slope for a wife, and still worse that he should falsify his age to turn the trick. Our Vermont girls can't be fooled that way. Walter, you'd better come home!

From President Harding

During the past week there has been an exhibition in the north window of the Campbell Jewelry Store a personal letter from President Warren G. Harding to G. A. Wilkins, thanking him for a gift of Vermont maple sugar recently sent him through Senator W. P. Dillingham. The sugar was made by Mr. Wilkins' brother-in-law, Orange Houghton of Waterville.

A Birthday Party

On Friday evening of last week occurred a very pleasurable event, when Mrs. Mabel Tyrell entertained a party of young people at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Drew, on Sumner street, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Miss Beatrice Morrill and Henry Jenny, Jr., the former being 21 years of age and the latter 23. Supper was served to the party, the dining-room being prettily decorated in yellow and white, and the chairs placed for the guests of honor being ornamented with streamers and special decorations. Place cards of dainty Japanese wood fibre guided the guests to their seats, and at each place was a tiny crepe paper basket filled with nuts. The menu included shrimp wiggle, fruit salad, sandwiches, olives, coffee and cake. The evening was spent in games, music and dancing, the party continuing till a late hour. Miss Morrill and Mr. Jenny were the recipients of several nice gifts from their guests.

Legion Holds Successful Dance

Morristown Post American Legion added another to the list of its successful enterprises Wednesday evening of last week, when it celebrated America Day by giving a dance in honor of the recently organized Woman's Auxiliary. The affair took place at the Town Hall, which was prettily decorated with streamers of red white and blue so arranged as to form a canopy. The front of the stage was banked with evergreen and the large silk flag recently presented to the Post by the Woman's Relief Corps floated from its staff at the front of the hall. Excellent music was furnished by Gill's six piece orchestra for a well arranged program, which included both old and new dances, and a large crowd filled the floor for each number. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment was the rendition of selections by a male quartet consisting of C. W. Barrows, F. W. Mould, G. E. Goodlife and R. L. Barrows, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Mary Camp. Mrs. Ita Niles Jackson also delighted the audience with a vocal solo, the Lullaby from Jocelyn, with flute obligato by Miss Mary Magner and piano accompaniment by Mrs. R. C. Stafford. Mrs. Jackson responded to an earnest encore with the charming ballad "One Fleeting Hour".

At 10:30 a delicious supper was served by the Eastern Star in their dining room in the upper floor of the Town Hall, and dancing was afterward resumed and continued till a late hour. After paying all expenses, which were necessarily heavy on account of the large number of guests, the Legion was still two dollars ahead of the game.

W. R. C. Observes Grand Army Day

The Woman's Relief Corps observed Grand Army Day Monday with a dinner at the noon hour, serving 125. The Grand Army has 15 members, 12 of whom were present for dinner. The repast was exceptionally fine. The guest of honor was the Department President, Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler of White River Jct.

Following the dinner occurred the regular meetings of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. Initiation took place in the latter organization and five applications for membership were presented.

For the good of the order the following program was given: The president asked the color bearers to advance to the altar, followed by the veterans, who joined hands and marched around the altar singing "Rally Round the Flag." Two instrumental duets were given by Mrs. Myra White and Mrs. Carrie Lawson, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Ita Niles Jackson. Remarks were also made by the Department President.

The Giroux brothers collided with an auto driven by Wilbur Reynolds last Saturday night. In rounding Pages' corner both parties tried to pass each other on the same side of the road. Nobody hurt and but slight injury to the vehicles. Too much care cannot be taken in rounding that corner, day or night. All should "keep to the right."

The Nellie Gill Company made their first appearance of the season here last evening, and, as usual, gave a delightful play. "It Pays to Advance" was finely rendered. It was full of pep and kept the audience in good humor, with frequent bursts of applause. The troupe comes again in two weeks and will have the usual good house and a "corking" good play.

Judge Powers Memorial Orator

Memorial Day this year is to be observed at Hyde Park village and will be under direction of Aaron Keeler Post G. A. R., assisted by Carroll G. Page Legion. Judge Geo. M. Powers of Morrisville, has been secured as orator for the occasion. This will be very gratifying to our people, as the Judge is not only an interesting speaker but a native of Hyde Park. A special feature of the occasion will be the dedication of the memorial tablets on the Library building and also the monument to McDaniels, the first settler and Capt. Hyde, after whom the town was named.

Hyde Park Village Meeting

The annual Hyde Park Village meeting was held Tuesday evening and had a good attendance. Those officers were elected: President, W. D. Strong; Clerk, T. E. Badger; Treasurer, Thos. Finnegan; Trustee, P. D. Blake; Water & Light Com'r., T. E. Badger. The matter of oiling the streets was left with the Trustees, although the sense of the meeting was that they be oiled.
