Driscoll and children went the first of the week to Burlington for Mrs. Driscoll's mother, Mrs. S. H. Leach, who had been at the hospital, and brought her to her home in Cambridge. John L. Alger, former Principal of Johnson Normal School, now Principal of Rhode Island Normal School was given the degree of Dr. of Education by the R. I. State College in recognition of his services as a scholar and an educator.

Mayo-Mitchell

Miss Fannie M. Mitchell of Jeffersonville and Ralph C. Mayo of Johnson were married at the Jeffersonville parsonage Wednesday, June 22nd, by Rev. H. M. Bartlett. Mr. Mayo has been a successful Superintendent and Principal of the Johnson Junior-Senior High School the past year. Mrs. Mayo has been instructor in Domestic Science in the Cambridge High School the past two years. They are taking an extended automobile trip, and will be home in Johnson after Sept. 1st. Congratulations from their many friends.

Death of B. A. Hunt

The body of B. A. Hunt, a former resident and lawyer was brought here Saturday p. m., from Waterloo, N. H., where he went a few months ago to live with his son, Berton. The burial service was in charge of the Masons conducted by D. B. Smalley, and Rev. G. R. Akers offered prayer. Mr. Hunt is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nettie J. Hunt, five daughters, Mrs. Gienna Stinson, Mrs. Bertie Sheldon, Helen, Margaret and Dorothy Hunt, and one son, Berton A., also three grandchildren. One son, Jason S., died in service during the World War. Mr. Hunt was 65 years of age.

George Smith

George Smith, aged 77 years, was found dead in his barn Sunday morning by his son-in-law, S. J. Davis. Mr. Smith had been especially feeble since an attack of grip in the winter. The funeral was held at the house at 2 o'clock Tuesday. Rev. Geo. Young officiated. Burial was made in Evergreen Lodge Cemetery beside his wife who died three years ago. Mr. Smith is survived by two children, Mrs. S. J. Davis of this place and Ned Smith of Fairfield, and one grand-daughter, Velma Smith.

Heath-Brown

Announcements have been received of the marriage Tuesday, June 21, at the Mead Memorial Chapel, Middlebury, of Winford Eddy Heath to Dorothy Helen Brown, of St. Johnsbury. Mr. Heath is a son of Frank Heath of this place, and was graduated from Middlebury College in the class of 1921. Mrs. Heath was a popular teacher in the Junior High school a few years ago. They will both teach the coming year in Hartford. Congratulations are extended from this community.

Nazarene Church Notes

There will be a prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7.30. Thursday afternoon at 4.00 the Sunday school will meet with the other schools of Johnson, for a picnic in the pine grove at "Knollwood" just below the village. The Sunday morning services will be at the usual hours. The evening service will be in the Methodist Church. Plans are being made for a large delegation to attend the All-Day meeting at Waterville, July 7.

Tillotson and wife last week. The Rev. G. C. Wescott of Essex, a member of Waterville Lodge, will preach the annual Knights of Pythias sermon at the Union Church Waterville, next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. Names Traced to Chinese. Many names of cities, mountains and rivers in the West, and along the Pacific coast, which have generally been regarded as Indian names, are really of Chinese origin, according to a writer in the New York Herald. Even the names of the state of Utah and Nevada are of Chinese origin, he says. "Pe" or "Pie" means north in Chinese; therefore the Pieute Indians were merely the North Ute Indians. Remarkable Physical Strength. While the average woman possesses only about two-thirds of the physical strength of the average man, there are plenty of exceptions, and there have been women who could rival almost every feat of the strongest man. One of the most wonderful of them all was Miss Kate Roberts, the daughter of a Welsh preacher. Though there was nothing in the least massive about this young woman, she could lift a full-grown man above her head with one arm.

WORLD NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM

LONDON.—A dispatch to the Press Association from Dublin says there is good reason for stating that Eamonn de Valera was arrested at Blackrock, County Dublin, but that he was liberated without a charge having been preferred against him. NEW YORK.—Dr. Caleb W. Saleeby, English authority on eugenics and chairman of the world league against alcoholism, declared that the sober eagle already was showing improvement, as a race, to the drugged lion. Dr. Saleeby has been studying social conditions in the United States for a long time. BERLIN.—Although the negotiations between the allies and the Germans at Oppeln continue to drag on, the insurrection in Upper Silesia is gradually being put down. LANGLEY FIELD.—With the death list already at twenty-two, resulting directly or indirectly from the recent bombing tests the army fliers here at Langley Field are undaunted in their determination to prove that aircraft is supreme as a military weapon for warfare. GENEVA.—Council of the League of Nations was asked to mediate between Egypt and Great Britain. NEW YORK.—Thirteen hundred policemen prevented any demonstration, hostile or friendly, on the arrival of Rear Admiral William S. Sims on the White Star liner Olympic. CHICAGO HEIGHTS, Ill.—Lucy Rosati, fifteen, who shot Gaetano de Peso, forty-five, to death to avenge her honor, was freed a half hour after she told her story to a coroner's jury. NEW YORK.—Rear Admiral L. M. Nulton expressed his belief that pirates were responsible for the loss of the score of ships which have vanished with their crews or been wrecked off the coast of the Carolinas. The Sowers. While young men are busy sowing wild oats, older ones are growing sage. —Ashland (Mo.) Bugle.
