School Directors' Notes

The Mud City School opened on Monday in charge of Miss Lillian Goodliffe who has recently returned from England. Thirteen schools are being conducted this year.

The School Directors wish to express their appreciation to the public for the cordial interest taken in the Teacher's Reception on Friday evening last. The Directors feel that the affair was successful in every way. The presence of almost the entire teaching force, only three of the thirty teachers in the Morristoryn schools being absent, the cordial co-operation of the Women's Club in arousing interest in the affair and the response of the people from the outside school districts gave a spirit of co-operation which it is felt cannot fail to work for the benefit of the school system.

Base Ball News

The Morrisville "Giants" played ball at Jeffersonville last Saturday and defeated that team 18 to 13. In the absence of the regular pitcher, Lyle Small occupied the box and kept the Jeffersonville boys stepping. Oscar Churchill was catcher. The game was a thriller from start to finish and the Giants' work showed hours of practice. Much credit is due Maurice Kelley who has devoted a good deal of time to coaching the boys. Bradley Thomas of Johnson umpired the game.

Following the game, the Giants were conveyed home in the W. M. Sargent car and taken to the Sargent home on Park street where Mrs. J. M. Kelley and Mrs. Sargent served supper to the victors. Some very interesting "post prandial" exercises followed.

"MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE!"

—Judge Rutherford.

In less than a year this proclamation has found its way into thirty languages and the message is being heralded to millions of people in thousands of cities in every land of the earth. "Millions now living will never die!" "Who ever heard of such a thing? Preposterous," you will say. So said the scoffers to Noah: they had never seen rain—but the floods came on time. "Millions now living will never die," but will enjoy unending human life on the earth and ascend a highway of righteousness to full perfection of body, of mind, of character, in company with their loved ones returned from the grave. When the kingdom of God is fully established mankind will have no fear of sickness or accident, old age or death; no more dread of loss of home, or loved ones, or livelihood; no more sorrow or tears, "Millions now living will never die!" You may be one of them. Go! Hear the proof of these most marvelous tidings. Testimony upon testimony, evidence upon evidence, Biblical, historical, scientific—appealing to your reason as well as to your heart—will be presented without cost in the lecture by

Death of A. V. Wiswell

Adna V. Wiswell, a highly respected citizen of this town, passed away last Sunday morning after an illness with heart trouble six months. His death came somewhat sudden, although not unexpected as it was generally believed that he could not recover from his serious illness. He sat up a few minutes that morning, but a few hours later he peacefully passed away.

A. V. Wiswell was born in this town April 4, 1842, the only son of Orra and Fannie Wiswell. He received his education in the public schools and at Eastman's Business College. In 1868 he married Emma Keeler and to this union was born an only son, Leon K., who died in 1897, a few years after his graduation from the U. V. M. Mr. Wiswell was for four years in trade at Cady's Falls, then returning to this town, which has ever since been his home. He worked at the printing business for a short time, but for several years he engaged in the jewelry and stationery business. Later he carried on a cabinet shop and also devoted some time to green house work and poultry business, giving attention also to watch and clock repairing.

He filled various town offices, serving several years as a justice of the peace and also was county treasurer, a position he held at the time of his death. In all his business transactions he was square and upright and was well worthy of the sobriquet given him "Honest Adna." Good-hearted, kindly disposed to everybody he had many friends and as a townsman he always identified himself with what he believed was right. A good man has gone from among us.

The funeral was held from his late home this afternoon, Rev. Mr. Mercer officiating. There was a large attendance and many floral tributes. Burial was in the family plot in the village cemetery.

The bearers were: P. G. Elake, W. D. Strong, P. B. Foster, E. H. Strong, S. B. Waite, B. W. McFarland.
