State W. C. T. U. in Morrisville

The State convention of the W. C. T. U., now in session at Morrisville and about a hundred delegates are in attendance.

The Convention opened last evening in the Methodist Church, only a small number of the delegation expected later, being present. The meeting last evening was most interesting, addresses of welcome being made in behalf of the several societies in town. A musical program was given and a reception held in the church parlors.

Today the meetings were held in the Methodist Church, the meeting in the forenoon being opened by the President, Mrs. Elsie Pease Barney, who later gave the President's address.

This evening the meeting will be held in the Congregational Church, the address to be given by Dr. Mary Harris Armor, Atlanta, Ga.

The meetings Thursday will be held in the Methodist Church, ending the sessions that night.

Thirty-one Years in Business

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cheney, who recently sold their drug store to E. L. Wheeler, retire from business after an unusual record of successful merchandizing. Mr. Cheney was continuously at the head of the Cheney Pharmacy, later called the Rexall Store, for thirty-one years, during which time he had the opportunity of realizing results of a systematic and careful attention to details which must have been gratifying and which repaid in a measure for the strenuous efforts put into the business year after year. That the public appreciated the service was evident by the growth and prosperity of the store. May they live long to enjoy the results of their well-earned labors.

Another Mysterious Fire

Another mysterious fire occurred Sunday night on what is known as the Winslow farm in the west part of Morrisville. Fire was discovered in the barn of the vacant set of building by neighbors, who arrived on the scene at about 9:30 at night. By hard work the flames were kept from setting fire to the house and thereby a large pile of Christmas trees, belonging to J. M. Kelley, which were behind the house, were saved.

The buildings are on a farm bought by George E. Martin, over a year ago, and who lives on the adjoining farm. There was no insurance.

It is thought the fire started in the rear of the barn and must have been set, probably by carelessness.

Obituary—Miss Ola Fisk

The funeral of Miss Ola Fisk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fisk of this town, was held last week Thursday at 2 p. m., at the church at Morrystown Corners, conducted by Rev. E. E. Pender. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, and large and beautiful display of flowers.

Ola was born in Morrystown April 8, 1907. She was a bright, robust looking girl, but disease and death are no respecters of persons. On Saturday, the 8th, she was taken to the hospital in Burlington, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis on Monday, which was followed by another for hemorrhage, resulting in death Tuesday morning, the 11th. She will be especially missed in her home, where she was needed.

The Sunday School class of which she was a member, and the district school attended in a body. The bearers were Harold Parker, Harold Petch, Maurice Jacobs and Glenn Prior. Burial was in the cemetery at the Corners.

The Morrystown Cemetery Association will hold a Rummage sale at the town hall next Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. All goods should be brought to the hall by Friday in order that they may be properly marked before the sale opens. Goods will also be received and sold on commission. This association is doing good work in town and funds are needed to carry on the same. Make your donations as liberal as possible and kindly get them to the hall as early as convenient.

THE EARLE STORE

A Real Find

We have the good fortune this week to receive 500 yards of 32-inch Zephyr Gingham. This means a good deal, especially at this time, when there are no gingham of this width to be bought in the country. It is a nice selection of plaids and no two alike.

Serpentine Crepes

For Kimonas are among the new goods. We now have the blue bird pattern which there has been such a call for.

Silkoleens for Puffs we are showing in a good variety of colors, also batting to go with them, something you are sure to need before the winter sets in.

GEO. F. EARLE, Portland St., Morrisville

Mt. Mansfield—Hotel Register

When the weather interferes with tramping, the guests of the Summit House amuse themselves by looking over old hotel registers dating back to 1872. On the date of July 27, 1875, is found the name of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., followed by the names of Elliot Roosevelt and Harry LeGrand Cannon. The two Roosevelts occupied room No. 11, afterwards for so many years the room of Judge Hazeston and now known as the "Hazelton room." It is an east room upstairs and commands an extended view. It is not known how Roosevelt climbed the mountain, but as he was a guest of Harry Cannon of Burlington, and a college student at the time, he probably went up over the Underhill trail.

Between 1872 and 1875 the registers contain the names of United States Senators Matt. H. Carpenter of Wisconsin, James M. Thurston of Nebraska, William P. Dillingham of Vermont. Aug. 7, 1875, Henry Lippitt, Governor of Rhode Island, was a guest at the hotel, at which Moody and Sanky were registered July 31, 1876.

Pretty Autumn Wedding

At the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Seaver at Cady's Falls on Saturday afternoon last at two o'clock, occurred the marriage of the youngest daughter, Dorothea Muriel, and Everett Lyman Allan, son of Mrs. Fred M. Marshall of the south part of the town. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George E. Goodfellow, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Morrisville, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. The impressive double ring service was used.

The bride was becomingly gowned in dark brown, with hat to match and was attended by a sister, Miss Mildred Seaver, who wore a wine colored crepe de chene. The groom was attended by Mark Chaffee of Stowe as best man.

The interior decorations were very prettily arranged with autumn leaves cut flowers and greens.

The bride and groom are both well known and popular among Morrisville young people, the bride being a graduate from People's Academy in the class of 1920, and has always lived at Cady's Falls. The groom served six years in the U. S. Navy, and is now employed in the plumbing business of the Eaton Bros. They expect to reside for the winter with Mrs. Allan's parents.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended from a host of friends.

HYDE PARK

Miss Evelyn Whitcomb of Morrisville was an over-Sunday visitor at the home of P. T. Denio.

C. J. Wright and wife of Sherbrooke, Homer Wright, his mother Mrs. W. H. Wright and Evelyn Wright were visitors at W. L. Wright's recently.

Miss Douglas, Red Cross Nurse, has asked that people who have warm garments they could donate for charitable purposes will please bring them to the Library on the days it is open.

All those interest in a Parent-Teachers' Association should attend the meeting at the academy Thursday (not Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Here's a chance to take a personal interest in your school.

The Boy Scouts of this place have taken on new life and now has as Scout Master, Supt. McAllister. If the boys heed Mac's instructions they will make a good record. They are to have a "hare and hound" chase next Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Plumley and son Frank, Jr., of Boston have been spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Putnam. Mrs. Plumley will be remembered as Rhoda Ober, a graduate of the L.C.A. It is five years since she last visited here.

Mrs. Hallie Page entertained a number of lady friends at cards last Saturday evening. The event was in honor of Mrs. Scribner, whose birthday fell on Sunday. A birthday cake with 35 candles (or thereabouts) was the "piece-de-resistance" among the refreshments.

Ernest Vennette made another try to escape from jail one day last week. This time he tried to get through the little passage that is used for handing in food to prisoners. He got part way through and got stuck and the sheriff had to grease the boy in order to get him back.

A party of the intimate friends of Miss Biond Seymore, who is spending a vacation at Randolph, visited her at that place last Sunday. The party, which consisted of Misses Chapin, Sawyer, Collins and Mrs. Effie Putnam, with E. B. Collins as chauffeur, report a very delightful time with their friend.

To-morrow, Thursday, Oct. 20th, Brigham McFarland and Miss Delta Hayes, will be married at the home of the bride's parents at DeLand, Florida. It will be a "quiet and unostentatious" affair and after a visit at Niagara Falls and other points of interest they will be at home at Hyde Park about Nov. 1st.

The Oldest Native

Perhaps the oldest living native of Hyde Park, is Lorenzo Calkins, who now resides with his son Andrew at Morrystown. Mr. Calkins is in his 80th year, and was born in Hyde Park and until within a few years has always lived in this town. He keeps "tab" on the doings of his town by perusing this paper every week. He has a good home, is in quite good health and bids fair to be with us many more years. Besides his son Andrew, he has two daughters, Mrs. Jesse Gilmore of this town, and Mrs. Nathan Cobleigh at Cady's Falls.
