Armistice Day

Armistice Day will be celebrated in Morrisville this week, Friday forenoon. A feature of the day will be the dedication of the bronze tablet to the Morrirstown War Veterans.

The dedication will take place in front of the Centennial Library at 11 o'clock. The Legion members will form in front of the G. A. R. hall and march to the foot of Academy Park, where they will remain in line during the unveiling of the tablet, during which the Morrirstown Military Band will play the National Anthem.

The veterans will then march to the town hall, where the tablets will be officially presented by the Hon. F. G. Fleetwood for the town committee and accepted by Commander George L. Bates of the American Legion. A short program will include reading by Mrs. Ida Niles Jackson and music by the band.

The exercises will be completed at noon, when all will stand for two minutes in silent prayer.

Death of George W. Brown

George W. Brown, one of Morrisville's well known and highly respected citizens, died at his home on Main street last Friday night at 8:30, following a long period of ill health, dating from last December when he suffered a slight shock. He recovered from this attack so that he was able to attend to business, but was taken once again two weeks ago last Wednesday and death was due to a second shock and complications. The funeral was held Monday afternoon, Rev. Geo. E. Goodfellow of the Congregational church officiating. The bearers were Carl, Will and Bert Cobb, brothers-in-law from Hardwick and a brother of the deceased, C. P. Brown of Stowe. Interment was in the Cobb family lot in Hardwick.

George W. Brown was born in Waterbury October 10, 1850, one of five children of Curtis P. and Mary Wright Brown. His boyhood days were spent in Stowe. He was married 45 years ago to Ellen E. Cobb daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cobb of Morrirstown and soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Brown took up their residence in Hyde Park, where they lived until coming to Morrisville fifteen years ago, and where Mr. Brown was successfully engaged in the livery business for many years. Since coming to Morrisville Mr. Brown has dealt quite extensively in real estate.

The deceased is survived by his wife, one brother, C. P. Brown of Stowe, and one sister, Mrs. Emma Hutchins of St. Albans. George was an estimable citizen and had a wide circle of friends in this vicinity who will regret to learn of his death. He was a member of Mt. Vernon Lodge, No. 8 F. & A. M. of Morrirstown.

Among those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Baldwin and Miss Lucille Angell of Wells River, W. F. Angell and the Cobb families from Hardwick, C. P. Brown and family of Stowe, Mrs. Emma Hutchins and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Robinson of St. Albans.

W. C. T. U.

The November meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Friday afternoon, Nov. 4, with Mrs. Emma Clark. 14 were present.

The program consisted of reminiscences and lessons from the Convention related by those present, the topic being, "What I learned from the Convention" and "What the Convention meant to me."

This was very interesting and helpful and strengthened the realization of the value of such a meeting in our midst.

The motion was carried, that the Morrirstown Union extend a vote of thanks to the churches, to the ladies, who served, to the homes for their kind and generous hospitality to the visitors and delegates, to those who furnished transportation to and from the trains, and to all who in any way assisted or contributed to the comfort of the guests or to the success of the meeting.

The next regular meeting of Lamoille Grange will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 10th. The program will be in charge of "Ceres," Mrs. A. V. Hollis. Let every member endeavor to be present.

Children's Book Week

The week of Nov. 13—20 will be generally observed as Children's Book Week. One reason for placing it at this season is to call attention to the value of books as Xmas gifts and to suggest some of the more worth-while ones to buy.

The Library will have a special exhibit of juvenile books of various kinds during that time and also lists of books compiled by various workers with children. In them one will find books for the boys and girls of all ages and all tastes.

Our local booksellers will be glad to order any volumes they do not have in stock.

Uplift Club

A regular meeting of the Uplift Club was held at the home of Martha Baker on Thursday Nov. 3. The meeting opened with a piano solo followed by Club creed and Lord's Prayer, after which Inez Spaulding sang a sacred solo. Twenty members answered to roll call with short, funny sketches, followed by a duet by Shirley Welch and Myra Gould. Secretary report was read, also several communications. Ella Thomas read several interesting Current Events. A paper, "Origin of All Hallowe'en," was read by Susie Gould. Next was a vocal solo by Shirley Welch, and a Hallowe'en was read by Grace Welch. A short business session was then held and the meeting closed by chorus singing of the Club Song, after which delicious refreshments of scalloped potato, bread and tea were served by the hostess.

Parent-Teachers' Meeting

The second meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held last Monday evening. The attendance was not very large, but those who did attend had a most enjoyable evening. President Scribner presided and after transacting business, which included adopting constitution and by-laws an address was given by E. L. Ingalls state club leader of the agricultural extension, who spoke in detail of the work of that body. Remarks were also made by Supt. Jones of the county association and Miss Truman of the farm bureau. At the close of the meeting there was a social hour at which refreshments were served. The committee this time were Mrs. Edw. Godette and Mrs. Jas. Finnegan, who splendidly fulfilled their part. The next meeting will be Dec. 12th, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.
