Mrs. Eliza Stewart was a guest the first of the week of relatives in Hardwick.

Lorenzo Calkins, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is much improved so that he is able to walk out.

Dr. W. T. Slayton is improving his residence on Portland street by setting out a hedge on the street line.

Miss Cornelia Mould was a guest over, Friday night and Saturday of Miss Hilda Stevens at Hyde Park.

Anna Edson of Woodsville, N. H., and Mrs. Jessie Sheldon of Wells River are visiting Dr. and Mrs.
Frank Jackson.

Mrs. Louella Whitcomb has moved from rooms in the S. D. Luce house on Main street to Mrs. Minnie Douglass' house on Court street.

Wheeler's One Cent Sale was a great success. All records for Saturday were broken in two hours on the evening of the last day of the sale.

The Girls' Friendship Class of the Congregational Church will meet with Mrs. Anna D. Jones on Summer street at 6:30 tonight. A covered dish supper will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Morrill, son, Donald, daughter, Miss Louelle Morrill and Carroll Sillaway were in East Craftsbury Sunday at the home of Davis and Mrs. Blair of Wolcott.

CHANGE IN TIME

In another column is given the Travelers' Guide, the most important news item in this paper.
Cut it out and keep it as it will not appear again.

Married 70 Years

Very Unusual Event Celebrated at North Hyde Park—Mr. and Mrs.
Wescomb.

The little village of North Hyde Park was the scene of a most unusual event Monday, May 1, when Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Wescomb quietly celebrated the 70th anniversary of their marriage. Some 22 friends called to congratulate them, mainly from Morrisville and Hyde Park.

They received a letter of congratulations from President Harding, besides many other like letters.

They formerly lived on a farm near the Johnson line, but now reside in the village. They were married in Belvidere. Mrs. Whitcomb was Miss Sabrina of Waterville. He is very well and walks long distances, but she is very lame with rheumatism.

Seven children were born to this union, five of whom are living, Francis of Belvidere, Harlow of Johnson, Christy of Eden, Alpheus of Maine and Julius, who lives at home.

Mr. Wescomb is the last survivor of a family of 16 children.

MAILS CLOSE EARLIER

Remember, in looking over the railroad schedules in another column that the mails have to close just as much earlier—that there are now no boxes at stations on this road to receive mail, so if you want your letters to go the same day, get them in at least an hour earlier, morning and night at the postoffice.

By the way, Postmaster Gates says the business of the office is steadily growing. But the great and good government at Washington has taken off one man, Mr. Towne and the remaining employees of the office have to begin work half an hour earlier, 6:30 a. m., and keep the office open until 8:00 p. m., with no increase in pay.

MRS GEORGE NEWLAND DIES

Mrs. George Newland, who went to the Fanny Allen hospital two weeks ago, died at that place Saturday morning following a serious operation performed the Monday previous.
She had been in poor health since January, 1921, and for several months had been confined to her home.

The funeral service was held from her late home on Elmore street Monday afternoon at two o'clock, the Rev.
W. T. Best of the Methodist Episcopal Church officiating. Interment was made in Pleasant View cemetery.
The bearers were three brothers, Frank Jacobs, John Jacobs and Joe Jacobs and an uncle, Jacobs, Morristown. The floral tributes were very beautiful.

Melinda Jacobs was born in East Richford 57 years ago and when two years of age moved with her parents to Johnson. In 1887 she was united in marriage to George Newland and to this union was born one daughter, Mrs. Thomas St. Lawrence of Randolph. The first years of their married life was spent in Johnson, Hyde Park and Stowe, coming here 25 years ago to reside.

The deceased is survived by her husband and daughter, Mrs. Thomas St. Lawrence, who were with her at the time of her death; by four grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Samuel Palch of Johnson; and four brothers, Frank of Waterville, John of Lowell, Joe and Edward Jacobs of Laurel, Mont.

Mrs. Newland was an attendant at the Methodist Church when her health permitted, and had a wide circle of friends, who extend deep sympathy to the bereaved family.

BIG FIRE AT QUEEN CITY PARK

Boys fishing in Potash Brook at the lower end of the Park Saturday built a fire to fry fish and it ran in the leaves and brush, but was extinguished by men working in the Park.
Later the cottage of Mattie Wilcox of Jeffersonville was found to be on fire. Help was summoned from Burlington, but eight cottages were destroyed before it was under control and the entire Park threatened with destruction. The loss aggregates over $10,000 with very little insurance. The cottage of Mrs. Brown of Morrisville was destroyed.

HYDE PARK

L. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT On Monday evening, May 8, at eight o'clock, an entertainment will be given in the assembly hall of the L. C. A., under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. The program will consist of delightful musical selections and dramatic features including a rendering of Riley's "Old Sweetheart of Mine," illustrated by tableaux, and the bright little society comedy by John Kendrick Bangs, entitled "A Proposal Under Difficulties," by local talent. Handsome new scenery has been made for the school stage, with curtains and the proper lighting effects, and the proceeds will go to pay for these valuable improvements. Come for your own pleasure and help the school.

LIFE INSURANCE AGENTS MEET IN MORRISVILLE

On Thursday of last week a meeting of Vermont's New England Mutual Life Insurance Co. agents was held in the Vermont Agency Office, Morrisville.

The following agents were present: Glenn A. Wilkins, general agent Morrisville; Erwin H. Olmstead of Morrisville; John F. Hinch of St.
Johnsbury; Harold C. Ahern of Lyndonville; Luke L. Conner of Brandon and Lyle R. Beckwith of Chelsea special agents; Benjamin H. Smead of Bethel and Harrison E. Smith of Randolph Center, part time agents; C. E. Fisher of Morrisville, cashier; Glover S. Hastings of Boston, superintendent of agencies; Carl S. Nute of Manchester, N. H., general agent for New Hampshire; Dr. George L.
Bates of Morrisville, medical examiner.

The morning was spent in renewing acquaintances and a short but interesting talk was given by Dr.
Bates. Dinner was served at the Randall.

General Agent Nute of New Hampshire addressed the meeting in the afternoon, giving some of his experiences, which were very interesting.
He also touched "salesmanship" and gave some very good points on the art of salesmanship. There was also a short talk by General Agent Wilkins and an open discussion.

The superintendent of agencies, Mr. Hastings, gave a very interesting talk on the company and the New England Mutual contract. He also touched on selling and illustrated his points by short stories of actual experiences.

The meeting adjourned at 6:30, at which time most of the agents left for home. It was a very enthusiastic meeting and agents went home feeling that they had been amply repaid for the trouble of coming to Morrisville, the headquarters of Glenn Wilkins' Million-Dollar Agency.

PRIZE SPEAKING CONTEST

The annual prize speaking contest of the Lamouille Central Academy of Hyde Park was held at the Hyde Park opera house Friday evening, April 28.
A large and attentive audience listened to the very interesting numbers. All of the contestants acquitted themselves well and were so closely matched that it must have been quite difficult for the judges to award the four prizes. The judges were Principal Hosmer of People's Academy, Lena Merrill, also of People's Academy, and Mrs. Stella Goddard of Hyde Park.

The prizes were awarded as follows: Junior division, first prize, Mildred Godette; second prize, Harry Manning. Senior division, first prize for boys, Lloyd Turner; first prize for girls, Dorothy Strong; second prize for boys, Charles Finnegan; second prize for girls, Elizabeth Noyes.

The stage was prettily decorated with ferns, flowers and furniture.
Much credit is due to Miss Laura Libby of the L. C. A. faculty and to Miss Beryl Powell. Miss Libby trained the speakers and Miss Powell the chorus.

The program was as follows: The Flag and the School, the Academy chorus. Junior contest: Madame Malibrane, Florence Mercer; First Bicycle Ride, Kenneth Leach; Far Away Country, Mildred Godette; In Old Vermont, Harry Manning; The Hunting Song, Girls' Chorus. Senior contest: Lasca, Charles Finnegan; Jean D'Espres, Isabelle Boylan; The Rider of the Black Horse, Dennis Stewart; The High-Way-Man, Dorothy Strong; The American People, Cortez Foss; Cigarette's Ride and Death, Elizabeth Noyes; The Honor of the Woods, Lloyd Turner; Life's Voices, Chorus. Presentation of the prizes.

Miss Josie Mudgett has been ill the past week.
A very handsome mantle clock has been placed in the Library by Mrs.
Nell Keeler.
F. P. Collins has purchased the Sinclair property on Church street and will soon take possession.
The missionary drive carried on by the Congregational Church last Sunday afternoon met with very good success.
A. B. Pease, who has been in very poor health for a long time, was taken to Burlington Monday for investigation as to his condition.

"THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY."

Father P. E. Boivin is spending a few days in Swanton.

Frank Stewart took in the U. V. M. Maine baseball game at Burlington Monday.

Warren Whitcomb accompanied his wife to Burlington Monday, where she is receiving treatment for blood pressure.

A check for $250 has been left at a Burlington bank by Harold D. Ryder of Plattsburg, N. Y., which is to be used by the local Village Improvement Society in setting out trees between this place and Stowe. The donor is a native of this section and his love for his native place prompts him to make this donation. The matter will be taken up at once by the society.
