LOCAL NEWS

MORRISVILLE

Mrs. Daniel Montgomery, book-keeper for the Messenger Publishing Co., is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her duties there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Durette and sons, Dwight and Loren, were visitors at the home of Elmer Bailey at East Craftsbury recently.

Miss Jennie Tillotson, who has been caring for J. H. Clark at Hardwick for several weeks, has returned home. Mr. Clark is much improved.

Carroll Taylor, who recently underwent an operation for the removal of cataracts from one eye at the Mary Fletcher hospital, has returned home and is improving nicely.

The ladies of the Universalist Sewing Circle are requested to meet at the vestry Thursday afternoon at four o'clock for a business meeting.

James Clark, Jr., who is spending some time at the home of his uncle, W. H. Towne, is a guest for the week at the home of his aunt, Mrs. O. N. Campbell of Centerville.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Campbell, who have spent the winter in Orange, Calif., have returned to their home in Centerville. On their return home they spent a week with Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. M. Stevens, in Kansas City.

Rev. and Mrs. George E. Goodliffe left Tuesday by auto for Springfield, Vt., to attend the annual state conference of Congregational Churches. Mr. Goodliffe will take part in the program and Mrs. Goodliffe went as delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Brooks and son, Gordon, Jr., of Burlington came Saturday night for an extended stay with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brooks, and Mrs. Brooks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sherman.

The following from this place will attend the conference of Older Girls of Vermont, to be held in St. Johnsbury from Friday until Monday, from the Congregational Church: The Misses Mildred Stewart, Reba Hollis, Nellie Darrah; from the Methodist Church, the Misses Barbara Davison, Della Stancliffe, Shirley Skinner and Ruth Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis P. Mould and son, Channing, of Mineville, N. Y., came Saturday night to the home of Mrs. Mould's mother, Mrs. Frances Greene. Mr. Mould returned home Sunday, but expects to return the first of June and will be employed as bookkeeper and draftsman for the Morrisville Foundry Co. Mr. Mould has been employed for some time as mine surveyor and draftsman for Witherbee, Sherman & Co.

Sailed for Europe

Harold H. Fisher, who is head of the historical department of the American relief administration, of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, sailed Saturday, May 6, from New York on the S. S. Kronland enroute to Russia. Mr. Fisher will go first to London, where the European headquarters of the A. R. A. is located, and will then go via Belgium, Germany, Poland, Lithuania and Latvia to Riga. From Riga he expects to go to Moscow and later to make an inspection trip through the famine regions of the Volga and the Ukraine in southern Russia. He expects to return to the United States in the latter part of July.

Mr. Fisher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fisher of this place and was graduated from People's Academy in 1907 and from the University of Vermont in 1911.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT COMING TO VERMONT

The Vermont Federation of Women's Clubs will hold a special meeting in the Wood Art Gallery, Montpelier, on Friday, May 19. The Montpelier Woman's Club will act as hostess and Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Minneapolis, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will be the guest of honor. An important business meeting will be held at 10:30 a. m. The afternoon meeting will be called at two o'clock when Mrs. Winter will speak on the Washington conference for the limitation of armaments.

Mrs. Winter needs no introduction to Vermont women, for her name has been before the public for many months, not only as president of the General Federation, but as a member of the advisory board of the Washington conference. Her reputation is established as a broad-minded, far-seeing and practical woman as well as an effective thinker and speaker. It is hoped there will be a large attendance of the club women of the state.

Women from Morrisville and vicinity desiring to take advantage of the unusual opportunity to hear Mrs. Winter speak should communicate at the earliest possible date with Mrs. Charles Chapin, who will endeavor to find seats for all in the various automobiles which will go to Montpelier on that day. The only expense in connection with the trip will be for luncheon, which will be served at one of the churches.

TRACY GETS BOOZE CAR AND SMUGGLERS

State's Attorney Tracy and "Slim" Stewart Make a Big Haul and Get Men

Officers in this field received word Monday that suspicious cars had crossed the line from Canada and were headed south.

Immediate steps were taken to intercept them and see if they carried "contraband." While other officers were guarding the most frequented roads, Tracy was in the vicinity of Hyde Park when he got word that two cars answering the description furnished him had taken the cut off from the fair ground to the Wolcott road.

Deputy Spaulding of Wolcott was notified by telephone and put up barriers across the road, while Tracy took "Slim" and started in hot pursuit. The result was the capture of one car and 39 gallons of choice Canadian rye whiskey in a sensational manner near the bridge just beyond where the North Wolcott road branches off. The biggest car, when its driver saw the obstructions, turned around and made his get away.

The other stopped and Deputy Spaulding held the two men, from Springfield, who gave their names as Sibley and Shrink, until Tracy and "Slim" arrived, when Tracy arrested the men. Then they began to realize what they were up against and, while Tracy was telephoning, stepped on the gas and drove the car, a big Cadillac, through a barbed wire fence and came near making a get-away before Tracy, Spaulding and "Slim" could get to the car. They would have succeeded had not a strand of wire caught in one wheel and stopped the car.

The booze was contained in a special tank in a false top to the car, so that anyone not posted could search the car and find nothing. Much credit is given State's Attorney Tracy who personally made the arrest and captured the car and booze.

The parties were then landed in Hyde Park jail.

Rev. C. G. Clark, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, was right when he told the members of the Congregational Conference at Springfield Monday, "Liquor smuggling is on the increase. Prison sentences must be imposed to stop it. Fines will not do it. All citizens must help enforce the law."

UPLIFT CLUB

On Wednesday, May 3, 17 members of the Uplift Club and two guests met at the home of Helen Parker for the annual meeting. A covered dish lunch was served at one o'clock, after which was a short memorial service. The members responded to roll call with a Bible verse and Esther Parker played very softly during the service.

Next came the election of officers, and they are as follows: President, Mary Brooks; vice president, Ella Thomas; secretary and press correspondent, Shirley Welch; assistant secretary, Helen Parker; treasurer, Inez Spaulding; assistant treasurer, Grace Wilson; social committee, Lena Fitzgerald, Helen Parker and Matie Churchill; music committee, Helen Parker, Lena Fitzgerald and Vera Silway; industrial committee, Viola Gilbert; Inez Spaulding and Vera Silway; executive committee, Gertrude Gilbert, chairman, and she is to choose her own helpers; caretaker, Carrie Delano; sunshine and floral committee, Martha Baker, Ella Thomas and Elsie Bliss. The yearly reports of the secretary and treasurer were read, also communications. The meeting closed with club verses and a social hour was then enjoyed.

STOWE

Community Church Services
The Community Church morning service was held at the Congregational Church Sunday. The decorations of potted plants were arranged by Mrs. Edith Simineau's class. At the Sunday School session it was announced that Children's Day exercises will take the place of the usual morning service on June 4. The following committees were elected to have charge: On decorations, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Robinson; music, Mrs. C. A. Tomlinson, Mrs. C. E. Hayward, Miss Arlie Wright, Mrs. Hazel Gibbs; rehearsals, Mrs. Leon S. Macutcheon; Mrs. Carl J. Strand, Mrs. Mack C. Lovejoy, Mrs. Kenneth D. Robinson, Mrs. Clitus L. G. Tomlinson. The teachers are asked to take the responsibility for the work instead of their classes. A meeting of the teachers was held at the parsonage Sunday evening.

Cause of Death?

Winfield Sweetser died Sunday night at his home on the Sterling Brook road of pleurisy. State's Attorney W. E. Tracy of Johnson and a doctor from the state laboratory at Burlington were called here Monday to investigate the cause of Mr. Sweetser's death. It is claimed that his illness dated from injuries received April 16 in an altercation with a neighbor.

Aged Resident Dead

Mrs. Frank Baisner died Sunday afternoon at one o'clock at her home on the Sterling Brook road from the effects of a shock. Mrs. Baisner was 81 years of age. Besides her husband, she is survived by two children by a former marriage, Mr. Fletcher of Shelburne and Mrs. James Gates of Montpelier. The daughter was with her mother when she died. The son came Monday. The funeral will be held this week Wednesday at 10:00 a. m., at the house. The burial will be made in Montpelier.

MOTHER'S DAY

As will be seen by the church notices, next Sunday will be observed as Mother's Day very generally by the churches of the several towns in our field.

The Epworth League will hold an anniversary service Sunday evening at seven o'clock. This will be an unusual League service. All young people especially will enjoy this service. "The Epworth League Looking Glass" will be presented by ten young people under the direction of the League president, Mrs. Alton Lawson. An offering will be taken to be sent to League headquarters at Chicago, the annual offering to be used for the general promotion work of the Epworth League.

AN APPEAL FOR HELP

There are two families in my district which are in destitute circumstances, the children being unable to attend school on account of lack of proper clothing. A boy 14 years old, small for his age, size of shoe No. 1; a boy ten years old, small size of shoe No. 11, children's size; a girl 12 years, small size of shoe 13, child's size; a girl seven years old. Both the boys and girls need suitable clothing.

In the other family there are two boys and three girls who need clothing and shoes; a boy 12, average size; a boy eight, average size; a girl 14, small; a girl 10, average size; a girl seven, average size. These children need shoes more than clothing. I will be glad to take whatever clothing the people will donate to the families in need.

C. D. Howe, Supt. of Schools.

CAPT. JEDEDIAH HYDE CHAPTER

The Captain Jedediah Hyde Chapter was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. N. G. Wood in Hyde Park May 3. A good number of members and a few invited guests were present.

The Chapter was opened in form by the regent and a short business session was held, in which the proposed antique exhibit was discussed, this to take place some time in June.

The sum of $10 was voted to the Child's Welfare League at this time. The meeting was then under the direction of Mrs. L. E. LaPalme of Wolcott, who gave a most interesting talk on Vermont as an independent state. General discussion followed and a social hour enjoyed, in which the hostess served chicken salad, hot rolls, cake and coffee. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Minerva Tinkham in Stowe on May 31. Members please note the change of date.

W. C. T. U. Meeting

An interesting meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held with Mrs. Minnie Smalley Friday afternoon of last week.

The program on the subject of "Law Enforcement" was in charge of Mrs. Alma Brush and gave those present much information and somewhat of inspiration in view of the favorable reports from many parts of our country as to the results of the prohibitory law.

Attention was called by the president to the county meeting of the W. C. T. U., to be held in Wolcott on May 10, when the state president, Mrs. Elsie Pease Barney, is expected to be present.

DELTA ALPHA MEETING

The Delta Alpha Class of the Methodist Episcopal Church met last week Tuesday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Eaton, with Gladys Eaton, Lucie Wheeler, Bertha Mudgett, Frances Stafford and Orpha Newcity as hostesses.

A business meeting was held, at which time the class voted to give $25 toward the Vermont Society Children's Aid.

A unique feature of the party was the acting of charades, in which each person represented some member of the class, thus causing a great deal of amusement.

During the evening Glee Raymore sang "Ma Little Sunflower, Good Night" and "I Did Not Know" by Vanderpool.

Delicious refreshments of chicken sandwiches, assorted wafers and coffee were served.

There were 42 present and all acclaimed it a most enjoyable evening.

Real Estate Changes

C. J. Oben Co. has sold the James Bodette farm in North Hyde Park to L. J. Heath of Manchester, N. H., who takes possession soon.

Episcopal Services

There will be services at the N. E. O. P. hall next Sunday night at 7:30, with sermon by Rev. G. E. Brush of Hardwick.

Wayne Woodworth has returned to Richford after a short stay at the A. G. Small home.

WORD FROM RUSSIA

Former Morrisville Boy Writes of Conditions in That Red Land

A. L. Hardy of Amherst, Mass., and Caspian Lake colony has recently received the following letter from his son, Donald E. Hardy, who is working in Russia with the American relief administration as district supervisor at Minsk. It is interesting to know that he has recently opened an office in that city for the distribution of food packages and anyone can buy in the states, in England or in Europe a $10 or any multiple of $10 food package remittance, upon receipt of which is delivered in any part of Russia a stipulated amount of food at cost prices. It was dated March 28.

Mr. Hardy writes: "I am still busy and constantly surrounded by new problems and difficulties. Last week we delivered about 1,200 packages of the value of $10 each and when you consider the routine and paper work involved it's quite a job. The signing of the original draft from America, the addressing and filling out acknowledgment post cards to the giver as well as making out two delivery receipt orders for each draft as well as entering them on reports in six copies, which this last week included about 40 pages, this with out stock and commodity reports keep the office force busy. The total Minsk draft to date is about 13,000 packages, the same as delivering a package of six different commodities to more than twice the population of Amherst spread out over 50 times the area. My doctor comes tonight to handle the medical work we are starting.

"I have definite word from Moscow that in all probability 500 tons of corn enroute from Danzig will be put at my disposal for refugee feeding in White Russia. Another shipment of about 180 tons of foodstuff is on the way from Moscow district for Minsk."

HYDE PARK

Professor and Mrs. Douglass and daughter from Burlington were over-Sunday visitors at H. M. McFarland's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Dow and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Eddy visited relatives in Montpelier last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Drew and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Eddy spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Montpelier.

Mrs. Nell Keeler, who has been spending several months here with relatives, returned to her home at Littleton, Mass., last Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid Society was royally entertained by Mrs. Stella Goddard, the president on Thursday afternoon. This was the annual monthly meeting.

An all day session of the Home demonstration work was held Tuesday with Mrs. Mercier. Miss Truman gave a lesson on dress making.

Next Sunday is "Mother's Day." At the Congregational Church at the Morning service Rev. Mr. Mercer will deliver a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

$7,800 worth of mortgage notes will be sold at auction at Hyde Park May 12. The amount of notes was wrong in last week's advertisement on the first page.

Prof. Benjamin Hulburd was home from Fairfax Academy over Sunday. He has accepted a position as assistant professor at Wisconsin Academy, Madison, Wis., and will enter upon his new duties next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar N. Campbell, who have been in California the past few months, returned home last Thursday. They had a very delightful time, but believe that "there's no place like home" when it is in Vermont.

Hugh Savage, who has been in Ireland the past two years, gave relatives and friends here a surprise last week by appearing here without any previous notice. Hugh is looking well and is glad to again be in the land of his birth.

Mrs. R. W. Hulburd, who has been with her husband at the Mary Fletcher hospital several weeks, returned home last Thursday. Mr. Hulburd is recovering nicely from his serious illness and expects to return home the last of this week.

In probate court, Monday a license was granted to sell real estate to the administrator of the estate of Charles M. Dyke. Orlo E. Lucé, executor of the estate of Emeritt M. Faunce, settled his account and a decree was made to the legatees.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Dewey T. Hanley and Miss Mildred E. Wilson. The event took place at Daytona, Fla., May 3. The bride is a Vermont young lady. Congratulations from a host of Vermonters.

Reception to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Savery
A reception of an informal character was given Mrs. C. E. Savery by a large number
