Munson and Howard Slomner attended the Grand Encampment of the Knights Templars, which was held at Bellows Falls last Thursday and Friday. The trip was made in the Raymore and Slayton cars. Thursday evening a concert and dance was given by the visiting Sir Knights in the armory. Five hundred knights appeared in the parade Friday forenoon, music being furnished by the Bellows Falls, Brattleboro and Rutland bands. Lamoille Commandery had a good place in the parade, being just in front of the Rutland band in the center. This is the first time the annual meeting has been held outside of Burlington in 50 years and the first time a parade has been held in many years. The encampment was acknowledged by all to have been one of the best ever held. Next year Rutland will entertain.

Thomas C. Cheney was elected warden of the Grand Commandery. This recognition came to Lamoille Commandery, without any solicitation on the part of its members, as a recognition of the good work this local body has been doing recently.

Collins' herd of Greezy Hill; Norris Stygles has a Guernsey from the N. J. Nye farm in East Cambridge; Russell Hicks has an Ayrshire from George Young's herd in Johnson.

Entertainment a Big Success Thursday Evening

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Hyde Park graded school was one of the finest entertainments ever seen here. The first part of the program was rendered by the children of the primary room under the able leadership of Mrs. Mary Finnegan. This consisted of character songs, drills, a dramatized story and a holiday festival. In the second part of the program an operetta, "Florida, or the Rose and Pearl," the intermediate children did themselves and their director, Miss Martha Tyndall, much credit. All are deserving of much praise, but special mention should be given Mildred Godette, as Fortuna, the Fairy Queen, who was lovely in make-up and acting, and Marjorie Scribner as Florida, both her action and singing being faultless. Gavin Maloney as Yoringal acted his part very creditably and pleased the audience with his clear soprano voice, and Dorothy Penno, as Vala, the Witch, also rendered her difficult part well. Too much credit cannot be given Mrs. Finnegan and Miss Tyndall, who, by their effort and hard work made such an entertainment possible. Miss Beryl Powell ably assisted the program as pianist. This entertainment was one out of the ordinary kind. It was instructive and entertaining to both actors and audience. More should be given like it.

ENTERTAINED AT STOWE

Captain Jedediah Hyde Chapter, D. A. R., Entertained by Mrs. Harry A. Pike

Captain Jedediah Hyde Chapter, D. A. R., was delightfully entertained on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Harry A. Pike in Stowe. Mrs. Pike and Mrs. Tinkham being the hostesses. Six members from Morrisville, two from Hyde Park, and five from Stowe were present.

The meeting opened in the usual way, with Mrs. Abbie G. Stevens, regent, presiding. Following the regular ritual came the business session, which was especially interesting, as this was the annual meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved; also the annual report of the treasurer was heard and accepted. Mrs. Stevens, the retiring regent, gave a comprehensive resume of the work of the chapter during the year, and thanked the members for their loyal support of her during her term of office. The regent's account, brief though it was, was indeed gratifying, as it notably showed many things accomplished in the past months, but also clearly indicated that the chapter is in the most flourishing condition of its existence. Mrs. Stevens is to be congratulated upon the success which Captain Jedediah Hyde Chapter has attained during her administration.

As neither the registrar nor the historian had anything to report further than had been included in the regent's summary, this completed the yearly reports. Mrs. Stevens called upon Mrs. Nora Wood, who, with a few particularly appropriate remarks, presented to Mrs. Ruby Shaw Raymond a wedding gift from the chapter. Mrs. Raymond, although completely surprised, responded gracefully, thanking the members for their thoughtfulness and expressing her appreciation of the attention shown her.

Mrs. Jennie Waterman, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted the following slate: Regent, Mrs. Mae Cheney; vice regent, Mrs. Lizzie Eisher; secretary, Mrs. Kate Warren; treasurer, Mrs. Alice Howe; registrar, Miss Louise Slocum; historian, Mrs. Nora Wood; press correspondent, Miss Louise Slocum.

As there were no other nominations the motion was made and carried that the secretary cast the vote, and the officers were declared elected for the coming year. This completed the business for the day.

It had been expected that Mrs. Lucia Stewart of Middlebury, state regent, D. A. R., would be present and address the meeting, but at the last minute word was received that Mrs. Stewart was detained at home by illness, and Miss Louise Slocum was asked to fill the vacancy on the program by telling something of her recent western trip. At the conclusion of Miss Slocum's trip, a delicious supper was served by the hostesses, and after an all too brief social hour the party disbanded, thus drawing to a close another successful and happy year in the annals of the chapter.

CONCERT THURSDAY NIGHT

The Morrisville Military Band, which has been practicing new music all the spring, will give the first outdoor concert in People's Academy Park bandstand this week Thursday night, weather permitting.

We are credibly informed that the band was never in better shape than now, and that the boys will surely try and outdo all previous records tomorrow night.

Everybody in Morrisville or Morristown, and in Lamoille county, is most cordially invited to attend this concert. No admission and no collection taken, but the best music you ever heard for coming.

UPLIFT CLUB

On Wednesday, May 31, a regular meeting of the Uplift Club was held at the home of Martha Baker. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer, after which was a sacred duet sung by Inez Spaulding and Martha Baker. Ten members answered to roll call with quotations on "Birds." These were two guests present. The secretary's report was read and approved. An excellent paper on "How to Protect Birds" was written and read by Martha Baker and was followed by a piano solo by Shirley Gould. Next was an excellent talk in keeping with the Bird Day program by Mrs. H. D. Newland, which was very interesting and much enjoyed by all those present. Another interesting paper was that written and read by the club president, Elsie Bliss. After a surprise feature of distinguishing birds by their picture, the meeting closed and refreshments of iced tea and wafers were served by the hostess.
