ORDERED TO KILL.

General Smith Ordered a Massacre.

A VAST WILDERNESS

Is What He Proposed to Make the Philippine Island of Samar.

Major Littleton W. T. Waller, of the marine corps at today's session of the court martial by which he is being tried on the charge of executing natives of Samar without a trial testified in rebuttal of the evidence given yesterday by General Jacob H. Smith who commanded the American troops in the island of Samar.

The major said General Smith instructed him to kill and to burn; said that the more he killed and burned the better satisfied he would be; that it was no time to take prisoners and that he was to make Samar a howling wilderness. Major Waller asked General Smith to define the age limit for killing and he replied, "every thing over ten." The major repeated this order saying: "we do not make war on old men, women and children.

Lieutenant Frank Hilford of the Marine corps, testified corroboratively. The defense requested that subpoena be issued on the Adjutant General demanding reproduction of records of the massacre at Calangiga of a detachment of the Ninth Infantry in order to refute the statement of General Smith to the effect that the attack on the troops was made according to the laws of war. The request was granted.
