Here is an example of legislative incompetency actually incorporated into the statutes of Kansas and given publicity over the signature of Governor Hodges, who is putting up a strong fight for fewer and better members: The law provides "That when two railway trains meet at a crossing each shall stop and neither shall move until the other has passed over the crossing." Oklahomans had begun to think this State was in possession of the legislative rhapsody, but it turns out only a cheap side show compared with Kansas' big circus.—Comanche Reflex.

Which tends to show that the Prohibition law of Kansas is not being strictly enforced.

New State Tea
The Delightful Drink

Fragrant as the new blown rose. In the Orient, where the best tea is grown, the gardens yield two and sometimes three crops or pickings from the same plant. The first leaves are tenderest, full of fragrance and strength. The tea which is brewed from them is clear and pure. The later pickings are heavier and have not the natural sweetness of the first crop which makes tea one of the most delicious of beverages. You can always get the early May picking of Orient Tea if you buy the sanitary packages of

Modern Methods Are Best

Mammy now uses Calumet Baking Powder instead of sour milk and soda, or the cheap and big-can kind, because it is more convenient—because she knows from experience that the baking will be lighter, daintier and more uniformly raised—that it will keep fresh longer.

Calumet is certain of good results—it is purer and more wholesome than the cheap big-can kind, and more economical in the end.

Give Calumet one trial. If it fails to give you absolute satisfaction return it and get your money back. If you don't get Calumet you don't get the best.
