Waco News: A Florida cynic having in mind that there are sixty-two drinks to a gallon, and the profit that is made by the seller, says "Start a saloon in your own house. Buy your drinks from no one but your wife, and by the time the first gallon is gone she will have $8 to put in the bank and $2 to start business on again. Should you live ten years and continue to buy booze from her, and then die with snakes in your boots, she will have enough to bury you, educate the children, buy a house and marry some decent man."

It is a good idea. It is logical from an economic standpoint and praiseworthy from a patriotic standpoint, because the husband who patronizes his wife's saloon, helps her to earn money and at the same time he supports home enterprises. If, in addition to the liquor itself, the husband should demand the concomitant joys of the down town saloon, the wife can easily equip her front room with swinging doors, rig up a bar with a footrail, carpet the floor with sawdust and cigar stubs, melodize the premises with the scent of stale beer, place repulsive cuspidors in easy reach in all directions, set up a wavy mirror with soaped lettering on it, hang the walls with brewery pictures showing nymphs in natural disporting in seas of foam, invite a congenial company of pimply soaks known to the trade as good fellows, and constantly mop the top of the counter with a dirty rag while the crowd leans around and laughs scottishly at its own vulgarity. Any lady who will thus cater to her husband's tastes and preferences will deserve his trade, and she will also have the sweet satisfaction of knowing that her drunkaterium is just like some drunkateriums down town.—Dallas News. And she will have the satisfaction of having her little boozelin with her all the time and will that he is not out having a time with some other fair damsel which should be worth something to her.

SPIRITISM SAID TO BE DEMONISM.

A most interesting little brochure has recently come off the press setting forth with Bible proofs that the communications received by and through Spiritist Mediums is of Demon origin. The writer traces his subject through the Scriptures from the time when certain of the holy angels became disobedient. He proves from the Scriptures that these fallen spirits permeate the human dead, with whose past history, spirits, though invisible, are thoroughly acquainted. He shows that they also frequently personate the Creator and the Redeemer, commanding their deceived ones to pray, do penance, etc. This, however, is merely to lead them on and to bring them more thoroughly under demonic control. Sometimes by breaking down the natural barrier, the human will, they possess their victim, and rule him more or less to his ruin—frequently sending such to the mad-house. Numerous illustrations, Scriptural and otherwise, are given. The price of the little book is but five cents; it should be in the hands of all interested in Spiritism or who have friends interested therein. FACT

Local Evidence.
Evidence that can be verified. Fact is what we want. Opinion is not enough. Opinions differ. Here's an Anadarko fact. You can test it.

Hugh Sanner, Alabama Ave., Anadarko, Okla., says: "I was bad as the result of kidney complaint which came on me suddenly. My back ached constantly and I had sharp pains, like knife-thrusts, across my kidneys. Every position was uncomfortable and I felt miserable in every way. Mornings I felt tired and restless and was hardly able to go to work. Headaches, accompanied by dizzy spells, were common. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and unnatural. The secretion also contained sediment. I had puff spots beneath my eyes and my hands and feet became swollen. I was rapidly growing worse when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. I notice improvement from the first and after I had used four boxes every symptom of my complaint had left. I have had no return of the trouble. The cure has been permanent and I cannot recommend Doan's Kidney Pills too highly."
