Under-sheriff Crane was in Midland Wednesday afternoon to get B. Brown, who was wanted here to answer for his share in the stealing of Mrs. Buck's heifer.

Frank Smith, of this city, has been attracting attention by the way in which he has been pitching ball for the Port Huron team. He has been doing good work.

Rev. J. R. Reitzel, of Chicago, formerly pastor of the Congregational church in this city, will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning speaking on the subject, "True value and delight of life."

Henry H. Bartlett returned to his home in Ottawa Illinois after attending his son, Bruce, during his sickness and spending a short time with his sister, Mrs. Buckminister, since his death.

Oscar Kenyon is displaying a fine healthy cotton plant at Devereaux's livery stable. The plant is nearly two feet high and is nearly full grown. It has buds on it now. Mr. Kenyon planted the seed in May.

J. W. Hibbard has added to the fine stock kept on Mound Spring farm a pair of Berkshire pigs purchased from N. A. Clapp, of Wixom. The animals are choice ones and make a valuable addition to Mr. Hibbard's pens.

Albert Drumm, of this city, by his attorney, S. S. Miner, has commenced a libel suit, claiming $5,000 damages, against the Detroit Journal. The case grows out of the publication of an article concerning the purchase of the Axford meat market by Drumm.

Owing to the scarcity of coal the Ann Arbor Ry. has taken off eight crews which have been working night and day with four work trains near Clare, two of the trains being brought in Saturday evening and two more Wednesday evening. The steam shovels are now in the yards at Owosso.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Mary Ellen Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gallagher, of Corunna, and Stephen A. Scully, of Howell, Ann Arbor Ry. agent in that city. The wedding will take place at nine o'clock, next Wednesday morning, in St. Paul's church, in this city.

The street car motor men have orders to stop only on crossings in Owosso and Corunna, except in front of hotels. This is the same rule which prevails in large cities; that is the car crosses the street before stopping, thus always stopping at the cross walk farthest in the direction in which the car is going.

Mrs. Mary Aten King, wife of A. J. King, died at her home, 318 north Cedar street, yesterday morning after a short illness. She was twenty-five years of age and had been a teacher in the city schools previous to her marriage. The funeral services will be held at the house at eleven o'clock Sunday morning, Rev. G. Fred Williams officiating.

W. A. Richardson stated this morning that as nearly as could be told at that time, there will be about one hundred and fifty persons in the party which will start for Buffalo, Monday. This number will include those in this vicinity as well as those who will take the train at the Owosso station. The committee and the Grand Army members generally, have made a thorough job of working up the excursion and will evidently be rewarded by seeing a large Shiawassee party start out Monday.

Two citizens residing in the second ward amused themselves Wednesday by chasing around with sticks and clubs a big fox squirrel which had strayed into the city. They were apparently quite oblivious of the fact that it is just as criminal an act to kill a fox squirrel as to kill a quail or a deer out of season. Remember, the squirrel season does not open until October 1st.

Miss Metta Gould has resigned her position as teacher of the third grade at the Central school to accept a flattering offer of a position in the Riverside school in the suburbs of Chicago. Miss Gould has for fifteen years been one of the most successful teachers in the Owosso schools and has a host of friends who will unite in congratulating her upon her better fortune, but who will be sorry to have her leave Owosso.

A party consisting of George Farver, Jos. Bilhimer, James Byerly, William Byerly, Mrs. A. H. Lewis, and Mrs. Rachel Beardsley, all of Owosso city and vicinity, left Monday morning over the Ann Arbor road for Irwin, Westmoreland county, Penn., where they will attend the annual reunion of the old Byerly school. The reunion was held yesterday. The school has been organized for sixty years and James Byerly, who lives about two miles south of this city, is the oldest surviving teacher.
