THE Laboring Man

By hard, manual labor, can earn from 10 to 12 1/2 cents per hour. Now if I can convince you that I can save you as much good money by buying one pound of tea from me as you can earn in one hour by hard work, of course you will buy your tea from me. To convince you that such is the fact I will endeavor to do. If you have been paying 35 to 40c for your tea, go to my store and ask for a free sample of my 25c Japan Tea and try it and if it is as good as you have been buying for 35 to 40c, I have saved you 10 or 15c, and you will have to admit that it was an easy way to earn the money. I have this Tea, it is a great bargain—am anxious that you should try it—offer you a free sample, but can't compel you try it if you do not see fit. My "Java" blended coffee at 25c is the best bargain ever offered in Owosso on coffee, and I want to tell you right here that when you can get a high grade blended coffee like the "Java" for 25c a pound, you make the mistake of your life if you don't try it. In conclusion I wish to say that it will pay you to watch my advertisements, and you can always depend that any article I recommend will in every instance be as good or better than I claim it to be.

 E. L. Devereaux has rented the basement of the Woodard building on east Main street and is using it to store potatoes. See his ad.
 Fletcher Connor is seriously sick at the home of his sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Grabame. It is thought he will have to undergo an operation for appendicitis.
 The large barn on the farm of Evan Bowles, west of Bancroft, was destroyed by fire Sunday evening. It was insured in the Shiawassee Mutual for $1,100.
 Beatrice, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown Jr., Huron St., died Friday evening. Funeral services were held Sunday, conducted by Rev. Henry King.
 O. T. Rose, who has been employed for several years as cashier at the M. C. freight office, has resigned and will remove to Petersburg, his former home, to engage in business.
 The directors of the Shiawassee Mutual have adjusted the loss on the house of Jas. Byrnes, of Selota, at $80 82; house and contents owned by Phoebe Carmichael, of Hazelton, at $267.03.
 E. P. Vandewater will probably go to Detroit next week for an operation for appendicitis. It is to be hoped that the operation will be successful and that his speedy recovery will follow.
 The board of directors of the Shiawassee Mutual Fire Insurance company on Saturday appointed Frank Rush, of Owosso township, auditor to succeed the late Ezra Mason. An excellent selection.
 Marshal Barrisford has received word from Manager Ashley asking him to enforce the law in regard to boys jumping on moving trains. Mr. Barrisford will do his best to break up this dangerous practice.
 Services will be held next Sunday in the Congregational church at 10:30 a. m. and 5 p. m. The topic of the sermon in the morning is "Religious Realism." At 5 o'clock "Ungodly Fear of God." You are always welcome. J. C. Crouser, pastor.

Bancroft Lodge F. & A. M. will visit Owosso lodge Nov. 10th.
 The Emerson school is running again with the usual attendance.
 The first masquerade ball of the season will be given at Arbeiter hall, Nov. 9.
 The large brick smoke stack of Woodard's furniture factory is nearly completed.
 The youth of the city will all be out tomorrow night to observe Halloween. Watch out for them.
 James P. Hamilton, the blind lecturer, will deliver a lecture at the First M. E. church, Nov. 16.
 R. N. Parshal has contracted with Allis & Co., of Milwaukee, for the machinery for his new flouring mill.
 Dr. Scott had two bones in the back of one of his hands broken by a folding bed closing upon it, last Friday.
 The organization of a printers' union in Owosso, which was to have been completed on Monday night, was postponed indefinitely.
 To hear Mrs. Stockton give "Biddies' Trials Among the Yankees," is alone worth the price of admission to Spiritual hall this evening.
 A private party will be given in Wesener's hall, Saturday evening. About twenty-five couple of Owosso's young people will participate.
 The Missionary Union, of the Congregational church, sent two barrels of canned fruit to ministers in the Upper Peninsula, yesterday.
 The first game of indoor ball of the season will be played Saturday evening at the armory between the car shops and Casket factory nines.
 Company G will give its annual ball at the armory Thanksgiving evening. The company will try to make it discount anything ever given in the city.
 Letters from Fred Osmer state that his brother Frank is improving slowly from the injuries he received last week while bicycling near Gorham, N. Y. It will, however, be several weeks before he will be able to return home.
 Nina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Daniels was taken with convulsions while in school Monday, followed by two similar attacks after she was taken home. She has since been recovering slowly and is considered out of danger.
 The Y. M. C. A. has arranged with Prof. Cadman to conduct an evening class in stenography at the association rooms. The tuition to members is very low and an excellent opportunity is afforded those who desire to take up the study.
 THE TIMES job department continues to be headquarters for neat work. Among the jobs sent out this week was 10,000 copies of a 20-page program for the meeting of the State Sunday School Association, to be held in Port Huron, on Nov. 14-15.
 Miss Anna McCarty has filed a claim through her attorneys, Watson & Chapman, against the city for $8,000 damages. Miss McCarty fell down the potato chute on the west side of Hall Bros. grocery store and claims she was severely injured.
 John Pulaworth, an employe at the Ann Arbor car shops, had one of his legs badly sprained yesterday while trying to stop a moving tank with a plank. The plank flew around, knocking his feet from under him, but luckily no bones were broken.
 The Congregational Social Union will give a supper in the church Tuesday, Nov. 3d, from five to eight o'clock. Price 15 cts. As this is the first supper given by the ladies since the consolidation of the two societies, a large attendance is hoped for.
 The farmers of the county are highly pleased with the excellent market Owosso offers for all their products—and a long line of heavily loaded wagons come in daily from all directions. It is safe to say that more money will be paid out this fall in this city for agricultural products than for years past.
 The first number of the Shiawassee School Journal, a four-page paper devoted to the interests of the schools of the county, will be issued from this office tomorrow. County Commissioner Bristol is the editor and publisher and will put forth his best endeavors to make the publication of value to the teachers and district school officers. That he will succeed is beyond question.
 About 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon Ray, the 11 year old son of Mrs. Hattie Lewis, Broadway street, had his right leg cut off below the knee, and the left foot badly mangled by an Ann Arbor freight train. The small boys in the neighborhood in which the accident happened have made a practice of jumping on nearly every passing freight train, not heeding the commands of their parents and the trainmen. Ray was amusing himself in this way when the accident happened. Doctors Hume, McCormick, Arnold, and Lamb amputated and dressed the one limb and removed two toes from the left foot. This should be a severe lesson to the boys in habit of jumping on trains while in motion, and should long be remembered by them.
 Judge S. F. Smith and R. O. Dewey were in Lansing, Wednesday, to attend the presentation ceremonies of the portrait of Ex-Gov. Rich to the state. The painting is a magnificent one, life size and is one of the best pieces of work hung in the capitol building, reflecting great credit upon Artist Perry Ives, of Detroit. On behalf of the donors (sixty of the friends of Mr. Rich from all parts of the state), T. F. Giddings presented the portrait to the state board of auditors, Hon. Washington Gardner accepting the same. Both gentlemen referred in very complimentary terms to the public career of John T. Rich. Brief remarks were also made by Ex-Senator John Patton, Jr., Judge C. D. Long and Hon. C. H. Morse. The occasion was a very pleasant one.
