inaw Saturday to take up her work in the public schools after an extended visit during the vacation with her sister, Mrs. Wm.
Broad in this city.

A consignment of Springfield rifles has been received by Capt. Van Epps, and Co. H is beginning to feel more like a real military company again. With the arrival of the uniforms the feeling will be still further increased.

H. W. Huntington, of Collins, Alabama, was the guest of his friend, E. P. Gilbert, for several days the latter part of last week and the first of the present. He left Tuesday for his home instead of for Denver as he had intended.

The Knights of the Maccabees expect to do some hustling at the beginning of next month when they will have three deputies at work in the city. The order has made a fine growth in Owosso during the summer and the indications are that a large increase in the membership will be the result of next month's work.

F. E. Walton was up from Lansing for Sunday and Monday.

W. E. McKenzie was in Detroit on business a part of the week.

Mrs. A. D. Whipple and daughter returned on Monday from Cleveland.

Mrs. H. Halsted returned Monday from an outing at Potosky and Frankfort.

THE TIMES job rooms turn out nothing but neat work. Prices always right.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sellick went to Grand Rapids Monday to visit friends.

Miss Mable Marvin, of Saginaw, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. M. Miller, Goodhue street.

A sprained ankle prevented Rep. Geo. T.
Mason from going to Philadelphia to attend the G. A. R. encampment.

Will Alexander is in Detroit attending the M. E. church conference, representing the Bennington church.

The Labor Day celebration at the park passed off as advertised and furnished amusement to a good sized crowd.

Miss Louise Knapp returned to her home in Chicago Monday evening after spending the summer with Miss Nellie Crowe.

Rudolph Colby, Erwin Eveleth and the Misses Nina and Nettie Eveleth, of Corunna, left the first of the week for a trip to New York and Philadelphia.

Geo. H. Grahame has moved his cigar factory into the rooms in the Stewart block, lately vacated by Dr. W. E. Ward, where he will operate it until the Frieseke block on Exchange street is completed.

Chef Charles McNally assumed charge of the culinary department at Connor's, Monday. McNally at Connor's will make a popular combination, as both have the best of reputations for properly feeding people.

The City Band enjoyed itself thoroughly Friday evening when they accepted an invitation to spend the evening at the home of one of their members, George Reineke, on Pine street. The lawn was lighted and a fine lunch was served the visitors by Mr. and Mrs. Reineke. During the evening the band played several of its best numbers.

Warren B. Mack, formerly of this city, son of Mrs. Jesse Darling, has accepted a position as clarinet player with the Chicago Marine Band at a fine salary. Mr.
Mack was a fine musician when he left Owosso to study music in Chicago some two years ago and his progress has been continuous and gratifying to Owosso friends since.

The ordinance of baptism was observed at the Baptist church Sunday morning before the sermon, the pastor, Rev. C. V.
Northrop, officiating. The sermon was followed by communion, at which time the hand of fellowship was extended to several new members. The health of Mr. Northrop, who suffered a slight relapse Saturday, forbade any evening service and there will be none for the next two weeks.

The Board of Public Works has taken a hand in requiring sewer, water and gas connections to be made by property owners on Washington and Main streets and Michigan avenue, a resolution being passed by them requiring the same to be done by October 15. The portion of the streets affected is, Washington between Mason and Goodhue, Main between the bridge and the M. C., and Michigan avenue between Main and the D. & M. station.

Reynolds, of Vernon, called on Owosso friends Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams have returned from a short visit in Detroit, where they formerly lived.

The Disciples Aid Society, of Burton, will meet with Mr and Mrs. Felton next Thursday the 14th.

Miss Blanch Seeley, of Detroit, has been the guest of Mrs. Albert West and other Owosso friends this week.

Miss Ruth Fulkerson is expected back to take her former place in the Davis Dry Goods Co.'s store next week.

Richard Phillips returned Saturday from Pontiac where he has been working at carpenter work for some time.

J. H. Faxon and daughter, Miss Gertrude are expected home today or tomorrow from their summer's outing at Bay View.

Dr. C. B. Kinyon, of Ann Arbor, was in the city Monday on professional business.
While here he was the guest of Dr. J. D.
Crum.

President Chas. E. Rigley of the Owosso Savings Bank attended the annual meeting of the American Bankers association held in Cleveland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Looker and daughter, Miss Maud, are in Milwaukee. Mr.
Looker is a delegate to the national meeting of master blacksmiths.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Everett left Wednesday for Ann Arbor where Mr.
Everett will work for a university degree during the coming school year.

The International Correspondence School of Scranton, Pennsylvania had an advertising car in this city, Wednesday. The car stood on the Ann Arbor siding.

Prin. Arthur Benson has been spending the week in this city with his parents, the opening of the Grand Rapids schools having been postponed a week by the board.

Ed. J. Hunt, who formerly played in the high school foot ball team and also played in Albion last year, will do some coaching for the high school team in the next few days.

M. H. Seeley has been very ill with heart trouble at his home south of the city this week. His brother, Dr. Seeley, of Climax, has been with him a part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira G. Curry left Saturday evening for an eastern trip, visiting Niagara Falls, and later visiting at Pres. I. D.
H. Ralph's home in Philadelphia with side trips to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crane returned Wednesday morning from their Wisconsin visit. Though they were married at Cheboygan, Wis., it was thirty-three years since Mr. Crane had seen the place.

Rev. Dr. John Sweet has been in Detroit all the week attending the annual sessions of the Detroit conference of the M. E. church. A. J. Cadman, M. Miner and B.
S. Knapp have also been in attendance a part of the week.

Ed Flannigan entertained crowds on Exchange street the latter part of last week in the evenings by some very clever trick bicycle riding. The lad's modest and gentlemenly bearing also pleased the crowd as much as his riding.

Hal H. Seeley received an elegant dress suit case while in Detroit attending the meeting of the Mutual Life Insurance Co.'s agents last week. It was the third prize in the six weeks contest just ended among the agents in the state.

The Owosso party which with L. B.
Quackenbush Post filled a special car on the Philadelphia trip reached that city at a quarter to nine Sunday night without mishap of any kind. When the party reached Washington they were greeted by their old Owosso friends, Geo. F. Robinson, Wm. F. Stedman and E. P. Byerly.

The county poultry and pet stock association at a meeting held at THE TIMES office Tuesday evening, accepted the resignations of C. P. Reynolds as secretary, and C. St.
Clair as treasurer, and elected Mr. St. Clair secretary, and V. E. Josenhans treasurer.
Committees were appointed to solicit premiums for the annual exhibition to be held Dec. 13-16, to secure a building for the same, etc.

The effort of conducting the Sunday morning service at the Baptist church proved to be too much for Rev. C. V.
Northrop and Monday and Tuesday found him in a serious condition again having had two bad attacks of heart trouble during that time. His case is regarded by his physician as very serious and complete rest for a full month has been ordered. Arrangements have not been made yet for supplying the pulpit during all this time but it will be occupied Sunday by Rev. F. S.
Retan.

George Fowler, the travelling soap maker who gained considerable notoriety by advertising for a lost wife who was not his wife at all, and later was lodged in jail at Corunna on the charge of larceny, added further to his notoriety Saturday by confessing the truth in the matter and telling where his legal wife is. He takes all the blame on himself now and says the woman who left him is a good woman and is not to blame. It is the opinion of some that the erratic soapmaker's mental balance would stand a stronger qualifying adjective, even than erratic, and be much nearer the truth. At any rate Justice Mc-Bride gave him ninety days in the Detroit House of Correction for petty larceny and to allow him to gain his lost equilibrium.
