

DONE SO QUIETLY.

Owosso People are Surprised—Like a Ray of Sunshine to Many a Home.

It comes like a ray of sunshine. Makes the old folk happy. Makes the young folk joyful. Takes the load of the back. It's all done so quietly. No fuss about it. What is it? Why, Doan's Kidney Pills. The little kidney wonder workers. What will they do? Read what this citizen says: Mrs. John Connell, of 733 W. Main street, says: 'For two years I was constantly troubled with pains through my loins and kidneys. It gradually became so bad that at times I could hardly keep around and my general health ran down. I could scarcely stoop, and to lift anything heavy hurt my back badly. I could not rest comfortably at night in any position, and I arose in the morning thoroughly tired out and exhausted. I never succeeded in getting any medicine to relieve me permanently until I saw Doan's Kidney Pills recommended, and got a box at Johnson & Henderson's drug store. It was only a comparatively short time after commencing their use that I was completely cured.'

JOHN A. LOGAN KILLED.

Falls in Battle While Gallantly Leading a Charge.

SIX OTHER AMERICANS ARE SLAIN.

Eighty-One Insurgents Were Found Dead in the Trenches and Their Loss Is Estimated at 300—The Whereabouts of Aguinaldo an Enigma to the Military Authorities in the Philippines—Troops Still Pushing the Rebels.

Washington, Nov. 14.—A cable dispatch received at the war department announces that Major John A. Logan, Thirty-third volunteer infantry, has been killed in a fight in Luzon. He was leading his battalion in action. He is a son of the late General John A. Logan of Illinois and Mrs. Mary A. Logan, now a resident of Washington. He leaves a widow and two children who are at present residing at Youngstown, O.

JOHN A. LOGAN, JR.

Otis Confirms the Report. The following dispatch received from General Otis under date of Manila, confirms the report of the death of Major Logan:

"Wheaton reports Nov. 12 there was an engagement near San Jacinto between the Thirty-third volunteers and 1,200 entrenched insurgents. Our loss, Major Logan, by gallantly leading battalion and six enlisted men, killed. Captain Green and eleven men were wounded, mostly very slight. The enemy was routed, leaving eighty-one dead in the trenches. His loss is believed to be 300.

Rebel Press Captured. "Lawton reports from San Jose that in the vicinity of San Nicholas, north of Tayuig, Wessels captured thirteen carts with the insurgent war department records, the printing press complete of the insurgent newspaper and a large quantity of rice also captured. The cavalry is still actively engaged and the infantry is pressing on from San Jose and Araga. The roads are impracticable for any wheel transportation and the horses are foraged on rice and growing rice straw.

"OTIS." Mrs. Logan Prostrated. The news of her son's death was conveyed to Mrs. Logan by a personal note from Secretary Root, sent by Major Johnson, assistant adjutant general. Mrs. Logan was prostrated by the shock, but later in the day recovered her composure and driving down town communicated with young Mrs. Logan at Youngstown, O., over the long-distance phone.

CANNOT LOCATE AGUINALDO. The Whereabouts of the Rebel Leader Is an Enigma.

Manila, Nov. 14.—The whereabouts of Aguinaldo and his army and cabinet is a perfect enigma. General Otis has learned that Aguinaldo recently issued a proclamation transferring the capital to Bongabong, giving as a reason for the step the unsanitary condition of Tarlac.

It is supposed that the leaders of the insurrection who are not already at Bongabong are retreating to that place, though when they left Tarlac, whether they are traveling with the army, how many soldiers they are able to hold together, and whether the leaders or the troops have got beyond General Lawton's line are all unknown. It is hoped, however, that General Wheaton has effected a junction with Young, forming a cordon from San Fabian to San Isidro.

General Lawton has 6,000 men and General Wheaton 2,700—a small force to control so many miles, but it commands the main roads by which the insurgents must move to the northeast. With the Americans advancing at the present rate they could drive the insurgents from Bongabong in a fortnight; and it is impossible for the rebels to establish another capital in Luzon which cannot be captured within a month.

Saw Lieutenant Gilmore. Washington, Nov. 14.—The following was received at the navy department from Admiral Watson dated Manila, Nov. 14: "Escaped Spanish prisoners at San Fabian report seeing Gilmore Nov. 1 in Tarlac with five men; all well. He crossed mountain from Baler in May with thirteen men. Location of other eight unknown. Have cabled Hong Kong for salvage for Charleston."

Imus Threatened by Rebels. Manila, Nov. 14.—The insurgents have resumed their activity in the Cavite province, threatening an attack on Imus. They attacked Calamba in the usual fashion. A nightly fusillade between the marines and the hundred insurgents who have again entrenched themselves on the isthmus between Cavite and Novleta is plainly heard in Manila.

Mother and Babe

NONE but a mother knows the pains, anguish and dread that a woman endures before and during childbirth. And still nearly all this suffering is unnecessary. The faithful use of MOTHER'S FRIEND will in great measure overcome every distressing symptom, and labor itself will not be a very serious ordeal. Remember that MOTHER'S FRIEND is an external liniment that softens and relaxes the muscles, and is not a dangerous compound of opiates to swallow. CHARLESTON WRECKED.

Big Cruiser Goes Aground North of Island of Luzon.

NONE OF THE CREW WAS DROWNED.

Officers and Men Landed on Kamiguin Island, whose Inhabitants Are Friendly to the Americans—Admiral Watson's Dispatch Informing the Navy Department of the Disaster—What Admiral Dewey Says of the Wreck.

Manila, Nov. 14.—The United States cruiser Charleston was wrecked off the coast of Kamiguin island, just north of Luzon, on Nov. 7. Every one of the crew was saved, but the splendid cruiser is in great danger of breaking to pieces on the rocks.

The Charleston has been assisting in the blockade of Luzon and was doing patrol duty about the northern extremity of the island. Nov. 7, during a heavy rainstorm the vessel struck. The crew was taken off in small boats and towed by launches to Lingayen gulf, where the disaster was reported to the Helena.

Captain George W. Pigman, the commander of the vessel, immediately started for Manila to report to Admiral Watson. He reached here in the morning. He says he fears the cruiser is a total wreck.

NAVY DEPARTMENT NOTIFIED. Admiral Watson Reports the Wreck of the Charleston.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Admiral Watson cables to the navy department the following official report of the wreck of the cruiser Charleston:

"Manila, Nov. 14.—Charleston wrecked uncharted coral reef three miles northwest of Guinapak rocks, north coast Luzon, 5:30 morning of Nov. 2. Everybody safely landed Kamiguin island, armed with rifles and two Colts. Natives friendly. McDonald made Lingayen gulf (in) sailing launch. No opportunity for examination of wreck. Northeast monsoon, heavy sea prevailing. Reports ship struck easily, then thumped violently. Fire room completely flooded; first water-tight doors closed promptly. Ship lies settled aft; water one foot from name. Well out of water forward; apparently very steep bank; ten days provisions one-half rations landed. Helena dispatched from Lingayen by Oregon to Kamiguin; due today."

There is a discrepancy in the date of the wreck of the Charleston as given in Admiral Watson's message and in the press dispatches. It is probable that the 7th is correct, and Admiral Watson's dispatch was confused in transmission. A careful reading of the cablegram from Admiral Watson convinces the officials that there is a fair chance of saving the Charleston. They say that the name of the ship is painted about three or four feet below the rail. This is an indication that the main deck is above water, which would make the work of pumping out the hull much easier. If she is settled down aft, as reported, there is less danger of injuring the bottom further by pounding. Much depends, however, on the weather, as the wreck lies in the full sweep of monsoons which prevail at this season.

What Admiral Dewey Says. New York, Nov. 14.—A reporter went to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel and sent to Admiral Dewey a copy of the dispatch announcing the loss of the Charleston. The admiral said:

"I am sorry, very sorry. The Charleston was a good ship, but if she had to be lost, I am glad, at least, that none of her gallant officers and crew shared her fate. I am always interested in the welfare of the men and ships in our navy, and doubly so in those that have been under my command. It is a treacherous coast where the Charleston met her doom—one of the most treacherous on the whole island of Luzon."

AS MUCH IN DOUBT AS EVER. Republicans and Democrats Still Claiming the Election in Kentucky.

Louisville, Nov. 14.—The political situation in Kentucky, when considered in conjunction with the respective claims of the two parties, is as much in doubt as it has been at any time subsequent to the day of election. The count of the official vote is progressing throughout the state, and although it has been prosecuted with as much speed as possible it will be several days before it is completed in all the counties and even then it may not be sufficient to determine the result for many notices of contest will be filed before the board of election commissioners. At Bardstown suit has been filed by the Republicans in which the court is asked that the election board be compelled to issue new certificates to W. Taylor, the ballot having been printed "W. F. Taylor." The Democrats are contending that 1,068 votes cast for "W. F. Taylor" are invalid.

At Republican headquarters it is claimed that Taylor has been elected by a plurality of 3,134. These figures are based, they say, upon official returns from every county in the state except five. The Democrats still claim Goebel's election, but are not giving out any figures.

Illit Still Raided. New York, Nov. 14.—Revenue Agent F. G. Thompson, accompanied by Special Officers Brooks, Long and Moore, went to Passaic, N. J., and raided an illit distillery. The still, which was of 100 gallons' capacity, was running at the time and two women, Mrs. Elizabeth Wertz and her daughter, Rebecca Glasmer, were the only persons around. They were arrested, and held for examination. Mr. Thompson said Mrs. Glasmer had asserted that a man ran the still, but he believes she ran it herself.

Two of a Suicide Club Dead. Frankfort, Ind., Nov. 14.—Andrew S. Thompson is dead from a dose of morphine taken with suicidal intent. Thompson, after taking the drug, told his friends that Fred Griner, who killed himself last Thursday, Thompson and three other young men had formed a suicide club and within a month all would be dead. Thompson was 26 years old and unmarried.

More Troops Reach Cape Town. London, Nov. 15.—It was officially announced this afternoon that the British transport Gorkha, with the First brigade staff, the Third battalion of Grenadiers, and a detachment of the Royal engineers, the transport Manila, with the Second Devonshire and the transport Nomadic, with their mounts, have arrived at Cape Town. The Royal Irish rifles, has sailed from Cape Town for East London.

BANK SWINDLERS CAUGHT. Gang Captured in New York Includes Alonzo Whiteman.

New York, Nov. 15.—In the arrest of four men in New York and one in Pittsburgh a dangerous and successful gang of bank swindlers has been broken up. They were rounded up after being watched for several months. The prisoners are: Alonzo J. Whiteman, 39 years old, of Danville, N. Y., the alleged head of the gang. He is a graduate of Columbia Law school, and at one time was a prominent Minnesota politician. Frank Edmunds, 40 years of age, clerk, of New York. John Thompson, alias William Hartley, alias P. Lawton, alias Dr. George W. Johnson, 31 years of age, residence unknown. Robert J. Knox, 42 years of age, lawyer, of New York.

It is impossible to give an accurate estimate of the total amount of their thefts, but enough is known to warrant the statement that within eighteen months they have divided at least $100,000. Under the crafty leadership of Alonzo Whiteman the men have traveled from San Francisco to Boston, and their operations have resulted in heavy losses to banks in nearly every large city in the west. Alonzo J. Whiteman is well known in Chicago, where, it is said, he was active in politics. The prisoners were arraigned before Magistrate Mayo in the Center street police court and were remanded at the request of Captain McClusky, who wished to hear from the police of other cities before deciding how the prisoners shall be proceeded against.

FRIGHTFUL SCENE AT SEA. Three Hundred and Fifty Horses Killed During a Terrible Storm.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Additional particulars of the terrible trip of the transport Siam from this port to Manila have been received here. The Siam left here on Aug. 19 with near 400 persons of the army in the Philippines. All went well between here and Honolulu, where a stop of ten days gave the horses an opportunity to rest. On the voyage the vessel was left Honolulu on Sept. 6 and on the 17th ran into a typhoon, losing three horses. Good weather followed until Oct. 1 when a terrific typhoon was encountered near Guam island, four days from Manila. The storm broke at 1 o'clock in the morning and at the first roll of the vessel the horses stampeded. Wave after wave crashed over the decks of the steamer, throwing the animals about, breaking their legs and otherwise maiming them. The scene was frightful and it was impossible for the men on the ship to do anything with the terrified horses. The vessel was uncontrollable and it was next to impossible for anyone to stand on deck, it was so slippery with blood and debris. Three hundred and fifty horses were killed and they remained on deck for four days before the bodies could be disposed of. Thousands of sharks followed the vessel, being attracted by the stench and the possibilities of a feast. The vessel was blown 1,000 miles out of her course and was off the formosan coast when the storm blew itself out.

Fought a Duel with Kelves. West Plains, Mo., Nov. 15.—At Bakersfield, twenty-five miles south of this place, on the interstate stage line, in a duel, Luke Seels mortally wounded Postmaster W. M. Sharp with a knife. Rumors of improper relations between Seels and Mrs. Sharp had reached Sharp, who demanded satisfaction. A challenge to fight with knives as weapons was accepted and the principals went to the cellar, where a duel was fought, resulting in the fatal wounding of Sharp and slight injuries to Seels. Mrs. Sharp, it is said, sat on the stairway calmly witnessing the death struggle between her husband and her lover. Seels was arrested and gave bond.

A HELPLESS CHILD. A weak and puny child is almost as much abandoned to its fate as if it was left alone on a chimney-top. It is isolated from the healthy enjoyments of its little fellow-beings. It cannot partake either of their play or their sturdy work and progress in the world; its whole life is embittered by incapacity and weakness.

Any woman who expects to become a mother ought to know what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do both for her own health and safety during her time of trial and also to insure her in bequeathing a fair measure of health and strength to the prospective little one. "Some months before my baby came I found myself in rapidly falling health," writes Mrs. W. J. Kidder, of Hill Dale Farm (Enosburg Center), Enosburg, Vt. "I suffered dreadfully from bloating and urinary difficulty. I was growing perceptibly weaker every day and suffered much sleep pain at times. I felt that something must be done. I sought your advice and received a prompt reply. I followed your directions and took twelve bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and also followed your instructions. I began to improve immediately, my health became excellent, and I could walk and rode all I could, and enjoyed a short, easy confinement and have a healthy baby boy."

There never has been a remedy in the history of medicine that has done what this marvelous "Favorite Prescription" has accomplished for weak, ailing women. It is an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to attempt to palm off upon you a substitute for this world-famed medicine. You know that you want. It's his business to meet that want. When he urges some substitute he's thinking of the larger profit he'll make—not of your welfare.

A Remedy That Cures Paralysis. Mr. H. N. Warner, of Kearney, Neb., says: "In 1894 I was attacked with paralysis in my left side. You might stick a pin to the head into my left hip and I would not feel it. I was unable to do any kind of work, and had to be turned in bed. I fully made up my mind that I could not be cured, as I had used all kinds of medicine and had tried many doctors. At last I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and I very reluctantly commenced their use last September. Before I had finished my first box I began to feel much better, and by the time I had used six boxes the paralysis disappeared; and although two months have passed since I finished my last box, there has been no recurrence of the disease." From the Advertiser, Astell, Neb. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of a gripple, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, all forms of weakness either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are never sold by the dozen or hundred, but always in packages. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, 6 boxes $2.50.

She Tried to Commit Suicide. Kalamazoo, Mich., Nov. 15.—Alice M. Lapham, of 10 East Sixty-eighth street, New York, jumped from an east-bound Michigan Central train near here yesterday afternoon with the intention, she says, of committing suicide. She lay unconscious for several hours, where she fell, finally being discovered by the crew of a passing freight. Miss Lapham is now in the hospital here badly but not fatally bruised.
