What Yo Gwine to Tell de Lawd? When de trumpet am a tootid' an' de stabs am a shootin' an' de owls dey am a hootin' in de trees. When de eart it am a quakin' an' de dead dey am awakid' an' de de people am a shakin' in de looses. When yo hear de rollin' thundeh an' de rocks am ront standeh an' de hosts am in deir wondeh standin' awed. An' yo' fin' yo'self a tremblin' while de nations am assemblin'. O' sinnah, what yo' gwine to tell de Lawd? When de planets got a knockin' at each other an' a rockin' an' de tempests seem a mockin' in at yo' woe. When de darkies am a fallin' an' de buzza'ds am a squallin' an' de angels am a callin' yo' to go. When de sun hab quit its shinin' and de brack am a whinin' an' de mou'neths lay reppin' on de sod. An' yo' asked to tell de story, what yo' doin' up in glory, O' sinnah, what yo' gwine to tell de Lawd? When yo' see de righteous swingin' up de road an' all a singin' 'twell de eart'll be a ringin' 'twell de pain. When de fold'er wings an' 'rally in de golden riveh valley singin' hallelujah-haily to de Lam'. When de hills dey am a crashtin' an' de sulphur fl'a's a flashin' an' yo' feel de cuttin' lashin' ob de rod. When de sheep am belin' chosen from de goats, what yo' supposin', wicked sinnah, what yo' gwine to tell de Lawd? Oh, befo' de vial's broken an' de wrathful fery token with its awful flames is ehokin' up de sky. 'Fo' de dragons git a barkin' an' de eart begins to dardeh, askde Masteh for to hearken to yo' cry. Stop yo' sinnin' an' transgressin', hiasen to de wahnin' lesson, git yo' wicked knees to pressin' on de sod. When yo' see at de bar an' Satan am a eyeln' yo' an' watchin', tremblin' sinnah, what yo' gwine to tell de Lawd? —Denver Post.

Olny. The new addition to the saw mill of C. M. Randall of this place of a ninety horse power boiler purchased by him of the Citizens Light and Power Co. of Kokomo, Ind., is a splendid one of its class, being a stationary boiler with sixty-five three inch flues and ample heating capacity. We see no reason why Mr. Randall should not have lots of push for his saw and feed mills; something that he has heretofore lacked. Work upon the foundation is progressing rapidly and another day or two of as fine weather as we have had will place it in running order. Come on boys with your logs and feed—J. Maurer lost a valuable horse Tuesday, worth some-where between $175 and $200, he has our sympathy as not counting the value of the beast it was an especial favorite of Mr. Maurer's and has, we believe, taken one or two ribbons at the fair—N. Lamb has now furnished his feed mill with a roller process machine, consequently he now greets his patrons with a very broad smile—Mr. Mole's auction sale, was very well attended by surrounding farmers who were also anxious buyers, as most everything was sold. We believe one horse however was bid in at $125. Varily the bicycle, trolley car and automobile don't cut so much of a figure as some imagine with the sale of good horses—R. Vanderhoof, of Saginaw, made short calls with acquaintances here yesterday—The beet sugar growers of this vicinity who have not already delivered their crop are becoming quite anxious as to the outcome of their beets. Several report beets rotting badly owing no doubt to the very open weather we have had this and last month, causing them to heat, etc.—While at a dance at Le Roy Allen's last Thursday evening the house of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Goodrich's was broken into by vandals, we have not learned whether any property was taken or not, but a cask of cider was emptied about, damaging furniture, etc. Better look out boys the law is very strict with such offenders—Wash Hanes and Geo. Streeter "(ye hunters from Olny) have so far got one bear. Bring him home this time boys, don't forget it.

An Important Difference. To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleaning, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a positive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all druggists.

16 Buggies TO CLOSE OUT IMMEDIATELY. CALL ON A. T. PHILLIPS, 218 West Exchange street, OWOSSO, MICHIGAN.

HOLMAN HAS FAILED! Such were the remarks on Monday morning of this week when my store was closed for a few hours to take inventory, but they were mistaken. Never have I had a more prosperous year, and am now commencing my ninth anniversary with a larger and finer line of goods. By Dec. 1st I will have all kinds of bargain, in WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVERWARE AND CLOCKS.

Bigger bargains were never before found in Owosso in my line. An inspection will convince you that these are facts.

F. B. HOLMAN, Optician and Jeweler. OWOSSO, MICH.
