On New Year's Eve.

"The festive scene is at its height within. The myriad lights their radiance shed around. And tripping feet and blithe and happy hearts 'Are keeping time to music's sweetest sound. 'Darkness without holds his unending sway. Save where the twinkling stars shine out above. On child of poverty as on child of wealth. Upon the outcast too, with eyes of love.

"Little think they within the portals grand Of her who stands without the stately gate; Little they dream what weary weight of woe One title of all their riches could abate.

"Poor wanderer, crouching at the rich man's door. Watching with longing eyes the scene of mirth. Thy worn and pallid face a story tells. Sorrow has been thy dreary lot on earth.

"From early morn till midnight hour slugs out The same old tale of poverty and grief. Pierce hunger gnawing at the aching heart. She oft has prayed grim death to send relief.

"O, ye within the pale of wealth and power, Forget not those who cower at your gate: Mayhap the wretch who humbly begs his bread, In days long since gone by, was, like thee, great.

"Think, stately belle, before whose away all bow, Mayhap the wretched woman gazing there Was once the worshipped of a lofty home. Of fairest forms was once most fair.

"None knoweth what thy future lot may be: Perhaps the beggar crouching at thy door May give to thee the longest for crust of bread. The balm of hope into thy heart may pour.

"And ye within your stately dwellings here, Forget not those who stand without the pale; And you with all the joys of home and friends, Remember those without the pleasant vale.

"For one above looks kindly down on all. On rich and poor alike, where'er they be; And He who bids us give to those who ask Will make thy giving doubly blest to thee."

A New Year.

Why do we greet thee, O blithe New Year? What are thy pledges of mirth and cheer? The New Year beckons, and makes reply,— "I bring you friends, what the years have brought. Since ever man toiled, aspired or thought; Days for labor, and nights for rest; And I bring you, Love, a heaven-born guest; Space to work in, and work to do, And faith in that which is pure and true. Hold me in honor and greet me dear, And sooth you'll find me a Happy Year."

—Margaret E. Sangster.

Half the ill that man is heir to come from indigestion. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens and tones the stomach; makes indigestion impossible.

"When the gray haired father sees round his board The old, broken links of affection restored; When the care wearied man seeks his mother once more And the worn matron smiles where the girl smiled before; What moistens the lip and what brightens the eye, What calls back the past, like the rich pumpkin pie?"

Children cannot be properly taught by one who does not love to work.

Grain-O! Grain-O!

Remember that name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain; it is digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 1/4 as much as coffee. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

General Items.

From the Shiawassee School Journal:

The schoolroom in Vernon No. 4 has been newly papered.

The schoolhouse in New Haven No. 4 has been newly painted.

New Haven No. 6 Fr. has a new library case and fifteen new library books.

Vernon No. 4 has a new library book case and new map of the United States.

The schoolrooms at Shaftsbury look very neat and homelike, clothed in new wall paper.

A new coat of paint adds much to the outward appearance of the school building in Owosso No. 3.

The schoolroom in New Haven No. 4 has been provided with 69 sq. ft. of new slate black board.

Teacher and pupils in New Haven No. 8 have earned $3 for the school library, by cleaning the school house.

New paint inside and outside improves the appearance of the school house in Rush No. 7 very much.

The Shaftsbury school has a new flag pole, and the raising was accompanied by appropriate exercises by the school.

The new stove and Perry Pictures make a wonderful change in the appearance of the school room in Caledonia No. 1 Fr.

The following improvements have been made in Fairfield No. 6: new window shades, stove, dictionary holder, wall paper, and well.

The following schools held Christmas exercises Friday afternoon or evening, Dec. 22: Shiawassee No. 8, Owosso No. 4, Sciota No. 3, Venice No. 2.

On Wednesday evening, November 29, the teacher and pupils of Venice No. 7 raised $13 for the school library by means of a social. The pupils are now enjoying the books.

Teacher and pupils of Shiawassee No. 5 are very proud of their new International Dictionary and Bartlett holder, and very grateful to the district board for providing this necessary aid to good school work.

The condition of the schoolhouse and the equipment of the schoolroom in New Haven No. 8 is the happy and profitable condition resulting from the prudent management of a school director who gives the same amount and kind of attention to his school as he does to his other business.

Three Shiawassee county teachers have "bran" new names, as follows: Bertha Slocum, Mrs. Ira Kaltrider, Ida Haskin, Mrs. S. D. Campbell; Anna Polhemus, Mrs. J. H. Beardslee. Here is the JOURNAL's most sincere good wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

Father—Look here, Tommy, what do you think of the new baby the doctor has just brought?

Tommy—Why, he's got no hair! Oh, and he's got no teeth! You've been took in, father—he's brought you an old 'un.

Working Night and Day.

It Sounded Peculiarly.

Helen Hunt, a Chicago girl, found a purse in church and notified the pastor that she had it, so if anyone reported the loss it could be returned. The next Sunday the clergyman made the following announcement from the pulpit: "Someone lost a purse here last Sunday evening, and if the owner wants the property he can go to Helen Hunt for it.—Detroit Journal.

There is a Class of People

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been prepared in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1/4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 15 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

By EXTERNAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials to F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, price 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The Farm Bent the Mortgage.

The following story illustrates the resources of a Nebraska farmer: A farmer got discouraged because he didn't get rich the first year and, as there was a mortgage of $700 on his farm, was about ready to jump the whole business, but determined to make one more effort and sowed 80 acres in wheat. It happened to be a poor year for wheat and the stand was not very good. Concluding that it wasn't worth harvesting he pulled up his stakes and moseyed back to Missouri, leaving the farm to fight the mortgage all by itself. The farm was equal to the occasion.

The wheat ripened, fell down and deposited the seed in the soil again. Next spring the wheat began to grow lustily. Some of the neighbors were honest enough to write about it down to the fugitive in Missouri, and he got interested enough to come back and take a look. Then he stopped and harvested his voluntary crop. He sold it for enough to pay off the mortgage and the rest of his debts and had a tidy little surplus over, with which he moved his family back and now declares there is no state like Nebraska.—Lincoln (Nebr.) Journal.

The Inquisitive Tongue.

The curiosity of the tongue does not cause the human being so much trouble as the curiosity of the eye. But the tongue, within its limits, is the most curious of all.

Let the dentist make a change in the mouth, let him remove a tooth or replace with his admirable artifice one that has long been absent, let him change the form of a tooth by rounding off a corner or building up a cavity and see what the tongue will do. It will search out that place, taking careful and minute account of the change. Then it will linger near the place. If it is called to other duties, it comes back as soon as they are discharged and feels the changed place all over again, as if it had not explored and rummaged there already.

It makes no difference that these repeated investigations presently cause annoyance to its supposed master, the man. The tongue in nothing more than in this matter proves that it is an unruly member and will not be controlled.

It seems to have an original will and consciousness of its own, and nothing will serve it except the fullest satisfaction of its curiosity. It will wear itself out, perhaps, but it will find out all about the strange change.—Boston Transcript.

The Moon's Atmosphere.

The recent conclusions of the French scientists, MM. Loewy and Puitsen, as to the possible presence of some gaseous envelope on the moon's surface are of very general interest. After giving reasons for concluding that the formidable volcanic eruptions of which the moon has been the theater belong to a recent time in the history of our satellite, they point out that these eruptions must have set at liberty great quantities of gas or vapors, while the diffusion of cinders on the lunar surface to great distances infers a gaseous envelope of a certain density.

Has the time, they ask, which has elapsed since the great eruptions sufficed to bring about the total disappearance of this gaseous envelope? Considering that the already solidified lunar surface could only have absorbed the gases slowly and with difficulty, they conclude that from their examination of the lunar surface there are serious grounds for believing that there exists at the present time a residue of atmosphere of which the detection, surrounded as it is with great difficulties, may yet be realized.

County Treasurer's Office, Shiawassee County, December 15th, 1899.

TO THE AUDITOR GENERAL:

The following is a full and complete Report of Taxes collected or received by me, at my office, upon the Business of Selling or Keeping for Sale, or Manufacturing Distilled or Brewed or Malt Liquors R. F. KAY, County Treasurer.

Booms For Him Too.

A bland and patronizing New Yorker was passing through a raw and new hamlet in the west, which its proud founders had dubbed B— City and were sure would soon become a thriving hive of human beings. Addressing a lank and lazy youth who was lounging at the door of one of the rude shanties that passed for a "shoe emporium," the New Yorker inquired sarcastically:

"Who is that important looking gentleman with the red flannel shirt?"

"That's Sam Peters," was the proud reply. "He's just opened the new post-office."

"And the tall person with no collar?"

"He's Long Mike. Just opened a grocery store."

"And the plump individual with the bald head?"

"Handy Jim. Owns the new saloon."

"Indeed?" said the New Yorker. "Your city seems to be pretty well started. I should suppose there was nothing left for a stranger like myself to open."

"Oh, I dunno!" drawled the lanky one. "We ain't got no loonatic asylum yet. You might start that."—New York Tribune.

A Cheerful Experience.

"I had a cheerful experience the other day," remarked a man who had spent several days at one of the springs for rheumatism.

"What was it?" asked the observer.

"I was carried into a depot near the springs and deposited on a seat near an old woman, who looked at me with a complacent smile and inquired, 'Been hurt?'"

"No," I replied.

"Rumatis?"

"Yes."

"Water do you any good?"

"Not much."

"Well, lots of people come here for the water. The patient returns home, and the papers announce that Mr. So-and-so has returned from the springs much improved by the use of the water; but if you read the papers in a few days you will see that Mr. So-and-so has died and been buried." The conversation was too cheerful to be continued.—Columbus Dispatch.

A Burning Prayer.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer tells this story of the Virginia backwoods: A white minister after conducting services at a colored church asked an old deacon to lead in prayer. The dusky brother in his fervent appeal asked that a shower of heavenly grace be permitted to fall upon his white friend. He said:

"O Lor, give him de eye of de eagle dat he may soy out our sins afar off! Weld his han's to de gospel plow; tie his tongue to de lines of truf and nail his ear to de gospel pole! An O Lor, bow his haid way down—'en behin' his knees, an his knees way down—ah in some lonesome dark an narrow valley, O Lor, whar much prayer is needed to be made—ah! Den 'point him oval wid de blessed life of de kerosene of salvation, an sot him on fiah wid de match of faith made perfect—amen!"

Saginaw, Mich., Jan. 30, 1899.

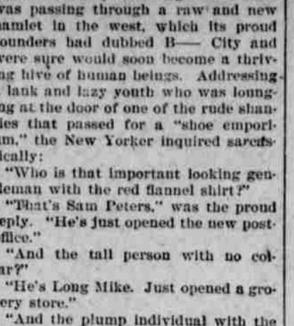

Meers, D. E. Hall & Co., Saginaw, Mich.

Gentlemen: I have known and used Hinkley's Bone Liniment for many years. It is a very valuable family medicine, and I am never without a bottle of it in the house. Internally or externally used, it is the most effective remedy of its kind. It is, as you call it, "a family medicine chest."

D. G. HOLLAND, Saginaw, Mich., Salt Ass'n.

It is purely vegetable; scientifically prepared. Used internally and externally. All druggists sell it in three sizes, at 25c., 50c. and $1.

"Obstinate"

Becky Jones,

of Ballston Spa, N. Y., received the above title because she would not testify in the celebrated Hinkley case until several years ago, and consequently was confined in the Ludlow street jail by the state judge. She says in a letter recently received:

"When I was released from prison my health was broken down. My nervous system could not recover from the strain. For ten years life was a burden. Good physicians did me no good. I used Dr. Miles' Nervine and Tonic and today I am entirely well."
