place, will give a program in the M. P. church at Carland. The young ladies will furnish the program—Miss Sarah McWilliams is spending the week in Owosso attending the State Sunday School Convention.

S. S. Convention Notes.
High water mark in the number of delegates was reached last night, when 525 had registered at the Congregational church and the number of strangers in the city, all told numbered something like 800. There were some new comers on the evening trains, but the number going more than counterbalanced the number arriving.

At 9:30 this morning a question box was conducted by Alfred Day and Mrs.
Bryner, the audience taking a lively interest in the same and getting some good material out of the session.

A feature of this morning's session was the presentation to the audience of the youngest delegate, Master Preston Bradley, of Linden, who told the audience in a few words of the work he hoped to do for the Sunday school cause.

The report of the normal superintendent was given Wednesday afternoon, the most interesting feature being the graduation of a class of eight from that department, four of whom were present to receive their certificates of graduation. A class of one hundred is enrolled for the coming year.

A NOVEMBER WEDDING.

Miss Florence Buckingham and Stanley E. Parkill.

From the Flint Evening Journal.
The marriage of Miss Florence Buckingham, daughter of Major George W.
Buckingham, and Mr. Stanley E. Park-ill, of Owosso, took place Wednesday at 5 o'clock p. m. at the home of Mr. Buckingham, 204 Court street east. It was a charming but quiet wedding with every arrangement in the most exquisite taste.

The decorations throughout the house were highly effective. The parlor was decked with pink carnations and palms, the supper room with American Beauty roses and maidenhair ferns and the sitting room where the ceremony took place presented a beautiful picture with its handsome decorations of palms, the glossy foliage of the holly and quantities of great white and gold chrysanthemums. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Gale Inglis, the regular Episcopal service being used, and was witnessed by a company of the immediate friends and relatives of the families.

Before and during the ceremony Mrs.
Lindgren, of Chicago, played a wedding march. The bridal couple were unattended save by Master Harrington Shortall, of Chicago, and little Miss Elizabeth Platt, of this city. The bride was most becomingly dressed in white French lawn, made over white silk and daintily trimmed with lace and insertion over which a tulle veil was gracefully draped. Her bouquet was of magnificent American Beauties. After Mr. and Mrs. Parkill had received the congratulations of their friends the company sat down to an elaborate wedding supper.

The bridal couple received a host of beautiful wedding gifts which included silver, china, cut glass, fine linen, etc.
Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. Shortall and son, Harrington, and Mrs. Lindgren, of Chicago; Mrs. J.
W. Gilbert, Miss Martha Cole, Justice and Mrs. Charles D. Long and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McBride, of Detroit; Mrs.
Parkill, of Owosso, and Mr. and Mrs.
Arthur Bird, of Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Parkill took the 7:05 p. m. train for some unannounced destination followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

THE TIMES adds its heartiest congratulations to Mr. Parkill and extends its best wishes to him and his estimable bride. Both are well known in Owosso.
Mr. Parkill has long been regarded as one of the most public spirited and best of Owosso's business men and is a man of exceptional ability. Besides being a member of the drug firm of Park-ill & Son, he is secretary and treasurer of the Owosso Telephone Company, and is President of the Board of Public Works. He has always taken a prominent part in politics and is also prominent in the social life of the city. He has friends on every hand. Mrs. Park-ill is also well known in this city where she had visited at various times and every time added to the circle of her friends. She has already impressed all who have met her with her charming, ladylike character and her coming to the city is regarded with the greatest of pleasure by all friends of both herself and her husband and by all who may have met her even for but a moment.
THE TIMES is sincerely pleased to be able to assist in welcoming Mrs. Park-ill to her new home in this city and in helping to extend the best wishes of the city to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Parkill.

inaw yesterday.

Mrs. W. H. Tripp returned Monday from a visit in St. Johns.

Geo. Royce, of Belle Oak, has enrolled in the Owosso Business College.

The county teachers association will hold a meeting in Corunna to-morrow.

Mrs. Clara Smith returned to Flint yesterday after a visit in this city with friends.

Miss Bessie Johnson has returned from a two weeks visit with friends in Jackson.

L. Topping has moved his family to Detroit where he has purchased a cigar store.

Lewis Weeks is assisting in Parkill & Son's drug store during S. E. Parkill's absence.

The No Name Club gave another of their parties at Wesener's hall Wednesday evening.

Fred Carpenter spent yesterday in Cotahah visiting friends before leaving for the north.

Eugene May, of THE TIMES force, has been confined to the house by sickness during the week.

The trains from the north each day have a plentiful supply of deer aboard which sportsmen are sending home.

Henry Covert and Miss Bell Lancaster, both of Laingsburg, were united in marriage Wednesday by Justice McCaugha.

Architect F. W. Hollister, of Saginaw, was in the city Wednesday and Thursday, looking after the new school building.

A. D. Thompson was re-elected register of deeds of Livingston county by a large majority. He was a former resident of Burns township.

Mrs. Frank Dean, operated on several days ago by Dr. Mahoney at the sanitarium, is greatly improved and will soon be able to return home.

Sheriff-elect D. J. Gerow has announced that he will appoint Willard M. Case, of this city, as under-sheriff. The selection seems to give general satisfaction.

City Treasurer Wiley reports that but a comparatively small amount is left on the summer tax roll for collection. The winter tax will be $1.30 per hundred dollars.

B. E. Pratt, of Holland, called on friends in this city Tuesday. Mr. Pratt was formerly a resident of Owosso, but now conducts a branch of the Racket store at Holland.

The census department announced the population of Michigan yesterday by counties. Shiawassee, according to the new count, has a population of 33,000, a gain of 2,914 since the census of 1894. Owosso's population is 8,096, an increase of 2,132 compared with the census of 1890. Compared with the census of 1894, the county has gained 1,012 and the city 424. Durand has a population of 2,034. The population of Corunna was not stated in the first dispatches from Washington, but THE TIMES learns that it is 1,510, a loss of 41 since 1894.

The very efficient work in music which Miss Lulu Kanagy, of Owosso, is doing, is receiving the approbation of the school officers. Miss Kanagy has made weekly visits to St. Johns for only six weeks, and already the school work in music is acquiring a different tone. The weekly music drill seems to fill the pupils of the grades with new enthusiasm and life. The teachers' meeting, which is held after school, instructs the teachers in the subject matter of music and the correct method of presenting it to their pupils.—St. Johns News.

TOO LATE.

There are three persons in this county who will soon be totally blind as a result of postponing glasses. The only trouble on the start was nearsight.
Acting upon the mistaken impression that glasses should never be worn as long as they could be dispensed with they let the defect go on increasing until it took on a malignant type.
It is only a question of a few months before the vision will be entirely lost.
While every nearsighted person will not come to this condition, still every one of them ought to wear glasses constantly. If you do not know your condition come in and I will tell you
