

BUY YOUR

DRUGS OF Sprague & Co.,

107 N. Washington Street, Owosso.

DR. W. C. WALKER

DETROIT'S NOTED SPECIALIST

Whose remarkable success in the treatment of so-called incurable diseases has caused such wide-spread comment, will make the following regular monthly visits:

OWOSSO—National Hotel, FRIDAY, JULY 3d.
OFFICE HOURS, 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.

ITHACA—Imperial Hotel, THURSDAY, JULY 2

Consultation Free to all on day of visit.

Facts for Sick People.

Dr. Walker has made regular visits to Owosso for a number of years and the many cures of long standing and difficult cases performed by the Doctor in this vicinity, are well known to the readers of Owosso papers, and the fact that the Doctor's practice here at the present time is even larger than ever before should be sufficient proof to satisfy any one as to his skill and success in the class of diseases which he treats.

Consult Dr. Walker

and get a Thorough Examination Free of Charge. If he is unable to help you he will tell you so and it will cost you nothing.

Diseases successfully treated by Dr. Walker are as follows:

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Catarrh of the Nose, Throat, Stomach and Bowels, Bronchitis, Asthma, Dropsy, Diseases of the Heart, Lungs, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, Blood Poison and Skin Diseases, Constipation, Chronic Ulcers and Fever Sores, Tumors, Nervous Diseases, Epilepsy, Diseases peculiar to men and women, and all chronic diseases treated by the best methods known to medical science.

I will give special attention to difficult cases and to cases other physicians have failed to cure. Bank references. Persons applying for treatment will please bring from two to four ounces of urine, first passed in the morning preferred, for analysis. Question blanks containing the questions sent on application. Enclose stamp for reply. Those unable to see the doctor can address,

W. C. WALKER, M. D.
615 Second Ave. Detroit, Mich

Commissioners' Notice.

In the matter of the estate of Charles A. Baldwin, deceased. We, the undersigned, having been appointed by the Hon. Matthew Bush, Judge of Probate in and for the county of Shiawassee, State of Michigan, commissioners to receive, examine, and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against said estate, do hereby give notice, that we will meet at the office of George W. Loring, in the city of Owosso, in said county, on Monday, the 25th day of August, A. D. 1903, and on the 25th day of November, A. D. 1903, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days, for the purpose of receiving and adjusting all claims against said estate, and that six months from the 25th day of May, A. D. 1903, are allowed to adjust all claims against said estate, and that six months from the 25th day of May, A. D. 1903, are allowed to adjust all claims against said estate, and that six months from the 25th day of May, A. D. 1903, are allowed to adjust all claims against said estate.

Commissioners' Notice.

In the matter of the estate of Olive Austin, deceased. We, the undersigned, having been appointed by the Hon. Matthew Bush, Judge of Probate in and for the county of Shiawassee, State of Michigan, commissioners to receive, examine, and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against said estate, do hereby give notice, that we will meet at the office of Albert L. Chandler, in Corunna, in said county, on Monday, the 15th day of September, A. D. 1903, and on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1903, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days, for the purpose of receiving and adjusting all claims against said estate, and that six months from the 15th day of June, A. D. 1903, are allowed to adjust all claims against said estate, and that six months from the 15th day of June, A. D. 1903, are allowed to adjust all claims against said estate.

THE OWOSSO TIMES

Entered at the Postoffice in Owosso for transmission as second-class matter. Published every Friday noon.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 YEAR

OWOSSO, FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1903.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Perry Dunbar is sick. A. M. Bentley is in the east. Mrs. I. Warren, Water street, is in Marshall for a visit.

Willis Titus has gone to Bay City to work in a barber shop. Orrin B. Hibbard, of Durand, now receives $30 per month pension. George M. Edwards, the architect, has an office over Fraser Bros. store.

The Robbins Table Company is having a new boiler put in by J. H. Brandel. Mrs. Kate Ross, of D. M. Christian's store, is taking a three weeks' vacation.

A stock scales and weigh house have been erected at the Grand Trunk stock yards. Miss Carrie Swarthout, of D. M. Christian's store, is at Okemos, for her vacation.

Henry Auiler, of Gladwin, is visiting his brother, Adam Auiler, in Owosso township. Benjamin Angell is home from the M. A. C., and will work this summer at F. J. Storror's.

John S. Schleider, of Sunnyside, is entertaining the Misses Zeigenbus, of Bethlehem, Pa. Mrs. S. P. Anderson, 623 East Mason street, has gone to Locke for a long visit with her sister.

C. A. Connor has put a new brand of ice cream on the market. It is known as marshmallow frost. Miss Ruby Rouse is home from Dunkirk, N. Y., where she has been working in a millinery store.

Whitney & Day have erected a large frame over their gallery upon which to throw stereopticon views. Lee R. Clarke is preparing a list of births in the city during the past year for Assessor R. P. Bigelow.

City Clerk Edwards was elected first vice president of the State Firemen's Association at Alma last week. Howard R. Daniels, who returned recently from Billings, Mont., has gone to Mackinaw Island for the summer.

The American Screen Door Company, of Adrian, has offered A. E. Ferry a fine position which he may accept. Martin Noonan, Gilbert street, had his right hand badly cut on a saw at Estey Factory A, Monday morning.

William Bruff, of Glenwood avenue, fell while about his work at the Ann Arbor shops, Monday, and broke a rib. George M. Edwards has drawn the plans for a new Colonial residence on West Oliver street for S. T. Van Dusen.

Calvin Tompkins, barn man for the Union Transfer Company, is serving ten days in the county jail for drunkenness. Company H has received $300 from the state. This sum is paid semi-annually for Armory rental and incidental expenses.

Miss Nellie Bancroft, of Detroit, a sister of Miss Sarah Bancroft, and well known in this city, has sailed for Genoa, for the summer. Miss Edna Parker is working in E. F. Dudley's office. Miss Jessie Snyder, another Owosso Business College pupil, is working at Marshall.

The members of Wilson Tent, Knights of the Modern Maccabees, attended special services at Christ Episcopal church, Sunday morning. Miss Susanna Clapp, of Owosso, teacher in the Morrice schools, received a fine amethyst ring from the eighth grade pupils last week.

The Knights of Pythias, escorted by the Uniform Rank and the O. L. I. Band, observed Pythian Memorial Day, Sunday, and had a large turnout. The last deposit of the school year was made Friday at the Citizens' Savings Bank, when the students placed the sum of $36.82 to their credit.

Miss Alice Carmody, of Rush, and Mr. William Breugh, of Bennington, will be married at St. Paul's Catholic church the latter part of this month. Adrain Tibbetts convicted in the justice court at Durand of assault and battery upon Fred C. Dunham, and fined $21.00, has appealed to the circuit court.

The sudden swerving of his dray, Saturday night, pitched James Opydyke to the pavement on his head. The accident happened at the corner of Main and Washington streets.

Clive Richardson is home from St. Louis, Mo.

Leon Miner is clerking for E. L. Devereaux.

Mrs. R. N. Parshall is back from a trip to Germany.

W. T. Stapleford is home from an extended trip west.

Miss Fannie Card, of Christian's store, spent her vacation at Bancroft.

Mr. Frank E. Evans and Miss Florence Powers will be married next Sunday.

H. P. Wallover and family will spend the summer in the northern part of the state.

Frank Collamer pitched at Durand against Montrose, Friday, and won by a score of 10 to 12.

Victor Welts has again joined Barlow Bros.' minstrel show after a visit with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marvin have returned home to Lenox, after spending their vacation here.

The Brewer store is being remodeled and will become part of M. L. Stewart & Co's. banking house.

Miss Daisy Cushing was in Fenton last week and acted as bridesmaid at the wedding of a friend.

Edward McDonald, an Owosso to wnship farmer, paid Justice Walsh a fine last week for drunkenness.

At the First Baptist church Sunday morning Miss Lyon's solo was, Jesus Only, by Augusto Rotoll.

The O. L. I. Band is raising money for a new $50 band-wagon, from which they will give concerts on the streets.

C. C. Carpenter, of Detroit, has purchased George Cook's blacksmith shop and also his residence at 714 Ada street.

Pearl Jones, teacher in the Benton Harbor schools, is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, West Main street.

Felix Teal, of Owosso, has been re-engaged at an increase of salary as superintendent for the Corunna Furniture Company.

In the case of David Sawyer, of Bennington, vs. the M. C. R. R., John T. McCurdy has entered his appearance for defendant.

Judge S. F. Smith was in Howell this week. On Wednesday at Ann Arbor he attended the thirtieth anniversary reunion of his class.

The street car company, it is expected, will authorize the city to put concrete beneath the tracks, and the paving middle will be satisfactorily settled.

Miss Mary E. Lyon, of this city, has been tendered the position of instructor of music in Corunna city schools. She will attend to similar duties at Owosso and Ovid.

Sidney McCreedy received $67.47 from the treasury department, this week, the sum having been due him since 1865 for civil war pay and clothing allowance.

A Missouri red granite monument will be erected over the grave of Frederick Marker, the boy recently killed by Francis Teal. Henry Marker ordered the stone of W. L. Parker.

The Dorcas Home was presented with a large flag on Monday—Flag Day—by the members of Quackenbush Post and Relief Corps. O. F. Webster made the presentation speech.

Mr. Fred Olmstead, of Port Huron, formerly in the employ of the Owosso City Mills, was married Sunday to Miss Anna Van Dusen at the home of the bride in this city. They will live at Port Huron.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Dewey were in Detroit on Monday. Mr. Dewey took to the district attorney what is to be hoped may be the final papers for the transfer of the site for the new post office building.

Miss Jane Sharp, of Linden, who became insane recently at Durand, on her way home from Spring Arbor Seminary to Linden, has been confined in an asylum. She frequently visited Mrs. M. De Voist in this city.

G. E. Van Camp and family who have moved to Cleveland, were tendered a reception at the home of Rev. J. A. Rowe, before their departure Friday evening. Mrs. Van Camp received some fine table linen as a present.

Miss Margaret Teachout, of Ionia, a teacher of experience has been engaged for one of the eighth grades in the city schools for next year. This completes the corps with the exception of a teacher for the commercial department.

Fred W. Green, of Ypsilanti, Inspector-General of the Michigan National Guard, will inspect Company H at the Armory this evening. The public is invited. The company drilled Tuesday and Thursday evenings in preparation.

John Lehner, Michigan Central car repairer, narrowly escaped being run down by the Grand Trunk flyer at Owosso Junction, Monday. He was on a railway velocipede, and the Junction hid the rapidly approaching train from view.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Strong on Friday celebrated the 48th anniversary of their marriage, their ten children being here for the occasion from various parts of the state. Mr. Strong is 72 years of age, his wife 68. They have lived in Michigan 40 years, during which time he has had charge of many Methodist churches.

Paul Thiede, of Ann Arbor, is a guest at his old home here.

Miss Evelyn Newcomb, of Washington D. C., is a guest of her grandfather, Hon. Josiah Turner.

James Hopkins, of New Haven, has been granted an increase in pension from $12 to $14 per month.

D. R. Salisbury is building an addition to his leggin and mitten factory which will double it in capacity.

Misses Ruby and Celia Maxson entertained the Berean class of the M. E. Sunday school Friday evening at their home on Oak street.

Emory Fuller, of this city, has been granted a patent on a cooling board attachment which keeps the arms of a corpse in any desired position.

The building committee of the board of supervisors and Sheriff Gerow were in Jackson yesterday on business connected with the new county building.

Claude Kelly, son of Jasper Kelly, of this city, is on the road for the Ethel Tucker Stock Company. He was at the new theatre Council Bluffs, Iowa, last week and made a decided hit with his impersonation of a wax figure.

William J. Atkins, 20 years old of 323 South Chipman street, lost his left arm near the shoulder, sustained a fractured knee-cap and was otherwise injured by attempting to board an Ann Arbor freight on the Washington street crossing, Friday evening.

The Bennington Creamery Company has retained Charles M. Hamper as attorney, and will file a cross bill to Manager J. W. Hibbard's petition for a receiver. They want Walter Harryman, of Bennington, as receiver, and wish the creamery kept in operation.

Mrs. John J. Bowers died at her home, 307 Genesee street, Friday on the anniversary of her 56th birthday. She leaves a husband and two daughters, Mrs. Mand LaClear, of Owosso, and Mrs. Daisy Menge, of L'Anse, Rev. Hanks officiated at the funeral Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Worden, of Los Angeles, Cal., were guests this week of Mrs. Emma Moore. Mrs. Worden formerly lived here. Her husband is commissioner of streets at Los Angeles, and has been sent east for a visit to all of the principal cities to obtain pointers as to the best way of cleaning the streets.

Harry Lee and Abram Rose, spectacle vendors, who claim Chicago as their home, were arrested at St. Johns, this week for obtaining money under false pretenses. They claimed to be partners of Dr. D. H. Lamb, and sold worthless glasses at exorbitant prices. They paid the costs of the suit, reimbursed Dr. Lamb for the damage done his business, and got out of town.

Corunna Commandery, No. 21, Knights Templar, was chartered April 7, 1868, and officered for the first time on June 18 of the same year,—thirty-five years ago yesterday. There were twenty Sir Knights in the Commandery, and of these all but two are dead.—Hugh McCurdy, of Corunna, who was the first Eminent Commander, and Gen. O. L. L. Spaulding, of Washington, the first Captain-General.

The annual Junior reception to the graduating class occurred last Friday evening at the Central school. The hall leading to the annex on the south was used as the supper room, and small tables were set there for refreshment. Junior colors, yellow and white, and senior colors, blue and white, were used in decorating. Among those who addressed the assemblage were Supt. J. W. Simmons, Dr. B. S. Knapp, president, and H. K. White, secretary of the board, and Rev. R. O. Cooper.

The O. L. I. Band gave a concert, Wednesday evening at the home of Charles Hunt, South Lansing street.

Fred Scheibner has moved from 725 Bradley street to the old Merell House.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. White will arrive home tomorrow from a visit at Beloit, Wis.

Ensign Thomas D. Harris is expected to arrive home today from the Philippines. He is on waiting orders.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Holleran are home from their wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Bay City, and Detroit.

Thomas Bonsor has been busy this spring doing carpenter work in the vicinity of Burton, where he has built houses for J. S. McBride, John Welter, and Levi Markham, and a tool-house for J. Jennings. As soon as his right shoulder, which was bruised by a falling plank, gets better, he will begin work on his own house on East Mason street.

Miss Vera Haskell has gone to Versailles, N. Y., to join a concert troupe with which she will travel this summer.

E. O. Dewey shipped two coops of fine Silver Penciled Wyandotte fowls to a prominent Connecticut breeder today.

Alld. G. W. Detwiler was elected trustee of the Michigan League of Municipalities at the annual meeting held this week in Adrian.

Mrs. Laura Gassman, formerly of Owosso, but now of Clyde, O., was married Wednesday at Fremont to W. H. Jamieson, of Cleveland, a lake sailor.

A team belonging to William Kline, of Bennington, and attached to a lumber wagon, ran away Thursday, going north on Washington street. In attempting to turn east on Main, the horses smashed the wheels of a carriage, and went down the walk. They fell, after breaking the wagon tongue, near Curry's store, and did no further damage.

—OUR—

Semi-Annual Clearing Sale

BEGINS SATURDAY, JUNE 13th,

AND WILL CONTINUE TWO WEEKS

Dress Goods, Silks,

Women's, Misses' and Children's

Suits, Dress Skirts,

Walking Skirts,

Coats and Jackets.

Men's, Boys' and Children's

Suits and Odd Pants.

Carpets, Rugs, Linoleums,

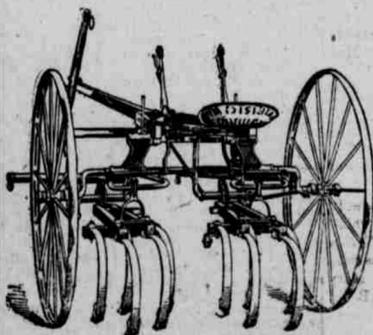

Shades, and Lace Curtains,

ALL AT REDUCED PRICES.

If you need any of these goods it will pay you to see the bargains we are offering in all departments.

OSBURN & SONS

American Cultivators.

The most popular Cultivator manufactured. We sold 83 of these tools to Shiawassee County farmers last year, which shows what the men who use them think of them. The 1903 machine has Arched Axles, which gives an extra high lift to the teeth.

It has extension axles for cultivating beans, no extra parts to hunt up, and it can be changed in five minutes.

We have a car load in stock, and can get more if we want them.

YOU SHOULD OWN ONE OF THEM.

SOLD ONLY BY

HARTSHORN & SON.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. E. W. Brown Cures Grip in Two Days, on every box. 25c.

Seven Million boxes sold in past 12 months.

This signature, E. W. Brown