

Your General Appearance --

Has a lot to do with your success in life. Observe our bank depositors. You will find them uniformly people of intelligence looking after personal appearance as well as their money. The possession of a

Savings Bank Account

Gives a man an independent carriage which he unconsciously assumes and which adds to his appearance and impresses all whom he meets. Such a man is uniformly successful. Have you an account?

Owosso Savings Bank

The Bank That Does Things For You.

THE OWOSSO TIMES

Entered at the Postoffice in Owosso for transmission as second class matter. Published every Friday noon.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 YEAR

OWOSSO, FRIDAY, NOV. 12, 1909

LOCAL NEWS.

H. S. McKeey is hunting deer near Alpena.

S. E. Parkill has sold his automobile to M. L. Izor of Durand.

Fresh caught Trout and Sealight Oysters at Loomis & Osmer's.

Don Bacon of Perry, reports a bean crop of 300 bushels from 10 acres.

Buy Wedding and Christmas gifts at T. O. Christian's Closing Out Sale.

Miss Lucy Shattuck visited friends in Saginaw from Friday until Monday.

David H. Newton has been appointed rural carrier on route two at Laingsburg.

C. M. Miller has sold his four acre farm on N. Mulberry street to Elmer Brott.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Devereaux of Flint, spent Saturday with friends in this city.

Sealight Oysters. Solid meats. No ice or water. C. M. Miller. Both Phones, 43.

Mrs. D. F. Hinckley of Fenton, spent Sunday with her daughter, Miss Myra Hinckley of this city.

High Grade Jap Tea. A winner for the money, 40 cents pound. C. M. Miller. Both Phones, 43.

Carl Knapp, who has been visiting friends in Jackson and Battle Creek, returned home Sunday.

Jay Hinman, who has been visiting his mother at Fenton for several days, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Hamel and son, Charles, are visiting her mother and other relatives at Midland and Gladwin.

Do your Christmas buying early. You get a bigger variety to choose from and have more time to make selections.

Mrs. Fred Marvin of No Shiawassee street, is entertaining Mrs. Frank Marvin and daughter, Miss Charlotte. Their home is in Marquette.

J. W. Hoenshell has the honor of being the first Owosso huntsman to send home a deer. One was received here Saturday morning from him.

Mrs. Phoebe Bearce died in Ovid on the 6th inst. as the result of a stroke of paralysis, aged 61 years. She was a sister of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Luckhurst of Owosso.

Women's Shoes $1.98

Exactly seventy-four pairs of Women's Fine Shoes—$3.50, $3.00 and $2.50 values—not an old pair in the lot, just stray sizes—we offer at $1.98 a pair, for this week. Bargains you can not afford to miss.

Home and Brial

Supt. W. E. Hanson was in Ann Arbor on business, Saturday.

Madelia Spring Wheat Flour 70c sack $5.50 barrel at Loomis & Osmer's.

J. C. Hicks of St. Johns, called on friends in the city Friday morning.

Mrs. F. E. Kohler spent Saturday and Sunday in the city with Mr. Kohler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Washburn are visiting relatives in Macomb county.

The ladies of the Baptist church are holding a rummage sale at 207 North Ball street.

Buy a Christmas gift for $1.00 at T. O. Christian's Going out of Business Sale.

O. L. Sprague has been confined to the house several days with a gathering in his head.

L. T. Hemans gives it as his opinion that Ingham county will vote in favor of local option.

Sterling Coffee. A pleased customer and a pleasant breakfast. C. M. Miller. Both Phones, 43.

Jacob Wolser of Detroit, was in the city Saturday to dispose of his real estate on Cedar street.

The double apartment house being erected on East Oliver street by O. B. Estey is nearing completion.

See Consuelo, the famous Spanish dancer and singer at the Oriental Theatre. Fine moving pictures and music.

Mrs. T. B. Scott was called to London, Ontario, Friday, by the death of her mother, Mrs. F. A. O'Dell on Thursday.

Mrs. Henry Wallace of Perry, who was injured in an automobile accident on the 7th died on the evening of the 10th.

Electric Tube Rose and Old Homestead Flour. 70 cents a sack or $5.60 per bbl. C. M. Miller. Both Phones 43.

The Cheesaning Home Telephone Co. reports a prosperous years business. E. T. Long is president and C. W. Cheeney is secretary.

Mrs. T. W. Walker of Flint, was a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gale the first of the week.

W. E. Collins, president of the State Board of Pharmacy, attended a board meeting in Grand Rapids the first of the week.

Local fishermen who have spent a day on the river between Saginaw and Bay City return home with splendid catches of perch.

Mrs. Bertha Wesener has leased the east side of the C. O. Loring apartment and will move from the beautiful residence she has so long occupied on Michigan avenue.

SOCIAL NEWS.

The Fourteen spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Woodard, John street.

The Predu club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. R. J. Tick at her home on West Oliver street.

Mrs. J. S. Hoyt entertained the Social Afternoon club Saturday afternoon at her home on West Main street.

Mrs. David Hook of N. Water street, entertained a party of friends at a cabbage dinner Wednesday. Every one had a royal good time.

Mrs. Fred Osburn was hostess for the Reighy Day club at her home on East Oliver street, at a pleasant meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Robinson entertained the Neighborhood Twelve at a unique poverty and country dance last Friday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Parker entertained sixty friends last Wednesday at a six-hand euchre party at her home on West Oliver street.

Mrs. W. L. Parker and Mrs. E. F. Joslin entertained about eighty ladies at dinner at the home of the former Friday evening. It was a charming social event.

Mrs. Charlotte Schlaack entertained at four o'clock dinner Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Swan and daughter, Miss Ella, of Lowell, Wis. A four course dinner was served.

Mrs. Bertha Wesener and Miss Alma Krogman delightfully entertained twenty guests, Monday, at their home on Michigan avenue in honor of Mrs. Hugo Wesener, Jr., of Saginaw.

Miss Daisy Sutton entertained the Naaculus club at her home on E. King street Thursday afternoon. Several delightful hours were spent by her guests. During the afternoon light refreshments were served.

Twelve young lady friends of Miss Ethel Henderson were pleasantly entertained at six o'clock dinner last Thursday evening at her home. The after dinner hours were devoted to cards and were most enjoyably spent.

Fred Schiebler of Martin street, was agreeably surprised at his home Monday evening by a large delegation of the Owosso Mannerchoer. The evening was passed in a pleasant social way, the Mannerchoer sang and refreshments were served.

The Tuesday Bridge club and husbands of the members and several friends enjoyed a six o'clock dinner and card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Thomas Tuesday evening, the hostesses being Mrs. A. M. Bentley, Mrs. E. H. Hart, Mrs. J. O. Parker and Mrs. G. M. Dewey.

The Misses Nellie Babcock, Blanche Baldwin, Lulu Ruess and Laura Brandenbury and Messrs Alfred and Joseph Ruess went to Elsie last Friday evening where they attended a party held in honor of Miss Emma Ruess of that village. The evening was given up to progressive pedro and an elaborate luncheon was served.

The Owl club met with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole, 319 Ridge street, Saturday night. There were sixteen present. Pedro was the program for the evening, following which a light repast was served. William Van Sice and George Kinney were the prize winners of the evening.

Twenty-five young friends of Miss Florence Gilles gathered at her home at the corner of River and Cedar streets Thursday evening to assist Miss Gilles in celebrating her birthday. The evening was passed in playing games. Light refreshments were served. It proved to be a delightful occasion for both the hostess and her guests.

IT'S WHAT A MAN SEES IN OUR Hand-Tailored Clothes

THAT LEADS TO THE FIRST SALE

It is what he does not see that makes him a regular customer. Our Suits and Overcoats at $10.00, $12.50, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $22.50 are marvels for the price we ask, in cloth, style, workmanship and design.

When you buy one here we feel sure we have made a regular customer of you. We want to please you regardless of the profit in it for us.

Your Hustling Clothier,

F. J. STORRER

Thanksgiving

There's plenty to be thankful for—stop and think! Take a careful inventory—Count your blessings—forget your troubles and enjoy the festivities.

The inner-man will more fully enjoy the day if the outer-man is happily outfitted in our Thanksgiving Clothes and Haberdashery.

Our preparations for this autumn style day are complete. There are hundreds of elegant new garments, each and every one correct in style, sure in quality, representing the absolutely best of its class. We can meet your every taste and fancy—we can fit your figure—and we'll give you in every instance values not to be duplicated anywhere else in town.

Suits, Overcoats and Raincoats

For Men and Young Men

$8.00 $25.00

If our wearables do not inspire a feeling of gratitude in the breast of the wearer, there's something wrong with him—inside.

For the Boys— Everything is here too. Give us your Boy to clothe, we'll save you money.

HATS--

An interesting showing of the very latest styles in soft and stiff—black and colors—from the best makers and prices from

$1.00 to $3.00

Caps--

An immense line of the newest, nobbiest shapes in plain and fancy colors,

25c to $1.50

Underwear--

Union or two-piece Suits in the best styles and fabrics, per suit,

$1.00 to $4.00

SHIRTS--

The newest things are always shown here first. We want you to see our latest arrivals. It will do you good and us too for you will be unable to withstand the temptation to buy one or more—Plain and pleated bosoms—attached or separate cuffs—coat and regular styles,

50c to $1.00

Our Neckwear

Showing-- Is in a class by itself—the best in town,

25c to 75c

Hosiery--

An immense assortment of plain and fancy patterns per pair

15C to 50C

BULLARD & HAGAN

"Owosso's Best Clothiers"