Accident to Fire Department.

The West Side fire wagon, while making a run to a fire at the home of John Banks, 418 Stewart street, Friday morning was overturned and broken. While the driver was making the turn at the corner of Main and Shiawassee the tongue broke and caused the wagon to overturn, breaking a wheel and causing other damage. No one was injured, although the firemen were thrown forcibly to the frozen ground.

The fire was caused by a spark from the chimney and did little damage.

A lady seeing the accident fainted in front of Harry Smith's grocery. She was taken to the home of William Fiedt across the street and cared for.

The broken fire wagon was brought to the city hall for repairs. The exercising wagon will be put in use until the repairs are completed.
