Supervisor C. E. Godfrey of Bancroft, was called to New York state last week by the death of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Allison and Mrs. Harold Miner and son will leave soon for Florida to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Taggart of Massillon, Ohio, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Taylor this week.

Mrs. C. O. Loring was called to Huron, S. Dakota, Saturday, by the death of her father, E. M. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hall, recently of Port Huron, have arrived in this city to make their home. They are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blood, at present.

Mrs. Frank McCartney and Mrs. G. M. Getman are delegates of the North Owassee Farmers' Club to the annual meeting of the state association of farmers' clubs this week.

Miles Bentley of Bennington, who was ordered committed to the Pontiac hospital, has been given into the custody of two of his children who will attempt to care for him for the present.

Judge Miner heard the divorce case of Lydia against Charles Wendt, Monday, but refused a decree at this term of court, hoping the couple, who are 50 and 56 years of age, would be reconciled.

Chester Pratt, aged 24 years, was sentenced by Judge Miner, Monday, to serve from six months to five years in Ionia reformatory for violating his parole. He had been before the court three times for theft.

Frank Amsdill arrested in Pennsylvania for deserting his wife and two children in Owassee, was placed on probation for two years, gave a bond of $500 to support his family and must pay $80 costs in installments.

The home of John Papenfuss on East Oliver street, was badly damaged by fire, Saturday, the loss being $400, covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown but is believed to have started from rags and other articles in the attic.

Orrin Dickinson and Herbert Alliton of New Haven township, have returned from a visit with relatives in Vermont. Their aunt, Mrs. Marion Dickinson of Whitingham, Vermont, accompanied them home and will remain until after the holidays.

Advertised letters at the Owassee post office for the week ending Dec. 2, 1916: Mrs. B. Bond, Madison Bar, Edwin Celler, Miss Maude Cope, Grover Kirvan, Ray Mulligan, Mr. & Mrs. Chas. Runoff, Mitru Temaska, Miss Leona Taylor, Mrs. Lawrence Wise.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Martin have returned from a visit in Lansing and Grand Ledge. While in the latter place they attended the wedding of Miss Hazel Martin, of Grand Ledge, and Ray Wilcox, of Lansing, Wednesday evening. The bride has been a frequent visitor in this city and is well known here.

Mrs. Helena Rohrabacher, aged 74 years, died at her home in Lainsburg, Tuesday, after a long illness. She had lived in the village over fifty years and was an active and highly respected woman. Two daughters, Mrs. William Hunt of Lainsburg and Mrs. Edith Bender of Chicago, survive.

When two automobiles collided at the corner of Main and Shiawassee street Monday, a fire hydrant was broken off, and one of the autos badly damaged but no person was injured. A wheel dropped off from a machine owned by William Gray of Corunna, at the corner of Main and Washington streets, but no damage was done.

Geo. Diehl, of Hazelton, was granted a divorce Wednesday from Mary Diehl, of Owassee.

G. L. Taylor, cashier of the Citizens' Savings Bank, has been confined to the house for a week by sickness.

A telegram was received Monday stating that Harry Bowers, member of Co H, who is seriously ill with pneumonia, was improved Sunday, but was still very ill. His father, Elmer Bowers, living south of the city, left for El Paso, Sunday, expecting to reach there by Tuesday night.

John E. Corcoran, son of the late well known and much respected Dennis Corcoran, but who has had trouble most of his 52 years on earth, prepared for his fourth venture into married life Monday by securing a license to marry Mrs. Hattie Jones of Hartford, Michigan. They were married at Kalamazoo Wednesday, and will reside at Hartford.

Frank P. Sayres, Bert Ransom and Messrs. Nichols and Love of Flushing, were in the city Wednesday, conferring with the committee of the Improvement Association relative to the possibility of the extension of the electric railroad from Owassee to Flushing and thence to Flint. These gentlemen are exceedingly anxious to put their thriving town in closer connection with the neighboring cities.

Letters received indicate that Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bentley and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Christian are very pleasantly located at Hot Springs, Arizona. They have rented a furnished bungalow for the winter and both the gentlemen are already feeling better than when they left Owassee. Between hunting, horseback riding and later on when Mr. Bentley receives his new automobile it would look as though there would be plenty of opportunity for outdoor life in the splendid climate of the valley in which Hot Springs is located.

The local chapter of the D. A. R. expect to send the Christmas box which they have been arranging for the boys of Company H on Tuesday next. Beside the things which will go from the Daughters of the American Revolution, as the result of the party given last week, many gifts will go from citizens of Owassee and the other towns of the county. Any one who wishes to remember the boys can notify Mrs. A. M. Hume or leave anything they wish to send at this office. The indications are that a Happy Christmas will be provided for the Company members. A substantial boost will also be given the mess fund.
