ARKANSAS MEWSINGS

In looking for trouble it's a good plan not to overestimate your capacity.

To Mrs. Newlywed: Pasteurized milk is from cows that are kept in a pasture.

There is nothing that can take the place of children—unless it is a boiler factory.

There is no record where a girl laced so tight she couldn't eat $3 worth after the show.

Windows and widows are very much alike: When you get near them, you want to look out.

Somebody has figured out that it would cost 20,000 rubles to have a collar washed in Russia, but of course that is only a hypothetical case.

When you meet a man who agrees with you on everything, you are tempted to admit that he is almost as intelligent as yourself.—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

CYNICISMS

Marrying a woman is almost as risky as buying a bond.

Between having too much money and none, there's small choice.

A good home is almost as comfortable as a bad jail.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Nowadays aviators are smashing more airplane records and fewer airplanes.
