

Map Shows Extent of Bovine Tuberculosis

Miss C. Harrigan of the Department of Agriculture completing a new map in colors showing the extent of bovine tuberculosis in the United States. Each color represents the percentage from 1 to 18.

U. S. Building at the Brazilian Exposition

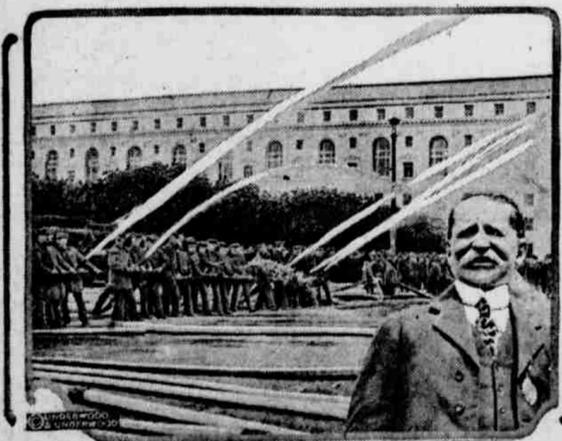

Here is the government building of the United States at the Brazilian Centennial exposition in Rio, which opens September 7. The photograph is made from the sketch by the architect, Frank L. Packard of Columbus, O. After the exposition closes the building will be the United States embassy.

Look Out for the Valise Crook

Vacationists are warned to beware of the valise crook. Here are two pictures which show how the crook works. He comes along with a hollow bag as shown in the upper photograph, slips it over your bag and carries it away as shown in the lower photograph, which pictures the teeth holding your bag.

Paris Chief Sees San Francisco System

Fire engineers from all over the world, attending the international convention in San Francisco, were given a demonstration of that city's high-pressure water system, no engines being used. Inset is Fire Chief Paul Vagninot of Paris, who was an interested observer.

OF GENERAL INTEREST

A cyclone moves at the rate of 585 yards a second.
A bird can generally lift one-half more than its own weight.

No new domestic animals have been developed during the last 2,000 years.
The most powerful electromagnet in the world has a power of 100,000 gausses.

"YOUNG TEDDY" TALKS

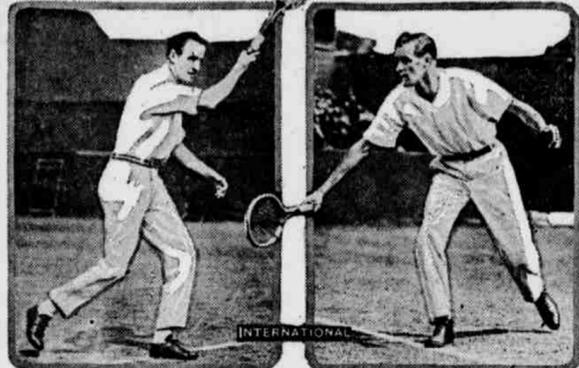

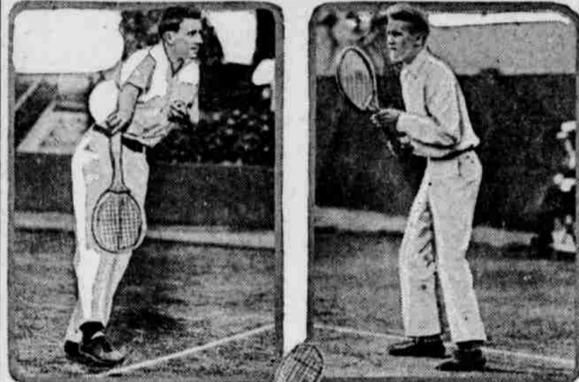

Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt, or "young Teddy," as he is so generally called by ex-President Roosevelt's friends, is evidently taking up his father's policy of being sure about things, for he was here caught on the White House steps telling Secretary Weeks just how the situation stood.

BEST OF THE ARCHERS

Dr. Robert P. Elmer of Wayne, Pa., with the Robin Hood trophy—given by Douglas Fairbanks—which he won at the forty-second annual meeting of the National Archery association at Cooperstown, N. Y. Dr. Elmer also won the National championship, making a score of more than 1,000.

SELECTION OF YOUNG RICHARDS ON DAVIS TEAM CAUSED WONDER

In selecting Vincent Richards as a member of the team to meet the challengers in defense of the Davis cup, the United States Lawn Tennis association caused comments of surprise among followers of the game. It had been expected that the veteran Washburn would be chosen. Dick Williams, upper left, has been appointed captain of the team. Richards is at the upper right. Below, left to right, are the two "Bills," Little Bill Johnston and Big Bill Tilden.

MILLER PICKS BUSHERS

Jack Miller, manager of the Seals, holds a baseball school at the San Francisco ball park every morning the Seals are at home. He takes the bushers and hits to them and teaches the finer points of the game. Miller says if he gets one prospect out of 20 bushers, he is well repaid for his trouble. It means work, but there is a certain amount of enjoyment that goes with work, and Miller must get a kick out of watching the future greats going through their struggles.

HARVARD'S GOOD GOLF TEAM

Clark Hodder, Massachusetts Junior Champion, and Bobby Jones Will Be Eligible.

Harvard should have a strong golf team next year, as Clark Hodder, the Massachusetts junior champion, will be eligible for the 'varsity'; also Bobby Bobby Jones.

Jones of Atlanta, who will attend Harvard to take a bachelor of arts degree.

RARE DOUBLE PLAY IS MADE

George Sisler of St. Louis Browns, Prevents "Squeeze" Started by Washington.

George Sisler of the St. Louis Americans staged a play against Washington recently which is believed to have no counterpart in the annals of major league baseball. At least no similar performance has been dug up by the ancient history fiends. The feat was the pulling of a double play on a squeeze play. The Browns were playing Washington. There were fast men on first and third and a fast left-handed batter up. The squeeze play was staged.

The fast left-handed batter hunted toward first along the ground and speeded for the bag.

Sisler, a speed merchant of renown, dashed in, picked up the bunt, tagged the batter, and shot the ball to Catcher Hank Severend, who tagged the runner coming from third.

Don't all talk at once and say you have seen that play. It is a 100-to-1 shot that you never did see it in all your born days.

Baseball Notes

The Jersey City club has sold Pitcher George Metevier to the Cleveland Indians.

Justin Fitzgerald finally passed out of Coast league ball when Sacramento gave him his release.

Outfielder Jake Miller finally landed back with Wichita Falls after his trip to Pittsburgh and Toronto.

Lean Goslin's mighty hitting was quite a factor in such success as the Washington team had in the West.

Shortstop Johnny Mann, sent to Enid by Oklahoma City in the deal for Wayne Windle, is playing great ball.

Pitcher Clyde Williams became dissatisfied with things on the Sioux City team and jumped to an independent team.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new Yankee stadium, where the New York Americans will be at home next season.

The San Antonio club called in Homer Ezzell from the Shreveport club, to which he had been loaned early in the season.

Infielder Billy Orr, recently traded by Sacramento to Seattle, is organizing a team of Coasters to make a trip to Hawaii.

Manager Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals is in the market to buy Shortstop Joe Boley of the Baltimore Orioles.

According to report the New York Americans have offered $10,000 and four players for Pitcher Earl (Pinches) Kutz of the Sacs.

The Red Sox pay $10,000 for Fowlkes, a young pitcher. If he turns out to be a star how much will the Yanks pay for him?

The Charleston club of the South Atlantic has sold its champion all-around player, Rabbit Benton, to the Philadelphia Nationals.

One of the features of the recent series between the Giants and the Cubs in New York was the terrific hitting of Clifton Heathcote.

Chick Gagnon, sent by Detroit to Rochester, keeps up his good work for the Hustlers and seems to have beaten Murray out of his job at short.

Houston has called in Pitcher Hollis, Catcher Darr and Outfielder Bechtel from the Corsicana club of the disbanded Texas-Oklahoma league.

It's funny what the addition of a swatter does to a ball club. The Pittsburgh Pirates have been running wild more or less since Reb Russell joined them.

First Baseman Lee Dempsey, who recently joined the San Antonio team, seems to have found the Texas brand to his liking, for he has done some good work.

James Driscoll, former Boston College athlete and a champion distance runner, is getting a tryout as an outfielder with the Reading team of the International.

HOME RUN RECORD

The feat of hitting two home runs in one inning had been performed only three times by major league batters prior to a recent game between St. Louis and Washington. C. Jones, once identified with the Boston Nationals, hit twice for the circuit in one inning in a game in 1880; R. L. Lowe, also of the old Boston, duplicated that in 1894, while L. Bierbauer, who played with Brooklyn and Buffalo, was credited with the achievement in 1890. Kenneth Williams of the Browns came up twice in the course of the sixth inning at St. Louis and each time obliged with a homer.

TONY KAUFMANN NOW PROMISING TWIRLER

Making Good With Cubs in First Year in Majors.

Young Chicago Pitcher Was Given His Car Fare in His Initial Start in Game—Then He Signed Up With Winnipeg.

It's rather interesting to observe how Tony Kaufmann broke into pro baseball. He is now making good with the Cubs his first year in the majors, and anything about him carries a certain amount of respect.

Tony lives in Ravenswood, and pitched kid ball around said part of Chicago. One day, when about sixteen years of age, the manager of the Ravenswood Magnets asked him to go out to Evanston with them and throw to batters.

"I will if you give me my car fare," replied Tony.

They agreed, and Kaufmann rode in style—on a train, not the elevated. At Evanston he threw the ball past the Magnets in the rehearsal. They were so impressed they let him start a game at Highland Park the following Sunday. There he whiffed about sixteen batters, held them to four or five hits, and won. After that he had a real job.

Tony Kaufmann.

Later on, in a year or so, he was recommended to the Winnipeg club. The manager met him at a loop store, thought him a bit light, but said he'd take a chance and try him out on the training trip.

Tony went along up to Whisewater, Wis., and in his first exhibition game beat the Janesville (Wis.) Tractors, with Dumont, the Washington star, pitching against him. The Tractors had several former major leaguers, including big Bill Lathrop and Peering. Winnipeg kept him. And now look where he is, one of the most promising young twirlers in the major leagues.

Sporting Squibs of All Kinds

United States Lawn Tennis association has a balance in the treasury of $22,095.41.

Mlle. Lenglen, tennis star, wants to come back next year and have more pictures taken.

The Spokane golfer who played 144 holes in one day didn't hang up the record on a municipal course.

We'll soon have a new crop of honey-handed sons if the manufacturers don't learn to pad the handles of golf clubs.

Among the 75,000 rooters witnessing the Leonard-Tandler contest were some 400 or 500 women, old, young and middle-aged.

Whippet racing is growing in popularity. In Kentucky it is proposed to also race greyhounds and a track is being built at Rosedale, across the river from Cincinnati.

Jack Britton, welterweight champion boxer, has been active in the squared circle eighteen years. He is thirty-seven years of age, having been born at Clinton, N. Y., October 14, 1885.