Decoration Day.

HEADQUARTERS OF JOHN F. MILLER;
POST, NO. 42, G. A. R. DEPARTMENT OF OREGON.

Lebanon, Jr., May 19th 1893.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 1.

The day of honoring the memory of those who fell in battle, and those who have since died from the hardships incurred in defense of the Union and the perpetuity of a great and glorious Government, is again upon us.

To the surviving comrades of the mighty contest, it would seem almost out of place the sacred duty on the 30th of May as decreed on day, to unite one and all in the solemn and grateful privilege of strewing flowers upon the graves of departed heroes and otherwise remembering the services so freely rendered in time of the country's need. One of the great objects of the Grand Army is to perpetuate the memory and history of the dead. In order that the coming youths of the land may be taught the sacrifice and efforts required to preserve and hand down a united free government.

In this patriotic desire, we hereby extend a kind invitation to the Woman's Relief Corps to join us, and the Sons of Veterans, Masons, Odd Fellows, United Workmen and the order of Maecobees, Sunday schools, and all churches and citizens to unite on the occasion. We feel and realize that blessing resulted from the efforts made in the defence of this grand republic.

Therefore the comrades of the Grand Army and the Woman's Relief Corps, and Sons of Veterans will meet at the G. A. R. Hall at the hour of nine o'clock in the forenoon, on the 30th of May 1893, and hold such services as may be proper, and then march to the public square and convene along with all citizens desiring to participate in the strewing of flowers upon the graves of departed friends.

Therefore under the order of the Commanding Officer, proceed to the cemetery and decorate the graves of comrades with flowers, followed with such other exercises as may be appropriate on the occasion.

Done in accordance with general orders of Commander in Chief and Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic.

By order J. F. HYNE
Commander J. F. Miller Post, No. 42
G. A. R.

Attested by F. M. MILLER,
Adjutant.

The G. A. R. Post, W. R. C. and S. of V. camps will meet at the G. A. R. Hall at 9 o'clock a. m., May 30.

Other societies, school children and citizens who intend to take part in decorating exercises will meet at the public square.

The line of march will be arranged and announced on the grounds by Col. C. B. Montague, Marshal of the day.

All associations, school children and citizens are cordially invited to come, bring flowers and take part in the services.

G. W. CREWSON, Commander.

The grave of little Mamie Welsh, at Milwaukee, the girl who was so brutally murdered about ten months ago by the demon Wilson, who solicited in the Oregon City jail, is visited by her former schoolmates every Friday evening and decorated with flowers. The dear children have dropped many a tear upon the clay that covers the remains of the one they loved so well.

Council Proceedings.

Council met last Monday night in accordance to adjournment.

The roll was called and all the councilmen were present.

Councilman Westfall verbally reported on the amount of lumber it would take to build a bridge across the tail race near the flouring mill on Main street, and by motion the bridge was ordered built; and that the construction of the same be under the supervision of the street committee.

The council then proceeded to the election of a street commissioner. P. W. Morgan was placed in nomination and was elected.

By motion the council then adjourned until Tuesday evening.

Council met on Tuesday evening. All the members were present except councilman Westfall.

P. W. Morgan, the newly elected street commissioner, presented his bonds, which were duly approved and ordered placed on file.

By motion the marshal was ordered to notify B. Burtenshaw to put a railing on the side walk near his residence.

The street commissioner was ordered to proceed at once and make out a list of all the taxable property in the city, and also the persons liable to a pole tax.

Council then adjourned.

We received a copy of the road law, and also the fish and game law this week, with the compliments of F. C. Baker, state printer, for which we return our thanks. Mr. Baker requested us to say that any of our readers could obtain a copy of these laws by sending in their name accompanied by a 2 cent stamp.

Dr. Jas. Davidson and Mrs. Dr. Jas. Davidson and little boy arrived in Lebanon last Wednesday. On account of sickness Mr. Davidson did not get through school and will return in the fall. Mrs. Davidson completed her course with honor. They are now visiting with Mrs. Davidson's father, C. B. Montague.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much trouble. For sale by M. A. Miller.

Look out for the "Big Four" Colored Minstrels, consisting of the self renowned performers, Jones Brothers, in their startling freak of representing love scenes and new jokes of Southern Ore. The Silver Toned Duet by Starkey and Mallory. Don't fail to hear the Big Four Quartette, second to none. With their old plantation medleys and camp-meeting songs. Also heel and toe dancing. See the ghost and his struggles. See the "Big Four" in their old Virginia breakdown and reel. At Lebanon Opera House, Saturday evening, May 27. Price 35 and 25 cents.

China Row.

Yesterday morning at about 5 a. m. a disturbance occurred in the Chinese lodging house adjoining Mr Schmeer's livery stable, and a Chinawoman was found in front of the stable fearfully slashed with a knife and bleeding profusely.

Investigating elicited the facts, that the cutting was done by Hum Gow, the big Chinaman well known for years in Albany as Sullivan. The woman's name was Sue Hung who came but recently from Salem. Some altercation arose and Hum Gow attacked her with a dagger knife. Goon Hin the proprietor of the house interfered and was fearfully cut and stabbed. One cut entered the lungs and another laid open his abdomen so that the intestines protruded. There were several other wounds of a serious nature.

The woman also received cuts in the breast and abdomen, and one slash across the wrist nearly severing the muscle.

Dr. W. H. Davis was called and dressed the wounds.

The witnesses to the affair were Hung Lung and Joe Back, two Chinamen.

Goon Hin received seven distinct wounds, the one penetrating the lungs it is feared will prove fatal. The woman, Sue Hung, who claims to have a husband in Salem, was stabbed six times.

Sullivan, or Hum Gow, was given an examination before Justice Curl. He claims that he was quietly sleeping and was attacked by the woman with the knife and Goon Hin with a rod of iron, and that he snatched the knife from the woman and fought his way out and ran to the jail for protection, fearing that they would kill. He was held without bail pending the result of the wounds he had inflicted, and two witnesses were held under $150 bonds each, which they were endeavoring to secure.

Mr G A Waggoner was not altogether successful last year in raising China pheasants. This season he turned the business over to Mrs. Waggoner whose efforts promise a fair measure and brooder. A brood of 114 is now emerging from the shell, and should the birds thrive, Mrs. Waggoner will reap a good reward for her pains as these birds are in good demand at $10 a pair.—Gazette.

George Humphrey, of Albany, was in town Tuesday, says the Scio Press. He was here for the purpose of securing the signatures of the convicting jury who sent up the man who robbed Albert Bond a few months ago. The prisoner is dying with consumption and the object is to get him pardoned so that his people can take him home and nurse him.

Wednesday night news reached this city of the death of Henry R Freeman on the day mentioned. Deceased had been employed by John Smith to cut wood on the island about 4 miles south of Covalls. He left one of the houses in the morning to begin work. He did not return for dinner nor for supper and Mr Smith and Jonny Hays went in search of him, fearing that he met with some accident. They went to the place where he was instructed to begin work and found that he had been killed by the top of a tree which had broken off by the fall of the one which he had cut down. Justice Applewhite empanelled a coroner's jury to investigate the cause of death and gave a verdict in accordance with the above facts. Deceased was 52 years of age, and a native of Tennessee. He leaves a wife with whom the community is in deep sympathy. The remains were interred in Crystal Lake cemetery.—Corvallis Gazette.

W. F. Read, of Albany was in town one day this week.

Albany Baseball Players.

The Albany baseball team is being gotten together as rapidly as possible, six players being already secured, while others are being negotiated with. Matt Stanley the crack catcher who caught for Salem last year, came up on the train Monday, and will play his old position and captain the team. Among the other players that have been seconded are Chas. Burns, short stop, Phil Grant, of Kansas City, and Frank Haynes, of California, pitchers, Albert Cole, third base, John Mullen, first base. The two pitchers arrived Tuesday. The grounds in Goltra Park were laid out and the work of putting it in condition will be commenced immediately. Albany will have one of the strongest teams in the league.—Herald.

The graduating exercises of the Lebanon public school will be held in the Presbyterian church, in the afternoon of Friday June the 20. The exercises will consist of music by the Choral Society, essays by the members of the class and the presentation of diplomas. Pres. Bloss, of the State Agricultural College will be present and will deliver a lecture in the evening. Friends and patrons are cordially invited to be present. This is the first class to graduate out of our school and it will mark an epoch in our school history. The programme will be published in full next week.

The last session of the legislature of this state made some very important changes in the old law in regard to the filing of chattle mortgages. It makes it the duty of the county recorder in the counties where there is a county recorder of conveyances to file chattle mortgages, instead of the county clerk as before. The legislature also made the following provision. That at the request of either the mortgagee or trustee such instrument may be recorded in the same manner as a mortgage or real property, put in a book of record kept exclusively for chattle mortgages; and if such instrument be so recorded, and after the same has been duly recorded, it may be delivered to the person authorized or entitled to receive the same. As some of the county clerks in this state thought the new law was not clear as to which officer, the clerk, or recorder, should file them in case that they were filed and not recorded, the matter was referred to Judge McBride of the Fifth judicial district, who decided that the recorder was the proper officer to file the same.
