IONE.
Mrs. Cochran, of Condon, who has been visiting here for some time left for her home last Tuesday morning.

John Cochran made a pretty good haul on his last coyote hunt. He was only gone a few days and came home with 44 of the keen eyed rascals.

Ralph Hymer is carrying his arm in a sling these days, suffering from a broken wrist received Sunday before last while playing ball at Cecil.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. A. Reid formerly of Ione but now located at Stanfield came in on Saturday evening's train, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J.
O. Kincaid.

W. H. Cronk and family, also S. E.
Moore and family left Ione last Sunday morning. We did not learn where they were going, but they were on their way.

We had quite a lively run-a-way in town Monday morning when J. Calkin's team ran off. He had four horses on the wagon and they spilled things some but did no damage.

Joe Cronan is enjoying a visit from his father and mother and three brothers. They came out from Nebraska, arriving here Thursday of last week. We hope Mr. Cronan and his family will be favorably impres-sioned with our fine Oregon climate and be tempted to stay with us.

The Shadow social held in the Wilmot building last Friday evening was a jolly affair. While the attendance was not what it had ought to have been, a good time was in store for all present. After the shadows were suctioned off, young and old took their respective partners and feasted on the contents of the well filled baskets.
All went home with their bread baskets full, realizing that a pleasant evening had been well spent.

THE HORSE'S PRAYER.
"To thee, my master, I offer my prayer. Feed me, water and care for me, and, when the day's work is done, provide me with a shelter, a clean, dry bed, and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort.
Be always gentle to me and talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins. Pet me sometimes, that I may serve you more gladly and learn to love you. Do not jerk the reins, and do not whip me when going up-hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you mean, but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me, and if I fail to do your bidding, see if something is not wrong with my harness or feet. Don't draw the straps tight; give me freedom to move my head. If you insist on my wearing blinkers to keep me from looking around at least see to it that they do not press against my eyes.
Don't make my load too heavy, and don't leave me tied up in the rain.
Have me well shod. Examine my teeth when I don't eat, I may have an ulcerated tooth, and that you know is very painful. Do not tie my head in an unnatural position or take my best defense against flies or mosquitoes by cutting off my tail. I cannot tell you when I am thirsty, so give me pure, cold water frequently. Do all you can to protect me from the sun; and throw a cover over me—not when I am working but when I am standing in the cold. Don't force an ice cold bit into my mouth, but warm it first in your hands. I always try to do cheerfully the work you require of me, and day and night I stand patiently for hours and wait for you. And finally, oh my master, when my useful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve and freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner to be slowly tortured and starved to death; but thou, my master, take my life in the kindest way, and your God will reward you here and hereafter. You may not consider me irrevocable if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a stable.

We overlooked mentioning in last week's items the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardisty. Mother and child getting along fine.

Miss Ruth Bewley returned to Ione Monday evening of last week after a three month's vacation and is helping in the Walker store again.

Mrs. T. J. Allyn who has been visiting with friends about Ione for a few days took Monday's train for Weston, where her home is.

We see Joe Cronan driving his breeze splitter hitched to an Irish boggy last Sunday. Joe has a fine new buggy ready to hitch him to as soon as he gets used to working between shafts.

500 smokers wanted—to buy blue tin matches at Walker's store. The best ever. Come in and get a sample.

The Holt people shipped their big caterpillar engine back to Walla Walla Tuesday of last week, having finished plowing 900 acres out near Lexington.

Old Maid—"You eat very little, Mr. Smith. Smith (flattered and wishing to be complimentary) "Ah, to sit next you is to lose one's appetite."

Mrs. E. J. Bristow and children returned from Walla Walla, Tuesday of last week, where they have been visiting relatives for the past five weeks.

John Clark went to Vancouver, Wash. last week where he has a position as mail carrier. We don't like to see John go, but jobs of that kind are not picked up every day.

U. E. Baker one of our prosperous farmers north of Ione received the sad news of his father's death last Monday. Mr. Baker left Tuesday for Missouri to attend the funeral.

We see Bert Mason, also Dr. Chick, sporting new sets of harness these days, this fine spring weather makes a lot of us feel like fixin up our horse with a new set of harness and getting out to view the growing crops.

LEXINGTON.
Mrs. E. S. Duran was a Heppner visitor Saturday returning on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward are visiting Mrs. Ward's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Maukera.

Mrs. Robert Wilcox was a Heppner visitor Saturday to have some dental work done.

Mrs. Rowena Gentry has been sick for a week with neuralgia in her head.
She is some better.

Mr. Reade, pastor of the Congregational church, is in Portland this week, doctoring for an abscess on his cheek.

Miss Merriell Reed and Miss Elsie Allen were Ione visitors on Saturday where Miss Merriell took another lesson on the violin.

On account of the most of the people being very busy with their spring work, election day on Friday, the 19th, was quiet.

Rev. Father O'Rourke, of Heppner, came to Lexington Saturday morning and held services in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Breshears. Rev. O'Rourke visited his parishioners during the day going back to Heppner in the evening.

As Friday was a holiday, Miss Edna Carmichael came down from the mountains where she is teaching school, to visit her parents over Saturday. When she returned on Sunday evening Miss Merle accompanied her as far as Heppner.

The bridge and, building outfits who have been on the side track at Lexington for the past two weeks left for Morgan Monday morning. During their stay here the men built some steps at the end of the depot platform.
These steps will be appreciated by the people as they were needed very much.

S. E. Notson, our county superintendent, was with us last Wednesday night and gave the children a very nice time with his lantern. We are always glad to have him come.

Mr. Moses and two other gentlemen were in town last week and they are greatly pleased with our part of the county. The hopes of our residents for the future of this part of the county are ascending high.

IRRIGON.
Mrs. C. W. Caldwell returned from Pendleton on the local last Monday morning.

Mrs. Seaman and Doering made a business trip to Arlington on last Wednesday.

Rev. Emmel, Methodist pastor at Hermiston, held services in our church last Monday evening.

Election passed off quickly here.
Mr. Peter Saubert was entrusted to deliver the ballots to the county seat.

Mrs. W. G. Corey returned from Umatilla where she had been a few days visiting her son Henry who is employed there.

Frank Doble and Earl Rand were elected delegates to the State S. S.
Convention at Pendleton. Eve Doble and Walter Caldwell were elected alternates.

Mr. Seaman invested in some more real estate here. He bought the Bell property here in town. He is beginning to feel with the rest of us here that good times are in store for us all in the near future.

W. R. Walpole returned from Pendleton on No. 5 Sunday morning, but had scarcely gotten home when a phone message called him back up there.
He took the local in the afternoon and returned there.

We are all holding our breath for the next two weeks as it is in that time that our fruit is in greatest danger from frost. If we pull thru the next phase of the full moon we can feel safe about the crop. It looks all OK yet and is making good progress.
Plenty of apples, pears, cherries, plums, and apricots, but the peaches are somewhat limited especially the later varieties.
