Thomson Brothers

HEPPNER 25 YEARS AGO

From the Gazette of June 25, 1891

McAtee Bros. have a new clock which is something of a wonder. Instead of striking the hour a little door flies open and a cuckoo performs that part most admirably. He also announces when a half hour has expired.

The examination of Wm. Stull, who shot Johnny Locknane, occurred at the court house last Thursday before Justice Rea, Stull being bound over to await the result of Locknane's injuries. Locknane is still ill and there is but little hopes for his recovery.

Judge Bradshaw arrived from The Dalles on Monday evening last and is presiding over the court with that dignity, wisdom, patience, and sense of justice as our citizens are wont to expect of a man in that high position.

The Gazette has been informed by a grand army man that the commander of Rawlins Post G. A. R. expects all members of the post, as well as ex-soldiers, to be present at Heppner on the 4th of July. The old veteran can have a grand reunion on that occasion.

Henry Heppner bought the north half of Shipley addition last week, and as soon as the company extend their track, will erect a ware house and platform. This is a valuable piece of property and nicely located.

Johnny Reddington, proprietor of the Puyallup Commerce, of that city, visited Heppner, his old home, last week, returning Monday. Johnny comes back to Heppner every summer for his health and to look after his interests here.

Walter Fell purchased a new safety bicycle last week, but in learning to ride it ran into the sidewalk, damaging the front wheel very badly. Both wheels were sent to Portland for repairs.

Glasses fitted satisfactorily by Dr. Winnard, or money refunded. His prices are reasonable, and he is where you can always find him. No charge for testing eyes.

Leonard Carlson and sister, Amanda, were in the city from Gooseberry to attend the picnic.

J. S. Buesick and R. F. Hynd spent Friday at the home of Alex Lindsey on Willow creek.
