

Will Make a Better President.

(New York Tribune.) The Tribune will loyally support Charles E. Hughes.

From the morning of the Lusitania to the present hour this newspaper has fought for certain principles which it believed to be vital in American life.

For many weeks it has advocated the nomination of the American who championed these principles most fearlessly and uncompromisingly.

The man has been defeated, the principles are not included in the Republican platform and they will not be found in the statement issued by Mr. Hughes after nomination.

In so far, then, as these principles are concerned, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Wilson stand on the same ground, as yet.

But the Tribune purposes to support Mr. Hughes because it believes that in all other respects Mr. Hughes is the stronger man and will make a better president.
