WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

H. L. McAllister of Lexington was in the city Monday.

Ray Young is under the doctor's care at the Wilson hotel.

J. B. Sparks went to Pilot Rock this week on business.

James Bannon, popular salesman, called on our merchants this week.

A. Madden and wife of Condon were Monday visitors in this city.

Cecil Sweek of Monument was a Heppner visitor the first of the week.

Ural Smith went to Ione Sunday to spend the day visiting with friends.

Frank Cronan, popular lone man, spent Sunday in Heppner with friends.

Herman Nelson, Hardman farmer, was a Heppner business visitor this week.

Fred Bartholomew was visiting last week with his mother, Mrs. Mary Bartholomew.

Harvie Young and wife were in the city Wednesday from their Eight Mile home.

J. L. Wilkins, manager of the Palace hotel, is spending the week in Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson were in the city Tuesday from their Meadow Brook home on Willow creek.

T. J. Mahoney of the First National Bank returned Sunday evening from a brief business trip to Portland.

V. Gentry, this week purchased a Studebaker "Four" from Gilliam & Bisbee, the local distributing agents.

Ohn Hayes will leave this week for Astoria where he has accepted a position with a real estate firm of that city.

W. P. Dutton returned to his home in Portland last week after spending some time in this city looking after his many property interests.

Mrs. Victor Baldwin has been visiting with friends in Heppner the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin are now making their home in The Dalles.

A. J. Warren of Hardman bought a Buick, light Six last week from Albert Bowker, the local agent. Mr. Bowker received another carload of these cars the last of the week.

Claud Keithley, who has been visiting with Morrow county relatives and friends the past two weeks, expects to leave soon for Long Beach, California, where he will spend the winter.

Ben Buschke, accompanied by his son Max, spent Wednesday in Heppner on business. Mr. Buschke farms in the Rhea creek district tributary to Ione and is numbered among the farmers who produced a big wheat crop this year.

George C. Currin left Thursday for his ranch on East Birch creek in Umatilla county. This is the ranch he and his son Hugh purchased last spring from Douglas Belts. It is considered one of the best stock ranches in that part of Umatilla county.

Dr. Turner, the well known eye specialist of Portland will be in Heppner again Saturday October 14th at the Palace Hotel. Also at Ione Friday, October 13th. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened. Satisfaction guaranteed. Consult him.

W. Claude Cox received serious burns on his left hand one day last week when he attempted to smother out a fire in the wood box behind his kitchen stove. The fire was started by throwing a lighted match into the wood box which contained some paper.

Paul Hisler, well known sheepman was in the city Saturday after ranch supplies. He says that Nels Johnson has rented his place for the winter and will run a band of lambs there which he recently purchased. Mr. Hisler's ranch is located on upper Butter creek.

J. M. Culbertson and wife of Brookings South Dakota, visited this week at the home of his brother, Dr. A. P. Culbertson in this city. They also spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allison on Butter creek, Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Culbertson being sisters. They left Wednesday morning for Corvallis to visit other relatives before returning home through Canada.

Chas. and Omar Stanton, Eight Mile farmers, were in the city Wednesday making preliminary arrangements for a public sale which they will hold at the Chas. Stanton ranch on Saturday the 28th day of October. On that date they expect to sell all their farm stock, consisting of horses, household goods and farm machinery. See their advertisement in another column of this paper.

A half section of land in Umatilla county recently sold for $40,000. This is just ordinary wheat land situated near Adams. Many farms in Morrow county produced as big wheat crops this year as did land in the Adams section. Yet there is some difference between $20 and $125 per acre. Morrow county land is the cheapest in the world, which means a larger profit for the farmer.
