HEPPNER - - - OREGON

INDUSTRIAL ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Cove—40 carloads prunes shipped to date.

Eugene—Logan berry juice factory being promoted here.

Oregon's total registration is 12,000 less than in 1914.

Marshfield—Eastside grants franchise to Oregon Power Co.

Sutherlin—Building small sawmill to cut ties for new railroad.

Willamina—New sawmill to be built on Yamhill near here.

Eugene iron works will enlarge that industry by adding shops 40 by 68 ft.

Astoria—Altoona Packing Co. contemplates erection of cold storage plant.

Bandon—Portland offers co-operation in building vessels to ply between the two ports.

Bandon—N. Y. syndicate takes over extensive mining claims in Coos and Curry counties.

Hermiston—Construction Co. employing 100 men about half through widening government feed canal.

Dallas—Prune packing plant is operating at full capacity and the biggest season in years is anticipated.

Portland bank clearings 1 week total $19,338,931, largest for any one week since establishment of clearing house.

St. Helens—Ship yard here will erect enormous sheds to enable shipbuilding to continue throughout winter.

St. Helens—Negotiations reported of big timber deal which would mean new logging R. R. and large mill on Columbia.

Portland—New ship company to start work at once on contracts for four ships involving $4,000,000 for Norwegian interests.

Eugene—Oregon Power Company, voluntarily reduces its gas rate here and in Springfield nearly one-half, to stimulate use of gas.

Corvallis—Electrification of S. P. west side line now complete between here and Portland except from Independence to McCoy where crews are at work.

Portland—Eastern architect on construction of new Portland auditorium objects of Willamina brick on slight variation of color and wishes to send $80,000 out of Oregon.

Portland—England buys two shiploads of flour at $7.80 a barrel and one Chicago firm bought about 1,000,000 bushels of wheat paying $1.55 for bluestem, Portland delivery.

Union Pacific system calls for bids on 2500 freight cars using 15,000,000 feet of lumber, specification requiring all lumber to be purchased from Union Pacific territory in Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

S. L. Henderson, Ass't Atty-General of state of Washington and ex-trainman says the Adamson law is purely a minimum wage law and when fully worked out will reduce present wages of many railroads.

Hood River—Wittenburg-King Co. of The Dalles contracts for 5,000 tons lower grade fruit from Apple Association at $10 per ton. Local vinegar company increases capacity. Fancy Fruit Co. making confections from candied fruit.

According to last published figures every man, woman and child in Oregon will this year pay $30 tax for state, county, city and schools the state tax being only $3 of the $30. This shows where tax burdens must be trimmed.

Grants Pass—Utah-Idaho Sugar Co. announces another voluntary raise of 50 cents per ton on sugar beets which is an advance of $1.00 per ton over the rate established in the contracts as originally signed. Isn't such an industry a great asset to a community.

In connection with building the new railroad in Eastern Oregon, Robt. E. Strahorn said: "I hope the people of Oregon will make it as easy as possible to get capital to come here to do the work. We should not discourage capital by hostile legislation, such as the so-called 'land and loan' bill. If that measure passed, I'm afraid it will be impossible to get money for the road that means so much to Oregon."

We are offering one of the best residences in Heppner at a sacrifice. If you want a good home and have $600 cash we can do business, for our terms on the balance will be your terms. There is no better bargain in Heppner. We will be glad to show it to you at any time.
