WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Bert Gurdane was a Monday evening visitor in Ione.

Judge W. P. Dutton came up from Portland Wednesday evening.

Chas. Stanton of Eight Mile paid Heppner a business visit Tuesday.

Joe Hayes was in the city from his Butter creek ranch for the election.

Good milk and stock cattle for sale. R. B. Wilcox, Lexington, Ore.

Neil Doherty of Ione spent several days in Heppner on business the past week.

Arthur Harlow, Parkers Mill citizen was in the city Wednesday on business.

Miss Marie Cason went to Ione today for a short visit with friends and relatives.

LaVerne VanMarter of the Gazette-Times is spending the week in Ione on business.

George T. Pearce is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis at the Heppner Sanatorium.

Luther Huston of Eight Mile, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Vaughn in this city this week.

Ralph I. Thompson and wife returned to their home in Portland Saturday after spending several days in this city.

J. T. Knappenberg, prominent Ione Attorney, accompanied by Mrs. Knappenberg, spent a few days in our city this week.

LOST—One bay mare 4 years old and colt. Mare branded 7y on right stifle. Finder return to Frank Turner, Heppner.

J. H. Cox and Thos. E. Chidsey, who are putting up a warehouse in Lexington for W. F. Barnett, came up from that city Tuesday to vote.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wells at their home just below Heppner on Sunday. He has been named William Woodrow Wells.

Ferry Elliott underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Heppner Sanatorium in this city Tuesday. His condition is favorable at this time for a speedy recovery.

Dan McIntire of Weston, who attended the local high school last year, has returned to this city, where he has accepted a position with the Phelps Grocery Company.

Rev. George B. VanWaters of Portland will hold services at the Episcopal church both morning and evening next Sunday. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

WANTED—Plowing by the acre, will contract up to 1000 acres this fall. Have catpillar plow and 10 bottom gang plow. Write F. B. Davis, 194, E. 12th, Portland, Ore.

John Jenkins of Eight Mile was transacting business in Heppner Wednesday. Mr. Jenkins recently sold his ranch to Ed Buschke and contemplates moving to Seattle in the near future.

Mrs. Linden Lucas of Moro returned home Saturday after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas in this city. Mr. Lucas recently received a visit from his mother, Mrs. E. E. Lucas who resides in Wasco.

Peter Susbauer of Irrigon arrived in the city last night with the Irrigon ballot box. Mr. Susbauer is one of the prominent horticulturists of Morrow county and an exceptional gardener. He shipped several carloads of watermelons from his Columbia river ranch this year.

Dr. N. E. Winnard was called to Spray last week in consultation with Dr. Gaunt of Hardman, who is attending Chas. Royle. Both Mr. Royle and his son are very low with pneumonia, although their conditions are reported improving.

Several fistie encounters were indulged in by some of our boys on election night. Facts are lacking as to the cause of the battles but from what we are able to learn, all the difficulties and misunderstanding flowed from the neck of a few bottles which were shipped up from California.

Judge S. A. Lowell accompanied by Mrs. Lowell and Mrs. C. L. Bonney arrived in the city last Monday from Pendleton and delivered the final campaign address of the year at the opera house. They made the trip by the way of Echo and were just seven hours in traveling from Pendleton to Heppner.

The election night ball in this city was a very successful affair. Mrs. Bert Stone and Miss Josephine Richardson were the hostesses of the evening and about 200 invitations were sent out. Bowker's orchestra, which has appeared in Heppner on previous occasions, was on hand to furnish the music.

Harold Cohn and Robert Young went to Eugene Saturday to witness the football classic of the season in Northwestern games. Oregon and Washington battled to a no score tie on that day. Mr. Cohn returned home the first of the week but Mr. Young has accepted a position in Portland and will probably remain there through the winter.
