

ODELL

Mrs. Webster, of McMinnville, Ore., spent the past week here visiting her cousin, Mrs. L. D. Boyd. Mrs. Webster went to The Dalles as a delegate from the W. C. T. U. then visited at points in eastern Oregon and stopped here for a week before returning to her home.

Mrs. J. C. Skelton, of Butler, Wash., was here last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Eva Morgan. Saturday Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Skelton visited Mrs. Welch and Mrs. Perkins, of Mount Hood and Sunday they went to the Peach Bowl. Mrs. Skelton left Monday for home.

James Dimmick, of Mount Hood, came down Saturday for a short visit with Frank Purdy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barnett and daughter, Miss Lois and Dorothy, and Miss Eva Benefield left Thursday for their home in Wasco, Ore., after having been here for the past six weeks looking after the harvesting of their apples. Mr. Barnett shipped a very large car load of apples to his home.

Clark White, of Spokane, Wash., is spending several weeks here with his uncle, H. D. Emery.

About 20 young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Duckwall last Saturday evening for a surprise farewell party for Miss Jessie Duckwall. Miss Duckwall was away from home and there was a long wait. When she arrived home and found her friends waiting she acknowledged that this was one time when a surprise party was all that was intended.

Mrs. E. E. Davies, of Madison, Wis., who has spent the past three months with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Ogden, left Monday for her home. She went via Portland, thence over the North Bank road.

At White Salmon, Wash., Miss Jessie Duckwall, who left Monday night for her home in Indianapolis, Ind., joined Mrs. Davies and they will travel in company as far as Chicago, Ill.

J. N. Hunter and family, of Bend, Ore., expect to leave early next week for their home after having spent the past two months here looking after their apple harvest.

Lurline Fisher, of Mosier, whose wedding was announced in last week's issue of the Glacier, has many friends in Odell who wish for her health, happiness and prosperity.

Friends are congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Sherman LaFerry, an account of whose wedding with us are told, appear in today's Glacier.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner, of Iowa, who stopped over recently while on their way to Portland, returned Tuesday for a short stay with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barnett. Mr. and Mrs. Turner are pleased with Hood River valley and they would not return to their home without looking it over more extensively.

Husbands of members of the Ladies' Aid society should not fall to accept invitations they will receive for an occasion planned for their enjoyment. Do not forget that next Tuesday is election day. Every vote counts and that one may be the deciding vote. Yours is worth just as much as any other. Have convictions and vote them.

Chicken dinner will be served by the members of the Guild on election day in the rooms below the Odd Fellows hall, a very convenient place for voters. Price 35 cents. A sale of useful and fancy articles will be held on the same day.

Service 9.45 a. m. Sunday school 10.30 a. m. Service 7.30 p. m. at the Methodist church next Sunday. Sunday school 10.30 a. m. Service 11.30 a. m. Young people's meeting in the evening at the Union church next Sunday.

BARRETT.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, at the home of Mrs. Evans' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Zeck, Tuesday, October 20, twin daughters.

J. E. Fisher, of New York City, is visiting Mrs. McCowan and family at the home of S. M. Richardson.

Mrs. J. H. Bywater has left for a visit with her mother, who resides at Chelan, Wash.

Tomorrow evening at the Valley Christian church Bishop Padcock will deliver an illustrated lecture on his trip to the Holy Land. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Barrett Parent-Teacher Association.

The Barrett teachers, Miss Slonaker, Miss Nola Radloff, and Mrs. Steel were successful with their dinner last Saturday evening. Their receipts amounted to $25. The money will be used in purchasing pictures for the school building. The teachers are to be highly commended for their work in securing this fund.

PINE GROVE

There will be regular services at the church next Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. G. H. Heintz.

There were 80 at Sunday school last Sunday. Much interest is being awakened in the matter of contributing toward the Christmas ship. The children have three weeks to prepare their gifts which will be furnished through their efforts. If the suggestion of the superintendent, Mr. Keck, is accepted.

Those in attendance at church Sunday appreciated the trio of male voices by the Allen brothers. It was a rare treat.

Bernice McDonald is on the sick list. Miss Gladious Cuddy, from Portland, but who is teaching in Hood River for the present, was a guest of Miss Mary Hunt over Sunday.

There will be another meeting at grange hall next Saturday evening to discuss measures on the ballot. This is the last meeting. Improve the opportunity.

BELMONT.

Miss Schiel has terminated her visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King and returned to her home, Toledo, Ore.

Will Somerville was working for Mr. Hoover, of Oak Grove, a few days the past week, building a new shed and strengthening the barn roof.

Miss Emma Jones, of Barrett, was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forden Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Farrell and Miss Ethel were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Forey and family Sunday.

Guy Harvey, of Wamic, Ore., spent the week end at the home of Mrs. M. P. Isenberg and daughter.

Mrs. J. M. Woodcock left Saturday for her home, Wamic, Ore.

Mrs. M. P. Isenberg and Mrs. J. M. Woodcock spent Thursday at Dece, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Neils Nelson and baby daughter. They returned the same evening, having spent a very pleasant day.

Mrs. Robert Jones visited her daughter, Mrs. Earl Ordway, and family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Clarence Goodman is helping her parents gather the crop of apples on the Hendrick ranch, they having changed of the crop.

Miss Ruth Nicholson was a visitor Sunday afternoon at the Sawyer ranch. J. R. Forden took a business trip to Portland Thursday. Miss Georgia, the youngest daughter, went along and will stay for a while, visiting her grandparents and other relatives.

Mrs. Luce was under the weather the past week, but is better again. The Sunday school at Belmont church had a very good attendance Sunday afternoon. We are hoping for a still larger number.

R. L. Lape is busy packing apples on the Dickinson ranch. His hand is very much improved.

MIDDLE VALLEY

Mrs. Laughton and family, who have been spending the summer on their ranch here, returned to their home in Portland last Friday.

Mrs. Robert Fairbairn left Monday for Portland, where she expects to spend the winter.

On Thursday evening Mrs. F. X. Arens entertained in honor of Mrs. Laughton and family, who were leaving the next day.

Mr. Patereau and Mr. Kossin are very busy engaged in setting out strawberry plants on the former's ranch up near Bald Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rhoades and little son spent Sunday at Odell.

Armand Patereau, Jr., formerly of this vicinity, has gone to France to join the French army. His little son, Alfred, is visiting his grandparents here.

O. L. Warden has finished picking his apples.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barnes was burned quite painfully last Thursday. It is hoped nothing serious will result.

WINANS CITY

Charley Merry, of Dece, was quite ill last week. Mrs. J. A. West, of Utah, is visiting at the home of her son, Walter West, of Dece.

Neils Nelson and family, of Dece, have moved into the house formerly occupied by Wm. Yates and family.

Masquerade dance Halloween eve at Parkdale in the Melsaac hall. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Nelson and Miss Nelson, of the Belmont district visited last Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. Neils Nelson, of Dece.

Elmer Lower, of Portland, is spending several weeks in this vicinity.

W. R. Winans was in Hood River Saturday.

The Oregon number Co., of Dece, have built a new barn which is south of the saw mill.

Paul Winans is still at the home of his grandfather in Hood River, receiving medical aid.

Men have been working on his roads this week.

Allen Macrum and family are now at the home in the house north of the store and postoffice at Dece. They will live there this winter.

C. W. Green, of the Scott ranch, was in Hood River Monday on business.

Julian P. Scott and C. W. Green were visitors in Parkdale Sunday.

OAK GROVE

J. C. Bowman is working in an office in Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crapper spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Sherman, at Green Point.

Chas. Albright is building a garage. Mr. and Mrs. Fay Dismore have returned to their home after being away for some time assisting in the apple harvest on the Wickham & Rahles ranch.

Heavy machinery has been going up to Green Point the past week for the new mill, which is being built by the Stanley-Smith Co. to replace the one burned last summer.

Mrs. R. B. Lindsey has been quite sick again, being confined to her bed the most of last week.

The attraction at the Social Center club this week Friday evening is to be a sheet and pillow case party. Halloween amusements will be a part of the program.

FRANKTON.

Miss Nola Radloff, who has been visiting in Frankton and working in the apple harvest for sometime, has returned to her home in The Dalles.

The Four Leaf Clover club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. D. Hollenbeck.

Miss Millie Koplin, who has been spending her vacation with her father, has returned to her work in Portland.

Two of our boys who are packing apples up at Mosier are not getting along as they would like, but are having a good time just the same.

Miss Aldine Bartness is teaching the old and young children how to sing at Frankton and Columbia schools two days each week, Monday and Wednesday.

Hert Wolf, who lives on the Shelley Morgan apple ranch up on Phelps creek entertained relatives last week. They were on their way from near Port Scott, Kansas, to Mr. Wolf's ranch over on the coast in Lincoln county. They stopped off at Hood River for a little visit and to see the valley.

Frankton, as usual, is again to the front, the Parent-Teacher Association and the school children have helped to fill the big ship with Christmas gifts that will help to make some poor little war orphans over in Europe glad. Quite a large collection was expressed to the Portland Journal and will be sent east in time to reach its destination in time for the holidays.

This is the last round before election. Vote right.

The sick down at Ruthon are no better.

The social at the school house Saturday evening was well attended and all report a good time.

Tom Wickens, an old timer, was out this way the first of the week looking up some road business.

The roads out this way are getting very bad, but the censor won't let me swear.

The county court at its last meeting made a new road district out of the Frankton end of what was No. 3 and now we are No. 11.

Oat Eastman will talk bog to you if you will call him up.

The collection of Christmas goods for the war stricken people over in Europe was large. M. R. Noble did the collecting and C. D. Hollenbeck delivered it to the express office.

Rubber Stamps for Apple Boxes made to order at the Glacier office.

CASCADE LOCKS

Dr. Hodge will lecture at the school house Friday, Oct. 30, at 7.30. Dr. Hodge is head of the department of social biology in the State University. His subject is, "Nature Study for Schools." The lecture is under the auspices of the local Parent-Teacher Association and no admission is charged. Everybody is invited to attend.

Dr. Hodge will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Val Tomkins, during his visit in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Olson have returned after an extended visit in Portland.

J. A. Young and family, of Canby, have returned and will spend the winter in the Locks. Their son, Johnnie, entered school Monday.

Mrs. Barnett, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joe Schmid, returned Monday to her home at Cape Horn.

Misses Ethel Taylor, Bertha Hendricks and Vera Olin, spent the week end with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benson have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. L. Pennock. Mr. Benson returned to Portland Sunday. Mr. Benson remains.

Rev. Macnamara visited members of his congregation Sunday.

Miss Garvin was a Portland visitor Saturday.

Mr. Swadley was in Hood River Saturday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lee returned Tuesday after a week's visit in Portland.

Mrs. Hillas Gentry and Mrs. E. L. Pennock will entertain the business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Thursday, today, at the home of Mrs. Pennock.

Miss Northey, county librarian, visited the city Monday in the interest of the library.

Miss McDonald attended the Eastern Star banquet in Hood River Tuesday.

Mrs. E. L. Pennock, Mrs. Leo, Torrey, A. E. Kelly, compose the library board as appointed by the county court.

Miss Thorpe has left to spend the winter in California.

Mrs. Lane, wife of the depot agent, will spend several weeks in Portland.

The young people will be entertained on Halloween with a party in the hall.

A meeting was held in the Baptist church in the interest of Oregon dry one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Smallwood are occupying the Cameron house on Taylor street.

K. C. Bucklin has set out climbing roses at the front of his Blacksmith shop, to run up over the windows. It will make an attractive front.

Mr. Volstorff, on Thirteenth street, is putting an addition to his residence.

Mr. Blount, on Twelfth street, is building a house for his son, Tel, on the lot south of his own residence. It is to be a six room bungalow.

W. H. Taft was to have started for Oregon last Sunday, and will stop off at Castle Rock, Wash., for a short visit with his brother, J. W. Taft, and wife. He has been in Wisconsin the past two months, visiting his mother, who is past 82 years old; also a brother and other relatives and friends.

Chas. Tucker made a splendid catch of salmon trout recently.

There is to be a parade of all the children of town and valley who can be brought together next Saturday at 2 o'clock, the line of march forming at the Christian church. The Sunday school and public schools are all invited. We are trying taking this way to give the children a chance to help make Oregon dry. Each one will be given a badge to wear. The older ones are asked to join the parade also. Be at the Christian church promptly at 2 o'clock. The days are short and unless we are on time it will make it late.

MOSIER.

Mrs. R. L. Dwight and child, of Portland, arrived the first of the week for a visit with Mrs. James Mead.

The marriage of Miss Lurline Fisher, of Mosier, and H. W. Winkler, of Hood River, was solemnized Tuesday morning at the home of Rev. H. C. Clark. The young couple left the same evening for eastern Washington to spend a few weeks before beginning their home life in Hood River, where the groom is employed.

W. O. Coleman, Jr., left Tuesday via Portland for his home in Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. J. H. Daily and Miss Ruth Clement were shopping in Hood River one day this week.

Mrs. Ed F. Reeves returned home Thursday evening from a few days' stay in Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Johnson entertained at Wednesday evening dinner the following guests at her home in Mosier: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Strauss, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Birken, Mrs. M. J. Shogren, Mr. Merrill and Mr. Burpee. The floral decorations for the occasion were beautiful red and white dahlias. The red dahlias were used in the reception hall and living room, while the dinnings room and table were lovely with perfect white blossoms in cut glass bowls. The following menu was served: Grape fruit with Maracchino cherries and sherry wine, tomato soup with whipped cream, celery, roast mutton, green peas, scalloped potatoes, plum pudding angel cake, coffee. During the evening games and music were enjoyed. Delicious home made candy was also passed among the guests by the hostess and children. About 11.30 p. m. the assembled guests departed for their homes.

W. E. Chown was in Hood River Friday forenoon.

Mrs. J. W. Huskey was in Hood River Friday.

Workmen are now busy putting in a concrete sidewalk around the east and south sides of the bank building.

George Chamberlain returned home Friday evening from Alaska, where he spent the last five months with a government surveying party.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson and a party of friends from The Dalles spent part of the day on Mr. Wilson's ranch south of Mosier.

Mrs. L. Vickers, of The Dalles, spent Sunday in Mosier with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Evans.

On Wednesday, Oct. 21, D. A. Kile committed suicide. Mr. Kile returned Tuesday night from Hood River, Ore., where he had been on business. Wednesday morning he started out early, supposedly with the intention of going hunting. Said he was going up in the timber, west, to a neighbor's. Next he was seen was in the timber back of the Trout Lake postoffice, which is south and east of his home. He came down into the road and passed by the postoffice. C. W. Moore, the postmaster, heard his dog barking and noticed he acted strangely, so opened the gate and the dog went up to the spot where Mr. Kile was lying, immediately. Evidently Mr. Kile had sat down on the bank of an irrigation ditch, placing the gun firmly in the damp soil at his feet, holding his head over the muzzle while he reached down and pulled the trigger. This could easily be done, as the rifle was a short 22 calibre. Mr. Moore immediately summoned a physician, but Mr. Kile died in a short time, the bullet having entered the forehead. The deceased was taken to Hood River, Ore., for burial under the auspices of the Odd Fellows. He leaves a wife and seven children. He was formerly from the south, moved to Trout Lake a short time ago from Parkdale, Ore.

The local Water Users Association, which furnishes water for several families, held a business meeting last week and is considering the advisability of incorporating.

J. S. Eddings and G. H. Darland, from the east end of the county, visited our valley last week campaigning.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lee returned Tuesday after a week's visit in Portland.

Mrs. Hillas Gentry and Mrs. E. L. Pennock will entertain the business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Thursday, today, at the home of Mrs. Pennock.

Miss Northey, county librarian, visited the city Monday in the interest of the library.

Miss McDonald attended the Eastern Star banquet in Hood River Tuesday.

Mrs. E. L. Pennock, Mrs. Leo, Torrey, A. E. Kelly, compose the library board as appointed by the county court.

Miss Thorpe has left to spend the winter in California.

Mrs. Lane, wife of the depot agent, will spend several weeks in Portland.

The young people will be entertained on Halloween with a party in the hall.

A meeting was held in the Baptist church in the interest of Oregon dry one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Smallwood are occupying the Cameron house on Taylor street.

K. C. Bucklin has set out climbing roses at the front of his Blacksmith shop, to run up over the windows. It will make an attractive front.

Mr. Volstorff, on Thirteenth street, is putting an addition to his residence.

Mr. Blount, on Twelfth street, is building a house for his son, Tel, on the lot south of his own residence. It is to be a six room bungalow.

W. H. Taft was to have started for Oregon last Sunday, and will stop off at Castle Rock, Wash., for a short visit with his brother, J. W. Taft, and wife. He has been in Wisconsin the past two months, visiting his mother, who is past 82 years old; also a brother and other relatives and friends.

Chas. Tucker made a splendid catch of salmon trout recently.

There is to be a parade of all the children of town and valley who can be brought together next Saturday at 2 o'clock, the line of march forming at the Christian church. The Sunday school and public schools are all invited. We are trying taking this way to give the children a chance to help make Oregon dry. Each one will be given a badge to wear. The older ones are asked to join the parade also. Be at the Christian church promptly at 2 o'clock. The days are short and unless we are on time it will make it late.

W. O. Coleman, Jr., left Tuesday via Portland for his home in Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. J. H. Daily and Miss Ruth Clement were shopping in Hood River one day this week.

Mrs. Ed F. Reeves returned home Thursday evening from a few days' stay in Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Johnson entertained at Wednesday evening dinner the following guests at her home in Mosier: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Strauss, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Birken, Mrs. M. J. Shogren, Mr. Merrill and Mr. Burpee. The floral decorations for the occasion were beautiful red and white dahlias. The red dahlias were used in the reception hall and living room, while the dinnings room and table were lovely with perfect white blossoms in cut glass bowls. The following menu was served: Grape fruit with Maracchino cherries and sherry wine, tomato soup with whipped cream, celery, roast mutton, green peas, scalloped potatoes, plum pudding angel cake, coffee. During the evening games and music were enjoyed. Delicious home made candy was also passed among the guests by the hostess and children. About 11.30 p. m. the assembled guests departed for their homes.

W. E. Chown was in Hood River Friday forenoon.

Mrs. J. W. Huskey was in Hood River Friday.

Workmen are now busy putting in a concrete sidewalk around the east and south sides of the bank building.

George Chamberlain returned home Friday evening from Alaska, where he spent the last five months with a government surveying party.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson and a party of friends from The Dalles spent part of the day on Mr. Wilson's ranch south of Mosier.

Mrs. L. Vickers, of The Dalles, spent Sunday in Mosier with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Evans.

W. E. Chown was in Hood River Friday forenoon.

Mrs. J. W. Huskey was in Hood River Friday.

Workmen are now busy putting in a concrete sidewalk around the east and south sides of the bank building.

George Chamberlain returned home Friday evening from Alaska, where he spent the last five months with a government surveying party.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson and a party of friends from The Dalles spent part of the day on Mr. Wilson's ranch south of Mosier.

Mrs. L. Vickers, of The Dalles, spent Sunday in Mosier with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Evans.

W. E. Chown was in Hood River Friday forenoon.

Mrs. J. W. Huskey was in Hood River Friday.

Workmen are now busy putting in a concrete sidewalk around the east and south sides of the bank building.

George Chamberlain returned home Friday evening from Alaska, where he spent the last five months with a government surveying party.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson and a party of friends from The Dalles spent part of the day on Mr. Wilson's ranch south of Mosier.

Mrs. L. Vickers, of The Dalles, spent Sunday in Mosier with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Evans.

at 2.30. No extra admission will be charged for taking automobiles or carriages inside the grounds.

The literary society will meet tonight. The program includes a short play, recitations and a debate between four junior boys. Mark Moe and Julius Johnson will debate Leonard Howard and Art Johnson on the Normal school situation which will be voted on next month.

A plan is now started to serve a hot lunch to the high school students at noon. If enough of the students want this instituted arrangements will be made to serve them at cost. Over 30 students ride in from surrounding districts and many of the school students live at a great distance from the school, and from these it is hoped that enough will enter into this to make the plan prove feasible.

Floyd Berry, who was in the freshman class last year and was catcher on the base ball team part of the season, came in from the tall timber and entered school again. The enrollment has now reached 187 and is rapidly approaching the two century mark.

The student body met last Friday and finished the election of officers. "Bung" Button was elected vice president of the student body. Jack Stanton, athletic editor of the Mascot; Mae Shay, vice president of the literary society, and Frederick Coshov, sergeant at arms of the literary society.

The student council met last Friday to discuss plans for the class parties this year. The student council this year has 14 members, as follows: Prof. McLaughlin, Helen Sutforth, Hilma Imholz, Dorcas DeWitt, Mary Sheppard, Laurence Hersinger, Allan Button, Fred Coshov, Clifford Porter, Jack Stanton, John Allen, Bryan Abraham, Aubrey Pape and Lee Spaulding.

The Hood River high foot ball team defeated the second team last Friday 38-0. This was probably the hardest practice the first team has run up against this year. The scrimmage were rough and the scrubs fought hard, but were unable to score. However, in the last quarter they showed real pep and pushed the first team down the field to the 15 yard line.

Miss Flora Furrow is back at her desk again, presiding over the history and mathematics classes.

The eighth grade pupils quartered on the lower floor at the high school building declared a strike on their "dear teachers" last Monday. The artillery used peanuts for ammunition and soon made the teacher hunt for cover. The teacher, Miss Shuck, hoisted a flag of truce but even this was unavailing as the besieging host kept up the firing till they were short of gubers. Then the teacher came out from under her desk. The enemy retreated and the janitor cleaned up the spoils of war.

Coach Crites didn't like the way his foot ball team was practicing Monday night, so got in the game as full back all they were short of gubers. Then the teacher came out from under her desk. The enemy retreated and the janitor cleaned up the spoils of war.

Coach Crites didn't like the way his foot ball team was practicing Monday night, so got in the game as full back all they were short of gubers. Then the teacher came out from under her desk. The enemy retreated and the janitor cleaned up the spoils of war.

Coach Crites didn't like the way his foot ball team was practicing Monday night, so got in the game as full back all they were short of gubers. Then the teacher came out from under her desk. The enemy retreated and the janitor cleaned up the spoils of war.

Coach Crites didn't like the way his foot ball team was practicing Monday night, so got in the game as full back all they were short of gubers. Then the teacher came out from under her desk. The enemy retreated and the janitor cleaned up the spoils of war.

Coach Crites didn't like the way his foot ball team was practicing Monday night, so got in the game as full back all they were short of gubers. Then the teacher came out from under her desk. The enemy retreated and the janitor cleaned up the spoils of war.