A PUNY WALL

The Hood River News contained a puny editorial wall yesterday morning on newspaper enterprise.

Did anyone in Hood River see representatives of the News working their heads off securing figures on the election?

Not long ago the News was over-enterprising. A story was sent out by the United States Department of Agriculture.

RELATIVE TO THE LIGHTING RATES

We note that the Hood River News, which contained such a glowing editorial in last week's issue relative to the fairness of lighting rates...

The people of Hood River and the interest in the lighting rates, and the proposed increase as asked by the companies.

Should the people of Hood River pay exorbitant lighting rates that the companies may make return on an outrageous valuation?

Should the people of Hood River pay to keep two offices in operation, when one, with less rent tape would take care of the business?

Doesn't it seem to be a fact that the two local companies are separate and distinct in name only?

Marking Progress

The opening of the new Hood River creamery Tuesday has a new mile post in the road of progress for Hood River county.

This week Hood River people will find it possible to serve butter from a home creamery on their tables.

Think of the delicious breakfasts you may now have from Hood River products. Spread Hood River butter over your hotcakes and then apply Hood River apple cider syrup.

REDMOND BANKER ROUSES CLUBMEN

Guy E. Dobson, a banker of Redmond, who in a recent campaign in Crook county for county division, is alleged to have grossly misrepresented conditions in Hood River county in his effort to defeat the county division.

A magnificent offer of F. B. Cram to the Volunteer fire department, to equip his automobile with chemical apparatus to be used in extinguishing fires in their earlier stage and before the heavier city apparatus could be transported to the scene, was read.

D. McDonald, W. N. Winter and D. C. Crankshaw were appointed a committee to make nominations for the board of directors, the candidates to be voted on at the December election.

On motion of E. O. Blanchard, a vote of thanks was extended to the mayor and retiring council for their efficient administration.

A Good Start by Henry.

They were discussing the announcements of new books. One said: "I understand that Henry James is at work on a new thing."

"My information," said another, "is that he has already completed the greater part of the opening sentence."

The Most Expensive Sport.

"The most expensive sport of all," said Lord Wimborne on one occasion, "is not polo, but yachting."

Does Not Blush Unseen.

The old fashioned girl who used to be ashamed to blush now has a daughter who has to stop in front of every mirror she sees and add a little color to her cheeks.
