Seattle, June 15, 1903

GENTLEMEN:

We beg to announce that we have purchased the business and good will of J. M. Hixson & Co., the pioneer commission house of Seattle, and that hereafter same will be conducted under our firm name.

The business will be continued at the present location, 821-823 Western Avenue.

We feel that we have unequalled facilities to represent our shippers, customers and friends in every department of the business, and assure them that their interests will be handled in the best possible manner in the future as in the past.

Thanking patrons for courtesies extended, and hoping to merit a continuance of same, we remain,

Very truly yours,

RYAN & NEWTON CO.
