County News.

Bristol.

Bristol is well represented at the Silver Lake camp-meeting.

The new house on Garfield street is up, enclosed and shingled.

We need rain in this vicinity. Crops are suffering for lack of moisture.

H. C. Munsil has sold two building lots on Maple street to Pat. O'Neil.

Ed. Parker, Col. Dunshee's head salesman, is spending his vacation at Highgate.

Clifton Smith of Middlebury was in town, Saturday, looking after his town hall contract.

Tom Casey has recovered from his illness and returned to his clerkship at C. P. Abernethy's.

R. L. Stewart has torn away the back part of his house, sold it to Pat. O'Neil and proposes to build a new and larger one.

Rev. Mr. Coombs of the Baptist church returned from his vacation last Saturday and exchanged with Rev. Mr. Gilbert of Hinesburgh last Sunday.

East Middlebury.

Fruits of almost every kind to a limited degree will be a failure.

Grass has not met the expectations of farmers generally. It is now about ready to cut. The showers were timely; nevertheless crops are feeling the drought.

The village school—district No. 2—Misses E. McQuivey and H. Farr teachers, closed their term on Friday, the 27th, with a picnic in Mr. L. Russell's grove near the grist mill. Exercises in recitations and compositions were held. The services opened by prayer by Rev. S. W. Bidwell. A large number were called to the platform and took part, being repeatedly applauded. They all did nobly. "Bright jewels" was rendered by a trio of young misses—Palmer, Clark and Fadden, in a happy manner. Leslie Mott, a young boy, read the only composition in a manly style. The programme was filled out by that same trio singing "Work for the night is coming." An adjournment was then taken to the tables, bountifully laden with such collations as the ladies of this place know how to prepare. All feasted the inner man, and the motto was, had a good time.

Monkton.

Parties are daily visiting our pond for fish.

Many of the farmers have commenced haying.

The Friends Sabbath school and Methodist Sabbath school unite in going to the lake for a picnic.

Rev. Mr. Coombs of Bristol has been engaged to preach at the Boro' every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Rev. David Tatum of Cleveland, Ohio, delivered a very able lecture upon "Intemperance" at the Friends church, Sunday evening.

Rev. Mr. Bennie Kellogg, formerly of this place, preached at the Friends church at the Ridge last Sunday morning, and at the Boro' in the afternoon.

Children's day will be observed on Thursday, July 19, as appointed by the State superintendent of the W. C. T. U. by a temperance picnic in Mr. Skiff's grove. The several schools in town unite with the W. C. T. U. and Band of Hope society. Mrs. J. K. Barney of Rhode Island is to deliver the address. They will meet at the town hall at 10 o'clock and march to the grove, where the exercises will be held, which will consist of recitations, dialogues and singing by the children. A good time is anticipated; a general invitation is extended to all to come, both old and young.

Orwell.

Some of the farmers have begun haying.

W. B. Wright has purchased another saddle horse.

Mr. Leland Murray is among the list of sick this week.

Strawberries are selling in the village for 25 cents a quart.

E. D. Griswold has recently purchased a very fine saddle horse from Lexington, Ky.

Mrs. Byron Abbey and daughter, Eva, have gone to Rutland to spend the Fourth of July.

D. S. Wells, telegraph operator and assistant book-keeper in the Orwell bank, is having a vacation.

Miss Caro Comaford, who has been in Boston for several months, studying music, is at home on a vacation.

Miss Louisa Orth of Boston, sister of the celebrated pianist, John Orth, of the same place, is in town spending the summer months. She is expecting to organize a class.

Misses Jennie and Julia Royce gave a party for their young friends last Saturday afternoon. A goodly number were present, and all seemed to enjoy themselves exceedingly, notwithstanding the heat.

Panton.

The review of the lessons of the quarter at the M. E. church by the Sunday school was a very interesting entertainment. The pulpit and altars were profusely decorated with house plants and bouquets of flowers and tastefully trimmed with evergreens. The explanations of the golden texts and comments upon each lesson by the officers and the school was very explicit, while the recitations by the children were excellent. "Angel Echoes," by Mrs. Mary Gordon, was given with all her old-time excellence of recitation. The exercises closed by a distribution of the illustrations of the quarter to the little folks. Another will be held in three months.

New Haven.

Rev. E. H. Byington has been in town a few days.

The new freight house at the depot is nearly completed.

D. H. Squier has been on a business trip to Washington.

Miss Flora Langdon is thought to be gaining under the oxygen treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris McDonald of Potsdam, N. Y., have been visiting in the family of L. W. Stowe.

Haying has commenced in earnest. The crop is much lighter than was expected. Help is scarce, and wages are high.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Boynton of Boiling Springs, Ala., arrived last week and will spend some time among their many friends here. Mrs. Boynton is a sister of Mr. S. B. M. Cowles.

A few days since we received a basket of fine large strawberries from the garden of Moses DePoutre. They were of the Downing and Bidwell varieties. He has other kinds which ripen later.

We are glad to notice an improved condition in Mr. Dana's health. He has ridden out a few times, which must be a happy change after the close confinement of eight months to his room.

Rev. C. S. Sargent preached in Bennington last Sunday. Rev. Roger Sargent, father of the pastor, occupied the pulpit in this place, giving an excellent discourse upon the uses of the one talent given us.

William Baldwin of Brooksville died suddenly in his bed at 10 o'clock on the night of the 26th. He had lived several years upon Town Hill in the employ of farmers in that section, and was a quiet and respectable citizen. He married the youngest daughter of Antoine Loraine, who survives him.

A pleasant wedding occurred on the afternoon of the 25th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Hinman. The parties married were Mr. J. Saxton Bird of Pentwater, Mich., (for many years a resident of this town) and Miss Marian A., youngest daughter of the late Horace Sprague of this place, and sister of Mrs. Hinman. Mr. and Mrs. Bird left on the mail train for their home in the West, amid the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends.

Vergennes.

G. F. O. Kimball has been appointed notary public.

It is rumored that S. S. Gaines will build a skating rink.

Dr. G. O. W. Farnham is thinking of locating in this vicinity.

Miss Collins of Monkton is quite sick at the house of her sister, Mrs. S. A. Tuttle.

There were services in only the Episcopal and Methodist churches last Sunday.

Several of our young folks enjoyed a trout supper at mine host Riddle's in Bristol.

Two loads of Gypsies passed through our city Tuesday. They were supplied with some very good horses.

Many farmers in this vicinity have begun their haying. Grass is quite poor, especially on the old meadows.

Potatoes, which a short time since were hardly worth the taking from the cellar, are now selling at 50 cents a bushel.

F. A. Woodbridge and Geo. F. Kimball made a flying trip to Elizabethtown, N. Y., stopping at the Valley House, of course.

Geo. Rogers was quite seriously injured at the stove-store of Powers & Kimball, while assisting in the unloading of a stove.

A. N. Allen lost a sucking colt on Friday of last week, of lay fever. It was a valuable one, sired by "Burgie" otherwise known as the Satterly horse.

Andrew Sears and Nic Dudalaw were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Kimball, on complaint of Fish Warden Fisher, for violation of the fish law, and falling to give bail, were committed to the jail at Middlebury to await trial July 7.

H. F. Willard of St. Louis is home for a short visit to his many friends in this vicinity. He is looking well and is one of the many Vergennes boys that have gone to the West and made their mark. He is in the hotel business in the above-named city.

Howard Clark, the Republican nominee for sheriff of this county, was in town last Monday. He has hosts of friends in this section, and for that matter all over the county. This county can congratulate themselves on the popularity of the sheriff of the past six years and of the one to be.

Joseph Naffor and Daniel Slattery were brought before Hon. F. E. Woodbridge for illegal fishing and pleaded guilty and were fined $100 and costs each. Hon. G. W. Grandey defended. Not being able to procure bail they were taken to the county jail. Whittemore & Wheeler of Burlington prosecuted.

State and Vicinity.

C. B. Ramey, an old Fairhaven farmer, was struck by a train there the other day and probably fatally injured. His horse was killed outright.

Edward Burnham of Springfield was fined $204 Thursday for selling liquor, 19 offences being proved. That night he escaped from the constable and is not to be found.

These nominations have been made by the Republicans of Essex county: Senator, Hon. Samuel D. Hobson; assistant judges, Hon. Wm. H. Hartshorn, Hon. E. R. Turner; judge of probate, David H. Bentle; state's attorney, F. D. Hale; sheriff, S. E. Grant.

Ex-Treasurer J. M. Haven of the Rutland railroad telegraphs the New York Tribune that he was not a defaulter last year, the dispatch being called out by the statement of ex-President Page of the road to a Tribune reporter that the treasurer defaulted for nearly $100,000. The public were informed last year that $40,000 had been stolen from the road,
