

RED-LETTER EVENT.

Local Odd Fellows to Receive Grand Master Havens.

Wednesday evening, April 15, 1903, promises to become noted in the annals of Odd Fellowship in this town.

WOODFORD

C. W. Cutler has gone back to his home to live.

Julius Bartlett has been out of town on a vacation.

Margaret Temple has been in Rutland on business.

Samuel Mallory and wife are living at the old homestead.

J. F. Smith's sprained foot is troubling him quite badly.

Adolphus DeForge has moved into one of J. F. Smith's houses.

Mrs. Edward Adams is visiting her mother at Pittsfield, Mass.

Elizabeth Dinwiddie is at home from high school for the Easter vacation.

Uncle Stephen Gleason and Chillian Lackey occasionally turn their hands at stage driving.

Rev. Wm. Scott of Newark N. J., was in town last Sunday and held service in the Union church.

David Crawford has returned from Cheshire, Mass., where he had been running the Adams Brothers' saw mill.

I have just received a letter from Geo. W. Turner, Hydraulic, Colorado, who was one of the "boys" in Woodford thirty years ago.

Our wild cat item last week was "set" under the Arlington items.

Uncle Ike has been here with his head high up and set more traps.

George Hawks has begun the building of his "primitive" summer cottage on the Waters hill. Mr. Estes says he will sell more lots up there.

Road Commissioner Bowles, although he sometimes does things up brown, says his name is not Brown, as the Banner and Reformer had it last week.

Elmer Gleason has returned from West Cheshire, Conn., where he had been visiting his brother Francis. Uncle Daniel will not come home for some time because of poor health.

Mrs. Preston N. Weld has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Eddy of Bennington and young Earle has visited Leslie Weld. Mrs. H. L. Weld does not improve as fast in health as her many friends wish.

Little Florence Pratt of Bennington has come to live with Geo. W. Bickford and wife. Last week Wednesday was Mr. Bickford's 79th birthday. Recently, in speaking of Kilpatrick's raid we omitted to say that Mr. Bickford was another of the Woodford boys who was in it.

A Card. We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.

J. T. Shurtleff, J. M. Ayres, O. E. Gibson, B. A. Quinlan, C. H. Houghton, North Bennington, C. R. & A. B. Hawkins, So. Shaftsbury, O. E. Adams, Arlington, E. C. Woodworth, O. E. Adams & Co. East Arlington.

Notice. Came into my possession on Sunday, March 15, a black and white shepherd dog. Owner can have the same by proving property and paying charges and cost of this notice. Mrs. DesLaurier, 167 County-st. 9w3

Closing out entire stock of stoves, furnitures, etc., in order to move. Less than cost. C. H. Potter.

NOTABLE WEDDING.

John H. Cushman and Miss Georgiana Lord.

MARRIED LAST SATURDAY

At Home of the Bride's Father, Irvington-on-the-Hudson—Will Live in New York.

The marriage of Miss Georgiana Wendel Lord, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Lord of Irvington-on-the-Hudson, to John Henry Cushman of North Bennington took place at the bride's home Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The marriage of Miss Georgiana Wendel Lord, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Lord of Irvington-on-the-Hudson, to John Henry Cushman of North Bennington took place at the bride's home Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The bride was escorted to where the groom was in waiting by her father who gave her away. She was gowned in white duchess satin with old point lace, the white tulle veil was caught by orange blossoms and she carried bridal roses.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

The best man was William C. H. Cushman, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Frederick A. Lord, Frank H. Lord, Warren B. Crow and Lyman W. Crow.

MARTIN—PERCEY.

A Pretty April Wedding Occurred Last Evening at 8 O'clock.

The first April wedding of the year took place Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Martin on East Main-st., when their daughter, Alice Frances, was married to Nelson Barton Percy of North Hoosick.

There was quite an attendance of relatives and friends, including 14 young ladies comprising the Sunday school class of the bride. The ushers were Ward L. Lyons, Harry Coates, Miss Mabel Smith and Miss Julia Riley.

The bride was attired in white silk landsdowne, trimmed with white chiffon and grape medallions, and carried flowers. The bridesmaid, Miss Lila Percy, wore white Persian lawn, with lace trimmings, and carried daybreak carnations. The best man was James W. Martin, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony was a reception, with refreshments. There was a fine display of wedding presents.

The bride has been quite active in church and Sunday school work, and for several years was soloist in the Baptist church choir.

After a ten days' wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Percy will take rooms with her parents.

STATE COM.'S. TESTIMONY.

Thinks that Bennington Has Excellent Road Material in its Blue Limestone.

In answer to a letter written by J. H. Livingston, chairman of the street committee of the Board of Trustees of Bennington, Hon. J. O. Sanford, State Highway Commissioner, answers:

"In reply to your inquiry I send you under separate cover the circular letter for 1903, which contains the law and regulations.

"Cities and incorporated villages are large contributors to the state highway fund by their five per cent state tax, and some of them fail to receive their apportionment simply because they neglect to get in contact with the state commissioner and his representatives.

"I believe that Bennington has an excellent road material for building streets in its blue limestone.

"Some seven or eight years ago I saw a macadam pavement being laid in your village, and also visited the rock crushing plant where stones taken from the river bed were being used in this work.

"While at the county road meeting in Bennington recently, I went upon that street to learn its condition and found it well preserved after so many years' use.

"Inquiring of a resident (M. B. Houghton) upon the street I was told that the pavement was built and surfaced with the river bed stone—hard heads—and little had been expended upon it since.

"Later in the day I invited the town commissioners to look at it as a road under traffic for at least seven years, and surfaced with hard heads, a material generally condemned by expert road builders.

"While there the second time I discovered that the surface is blue limestone, well concreted and standing the wear of traffic wonderfully well. Evidently the hard head material was used in the base with limestone surface. Cobblestones from fields or streams may be very hard, but they lack the more essential qualities of toughness and cementing together."

"Everybody knows that lime is calcined limestone. This forms a cement or concrete when mixed with sand. Portland cement is made of limestone and clay, about 75 per cent of the former to 25 per cent of the latter, calcined and ground to a flour. Lime hardens in the air, cement under water. Limestone when ground into a powder and uncalcined will concrete in the sun and rain. The abrasion of limestone pavement under street traffic will continue to concrete so long as there is any body of it left.

"Quartzite is a granular quartz, or compressed sand, with no cementing qualities whatever.

"J. M. Cumstock, the statistician of the Congregational churches of Vermont has compiled his report for the national year book and all but one of the 210 churches have been heard from. The present membership is 21,775, an increase of 103 over 1901. The Sunday school membership is 19,141, an increase of 619 over 1901, but there has been a loss in the membership of the young people's societies, the number dropping from 633 to 617. The home expenditures for the year were $217,646, an increase of $9282 over the previous year. The churches gave $46,424 for benevolence, which is a decrease of $1267 from 1901.

"Prof. McDonald & Co., palmists and phrenologists at 441 Main-st., give life readings daily, regarding business success, health, marriage, affairs of the heart, business, domestic troubles and all other matters. They are experts in their profession, having had long experience. Their phenomenal, scientific advice is a life benefit to both sexes.

"Makes a Clean Sweep. There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the Salves you ever heard of Bue-Jen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures burns, sores, bruises, cuts, boils, warts, skin eruptions and piles. It's out 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by O. E. Gibson, druggist.

"Prof. McDonald & Co., palmists and phrenologists at 441 Main-st., give life readings daily, regarding business success, health, marriage, affairs of the heart, business, domestic troubles and all other matters. They are experts in their profession, having had long experience. Their phenomenal, scientific advice is a life benefit to both sexes.

"Prof. McDonald & Co., palmists and phrenologists at 441 Main-st., give life readings daily, regarding business success, health, marriage, affairs of the heart, business, domestic troubles and all other matters. They are experts in their profession, having had long experience. Their phenomenal, scientific advice is a life benefit to both sexes.

"Prof. McDonald & Co., palmists and phrenologists at 441 Main-st., give life readings daily, regarding business success, health, marriage, affairs of the heart, business, domestic troubles and all other matters. They are experts in their profession, having had long experience. Their phenomenal, scientific advice is a life benefit to both sexes.

"Prof. McDonald & Co., palmists and phrenologists at 441 Main-st., give life readings daily, regarding business success, health, marriage, affairs of the heart, business, domestic troubles and all other matters. They are experts in their profession, having had long experience. Their phenomenal, scientific advice is a life benefit to both sexes.

"Prof. McDonald & Co., palmists and phrenologists at 441 Main-st., give life readings daily, regarding business success, health, marriage, affairs of the heart, business, domestic troubles and all other matters. They are experts in their profession, having had long experience. Their phenomenal, scientific advice is a life benefit to both sexes.

"Prof. McDonald & Co., palmists and phrenologists at 441 Main-st., give life readings daily, regarding business success, health, marriage, affairs of the heart, business, domestic troubles and all other matters. They are experts in their profession, having had long experience. Their phenomenal, scientific advice is a life benefit to both sexes.

"Prof. McDonald & Co., palmists and phrenologists at 441 Main-st., give life readings daily, regarding business success, health, marriage, affairs of the heart, business, domestic troubles and all other matters. They are experts in their profession, having had long experience. Their phenomenal, scientific advice is a life benefit to both sexes.

PROGRAMS FOR EASTER

Great Festival of Flowers Comes Next Sunday

MUSIC FOR OCCASION

This is Holy Week, the Last of Lent—Sunday Services Will Celebrate Close of the Season.

This is Holy week and in observance of it special services are being held in the churches of the town. To-day, Maundy Thursday and to-morrow will be good Friday; there will be services at St. Peter's church, St. Francis de Sales and the Sacred Heart church.

Special musical programs have been prepared for Easter Sunday, three of them being given below:

Sunday next at the Second Congregational church will be observed as Easter. In the morning the pastor will preach upon The Return to Life. The choir will sing from Woodman, Costa, Bartlett and Schilling. The evening concert by the Bible school will commence at 7. A competent committee led by Mrs. W. S. C. Russell as chairman has the program in charge and an enjoyable time is expected. Printed orders of both services will be available at the church on Sunday morning.

The Old First Church. The following is the order of service for Easter at the Old First church: Organ Prelude.

Anthem, "The Lord is my Strength," Caleb Simper. Doxology. Invocation. Responsive Reading. Gloria Patri.

Hymn, "Oh, could I speak the Matchless Worth." Scripture Lesson. Anthem, "The Lord of Life is Risen," A. F. Loud.

Prayer. Anthem, Offertory, "Why seek the Living?" (with soprano solo). B. Percy James. Sermon by the Pastor. Prayer.

Hymn, "Mighty God! while Angels Bless Thee." Benediction. Organ Postlude. St. Peter's Church.

6 O'CLOCK A. M. Pro. Hymn,—No. 121. Gloria Tibi, Gratus Tibi, Anthem, "As it began to dawn," Vincent Schneckler.

Sanctus, Benedictus qui venit, Hymn,—No. 116. Gloria in Excelsis. Hymn,—No. 122.

10.30 A. M. Pro. Hymn,—No. 121. Anthem, "Christ our Passover," Webb T. Deum, Holden Benedictus. Introit Anthem, "When the Sabbath was past," Foster Hall Schneckler.

Kyrie, Gloria Tibi, Gratus Tibi, Crede, Hymn,—No. 122. Anthem, "As it began to dawn," Vincent Schneckler.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei, Gloria in Excelsis, Hymn,—No. 112.

5 O'CLOCK P. M. Children's Choral Service. Miss Jones, Organist; R. O. Goldsmith, Choir Master.

The choir will be assisted by Miss Luella T. Goldsmith, Miss Rena B. Wood and William D. Forbes. First Baptist Church.

10.30 A. M. Organ Prelude. "Holy, Holy, Holy." Lord's Prayer. Easter Carol,— "Sweet Day Awake," Kinder.

Responsive Reading: "Let not your heart be troubled." Gloria. Scripture scenes from the Resurrection.

Anthem, "They have taken away my Lord," C. W. Harrington Prayer. Hymn,— "The Lord hath triumphed gloriously."

Offertory. Sermon by the Pastor. Hymn,— "Our Saviour and our King." A special Easter program will be followed in the departments of the Bible school from 12 to 1 o'clock.

7.00 P. M. Organ Prelude.

TIFFT WAS MADE CHIEF.

Succeeds Godfrey as Head of Police Department.

VOTE OF FOUR TO THREE.

New Board of Trustees Began Business Tuesday Night—Many Bills to be Paid.

The first regular meeting of the Board of Village Trustees was held Monday evening, every member of the board together with the other officers being present, also a large delegation in the lobby. President Fillmore presided. This being the first official meeting there were more or less discussions about various matters until the board was called to order. One feature that seemed to predominate was that of holding the expenditure of the year to the lowest point, and that no bills should be paid or contracts made until referred to the proper committees for investigation, and to the entire board for approval.

The most interest in the meeting was over the election of chief of police, for which there were two candidates: Fred Godfrey who had held the position for several years, and Fred E. Tift. The result of the ballot was for Tift, Murray, Livingston, Lyons, Gokay; for Godfrey, Loneragan, Battles, Peart.

It was voted that the chief should draw pay only when on patrol. John P. Murphy was appointed regular policeman, other appointments if made, to come later. James Kelley and Arthur Russell were appointed special policemen, without pay, and William McGurn special for the parochial school and grounds.

The street commissioner was instructed to make temporary repairs to Desey street.

Bills to the amount of $2,725 were ordered paid. As there is only about $100 in the treasury, the finance committee were instructed to borrow what amount was necessary at the lowest rate of interest possible, until taxes begin to be paid. The bills were carefully examined before being ordered paid, and it was near midnight before the board adjourned.

Charles M. Cram, of the census department at Washington, D. C., was in town last week and the first of this week, making investigations as to the town and county affairs, which are required by that department in its inquiry as to wealth, debt and taxation. Mr. Cram will visit all the county seats of this state, having gone from here to Rutland.

Gov McCullough and staff will leave North Bennington the 28th of this month to be present at the opening of the centennial of the Louisiana Purchase, which takes place in St Louis April 30. E. L. Bates, secretary of civil and military affairs, Adjutant General Gilmore, and probably some of the prominent citizens of the state will accompany the party. The trip will be made in Pullman cars, but the route and headquarters while in St Louis have not yet been fully determined upon.

The camp fire given Saturday evening by Custer Post was not as largely attended as usual, as the night was inclement. Those who were there report a good time. Commander Dennis presided. Past Department Commander Puffer who was present gave a talk. There were musical selections, vocal and instrumental, including selections by Mrs. Sullivan's orchestra, readings by Miss Dakin, and other forms of entertainment. An important part of the evening's program was the bounteous supply of rations furnished and served by the W. R. C.

James K. Miller, who formerly resided here, died last Friday in Coxsack, N. Y., where he had been living for several years. Deceased was in poor health for some time before he left here, and for the past three years had been practically helpless. Mr. Miller was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Coxsack. He was about 58 years of age and is survived by a wife and one daughter. When a resident of Bennington Mr. Miller was in the boot and shoe business in the store now occupied by Mulligan & Roche.

Neil Burgess' new play "A Daughter of the Revolution" in which he is to appear at the Opera House Saturday evening not only gives him unrivalled opportunities to display the inimitable comedy for which he is famous, but also a chance for his equally remarkable talent in the strong dramatic situations in which the play abounds, and in which Hannah Thurber, whose part he takes, is of course invariably the leading figure. Hannah Thurber is a real character, and most of the incidents of the play have been found in old diaries and in the folk lore of the little Connecticut town where she lived.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fall to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at O. E. Gibson's drug store.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Phisade plus, as