

BARRE EVENING TELEGRAM.

VOL. V NO. 149.

BARRE, VT., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1902.

PRICE ONE CENT.

A.A. Smith & Bro.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Remember Our Shoe Sale at $2.47.

Also High Grade Shirts Being Closed at 43 and 89 each.

Remember Our New Fall Styles in Hats Gloves Hosiery Neckwear Underwear and the Latest in Shirts.

A.A. Smith & Bro.

MEN'S COMPLETE OUTFITTERS.

Miles Granite Block, Barre

THE HAZARD Steel And Wire Rope

COMPY

These goods are handled and kept in stock by the—

Barre Supply Co.

TELEPHONE 51-3.

THE GLENNIE CASE

Attorney Senter Raises A Point Of Law In The G. C. N. U. Embezzlement Case

(Special to TELEGRAM.)

Montpelier, Oct. 4. — In county court yesterday afternoon the case of state vs Alexander Glennie was put on for trial and a jury was secured about 4 o'clock. When Clerk Smilie proceeded to read the indictment to the jury the spectators smiled, for apart of the indictment consisted of a list of two or three hundred names of members of the Montpelier Granite Cutters Union and Mr. Smilie appeared to be rather unfamiliar with the pronunciation of some of them not of American origin. Glennie is charged with embezzling, it being alleged that he appropriated to his own use about one thousand dollars of the money belonging to the union, and which he held in his capacity of financial secretary. A year ago last summer it was thought there was something wrong, and an investigation was started. Before it was concluded Glennie disappeared but was afterwards arrested in Canada and returned in charge of Officer Tracy, waiving extradition proceedings. The grand jury that indicted him.

At the close of the reading of the indictment, John H. Senter, counsel for the respondent raised a point of law which he claimed should free the respondent. The jury was sent from the room and Mr. Senter stated his intention, which was to the effect that even if Glennie did take the money as alleged he could not be held under an indictment for embezzlement owing to the fact that he was a member of the Union himself. The union was set up as a co-partnership and Mr. Senter presented decisions to the effect that a partner who took a partnership money was not an embezzler as he would not steal from himself. The arguments on this point were not concluded when court took a recess until morning. J. P. Lamson is assisting State's Attorney Hoar in the prosecution and W. A. Lord is assisting Mr. Senter in the defense.

Judge Watson this morning ruled the case out of court on the grounds of Mr. Senter's objections.

The case now on trial is that of Carpenter vs. Wildey, the famous marriage annulment case from Waitsfield and Waterbury.

LOCAL TICKET AGENT IS ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

George B. Marden, local station agent of the M. & W. R.R., was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff H. J. Slayton on a warrant issued by Judge M. E. Smilie of Montpelier, sworn out by the officers of the road, charging him with embezzling the funds of the road.

The auditor checked up the accounts yesterday and found a shortage. This is said to be over $500. As soon as this fact was known the warrant was sworn out and the officials came up from Montpelier on a special train to enquire into the matter.

As Mr. Marden could not settle he was given into the charge of the officer and has not yet been brought to trial. It is expected that some of his people will be in Montpelier today to settle up matters.

Mr. Marden came to this road from Jefferson, N. H., and had been employed on the Boston & Maine railroad before coming to Barre.

It is not generally believed in Barre that he has taken any of the money, but that the alleged shortage is due to the faulty manner in which his accounts were kept. He has been here only since August 1st.

AT BARGE OFFICE.

Thousands of Italians Struggle With Police In New York.

New York, Oct. 4.—There was a riot at the barge office when the police attempted to keep back a crowd of about 4,000 persons, mostly Italians, who had gathered for the purpose of going to Ellis Island to see if their friends were among the 1,385 emigrants that had arrived here on the steamship Roma of the Adriatic line from Italy.

Long before the time for the first boat to leave the crowd began to arrive, many provided with passes. When the gates were opened, there was a rush and Patrolmen Smith and Dickey and Detectives Panerelli and Quackenbush found they could do nothing with the crowd. With the assistance of several attendants the gates were again closed and not opened again until a few minutes before the next boat left. By this time 4,000 persons, it was estimated, were waiting for an opportunity to get on the boat.

The police were again unable to cope with the crowd, many of whom did not have passes, and Detective Quackenbush telephoned to the Church street station for help. In a few minutes the reserves had arrived and by frequent use of their long staves drove the crowd back. This was not done until many had received injuries.

Something to Dramatize.

"There's the most ignorant man I ever met. He thinks that Julius Caesar was emperor of Germany."

"What a charming historical novel he could write!"—San Francisco Town Talk.

After the Vacation.

They're coming home from vacation and mountain nooks. All brown and tired and wanting. That they hadn't come away.

A Canine Vehicle.

"It is not considered the right thing to ride to bounds in an automobile," said Speys.

"Of course not," added Spokes. "A dogcart is the correct vehicle."—Judge.

THE FALL MILLINERY OPENINGS

The annual openings of millinery for fall and winter were held yesterday and the pleasant weather brought out many women to see the styles. A number were up from Montpelier and as two of the leaders in fashions in that city were returning they occupied seats in the car next to a Telegram reporter who thus repeats the drift of the conversation.

"Did you notice," said one, "that the hats were large and the best ones were trimmed with black or black and white, and that they had a beautiful new shade called burnt orange and that frosted grapes and velvet foliage?"

"Yes," was the reply, "but I was particularly struck on the coronation red velvet hat trimmed with velvet foliage that I saw in Miss Lillian Kenerson's. I think she had a most striking and beautiful display, especially that cameo shaded beaver hat trimmed with a cameo shaded plume burnt orange ribbon, grapes and foliage. That took my eye."

"I was much pleased," said her companion, "with the fine display made by Mrs. J. M. Bond who had 50 exquisite pattern hats. She had two very pretty windows, too, displaying in one of them a fine line of children's hats, and in the other the latest shades such as burnt orange, lemon and green and a perfect love of a heliotrope toque."

"But the hat that took my eye was a rolling beaver caught down in the back with two ornaments with two long ostrich plumes from the front and finished in the back with an ornament and a shirring of velvet. It was marked only $25.00," said her companion.

Mrs. W. F. Shepard has a very pretty display," said the other, "and she told me that she had never taken so many orders. She had the latest shapes such as the Marquise, Ping Pong and Jolette. She had an awfully nice little hat for church and opera wear. But a real swell hat was a certain one made of chenille and chiffon with frosted grapes and velvet foliage."

"I noticed many pretty hats at Miss L. E. Townsend's," said her companion, "and among them was one of a Dolly Varden shape with two shades of green and with gull wings. Another that I noticed was one of gray velvet with a shaded lip and faced with chiffon and having lighter gray sash ribbons."

"But I noticed some very pretty hats at Miss M. A. Miles' as usual," said the other, "and I thought that her window was very pretty with its poem of red and white."

"I tell you I was well pleased with all the hats that I saw at Mrs. C. A. Bartlett's," replied the companion. "I thought that she had some very swell large hats in white and black."

"Don't you think that Miss L. J. Hall had a particularly fine line of hats for young women?" replied the other. "I saw all the latest shades in velvets and ribbons. And I noticed a very handsome gray hat for a young woman. It was made of velvet and satin and had a large black plume. It was one of the handsomest hats that I saw during the day."

GEN. BOOTH RECEIVED IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 4.—Twelve tugs and three side wheel passenger boats laden with two thousand officers and soldiers of various eastern divisions of the Salvation Army met on the steamer Philadelphia at quarantine this morning. General William Booth head of the Salvation Army was on board the Philadelphia.

Booming of cannon, explosion of giant crackers, accompanying singing and cheers made as much noise as that on the occasion of Dewey's arrival from Manila. Upon landing there was a big parade which was reviewed by Gen. Booth in front of the headquarters on Fourteenth street. The general will travel 20,000 miles before returning to England next February.

There are many good advertising mediums in Vermont but if you have not tried the TELEGRAM you should do so for only $100.00.

HOMER FITTS

A

$15.00 SUIT

The style given in the cut, made good Cheviot construction first-class, fit guaranteed style right up to the hour. This is the suit we assert is equal to any $18 value we offer here.

Our $15 Suit.

TODAY is the last day for the artist, but all orders left today will be filled.

HOMER FITTS

164 AND 166 NORTH MAIN STREET.

BIG GAME OF FOOT BALL MONDAY

One of the best games of foot ball ever seen in this city will be played next Monday afternoon on the Goddard seminary campus, when the Barre Defenders will play the Middlebury College team. The game will start promptly at 3 o'clock. It was originally planned to have the game played on Edgewood Park but this has been changed and the public should be careful to note the fact that the game will be on the Goddard campus.

The Defenders and the Goddard teams had a practice against each other last night which was very beneficial to both sides. They will have another short practice game this afternoon.

LAMONT-THOMPSON.

Popular Foot Ball Man Weds Barre Lady.

A quiet wedding took place last evening at the home of the Rev. T. H. Mitchell when the latter performed the ceremony which united in marriage James Lamont and Miss Cecelia Thompson.

John Chesser was groomsmen and Mrs. James Brock was bridesmaid. No one was present except the parties mentioned.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Simon Thompson and the groom is a well known member of the Barre Rangers Football club with which he played for several years and being its very efficient captain.

He has been since coming to Barre one of the most popular young men connected with the Rangers and many friends unite in extending best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Lamont. A reception is to be held this evening in Miles hall. They received many beautiful and valuable presents from their friends. They will reside at 20 Plain street.

TWO VERY GOOD RACES YESTERDAY

The second day of the fall meeting at the Granite City Trotting park was characterized by good racing. Although only three heats were required for the two races run off every one of them was a race. All the horses had to step lively. Good time was made in each heat and the attendance although not large was very enthusiastic. The summary is:

| | |
|--------------------------------|-------|
| 2:19 Class A, Purse, $200. | |
| Transvaal, b g, Stewart, | 1 1 1 |
| Lucy Yeiser, b m, Turney, | 3 2 2 |
| Emmit H., ch b, Richardson, | 2 5 5 |
| Miss Dillard, b m, Page Bros., | 4 4 3 |
| The Governors, b m, Bailey, | 5 3 4 |
| Time, 2:21, 2:20 and 2:19. | |
| 2:21 Class Purse, $350. | |
| Doris, ch m, Whitney, | 1 1 1 |
| Almead, b g, Harding, | 2 2 5 |
| Thelma, ch m, Sunderlin, | 7 4 2 |
| Fire King, b g, Bentley, | 5 6 4 |
| Josephine, b m, Phelps, | 3 7 7 |
| Jared, b g, Ball, | 4 5 5 |
| Barb Wire, b g, Ricker, | 6 3 6 |
| Time, 2:21, 2:20, and 2:21. | |

CHURCH WAS A THOUSAND YEARS OLD

Vienna, Oct. 4.—The historical church at Pedregno, near Trieste collapsed at early Mass today, killing four priests and four worshippers. Several were injured. The church was 1000 years old.

Oyster Stews at Hawes'.

SPECIAL CHAIN SALE!

To close out the last of a large line of standard make chains. Vest Chains that have always been cheap at $3 and $4. We now make one uniform price.

$1.75

Don't Miss This Genuine Bargain!

J. W. HOLTON,

JEWELER AND OPTICIAN. MILEAGE BOOKS ON ALL ROADS. HALE BLOCK, MAIN STREET, BARRE.