The Weather.

BOSTON, April 17.—Cloudy tonight, rain Tuesday, cooler, North winds.

Still in the Lead.

"The EVENING ENTERPRISE" is one week old. During that length of time it has published more local news than any other Barre paper. Given more telegraphic news on the day of its occurrence than any other Barre paper, and been received by the citizens of Barre in a most cordial manner as proved by the large sales of the regular and extra editions. These sales being remarkable when the fact of the age of the "EVEN-ING ENTERPRISE" is considered. Three editions of the paper were printed on Saturday and sold out. No other Barre paper has so reliable a telegraphic news service as "The EVENING ENTERPRISE." This statement was verified by the issuing of the "9 o'clock Extra" Saturday night, less than an hour after the action of the senate. This being the second "Extra" issued during the evening. The last edition contained a brief but accurate report of the action by the Senate on the House, Davis and other resolutions concerning the Cuban question.
It announced that the Turpie amendment had been passed which was the test vote. While not giving the final result owing to the closing of the telegraph office, yet the "EVENING ENTER-PRISE Extra" gave sufficient information to enable all who wanted to learn that the Senate would vote on the Cuban question that night and would vote to intervene as well as recognize the Independence of the Cuban Republic. "The EVENING ENTERPRISE" gave Barre people what no other Barre paper did, the result of the test vote. No other Barre paper had one word on the action of the Senate on the night it was taken. No other Barre paper is connected with the Associated Press service which is the reason no doubt. No other Barre paper had any news on which an extra could be issued giving the result of the Senate action. No other Barre paper posted an Associated Press telegram Sunday morning giving the remainder of the action of the Senate. This telegram being delayed by reason as above stated by the early closing of the local telegraph office. In other words the "EVENING ENTERPRISE" gave its readers the test vote of the Senate nearly twelve hours in advance of any paper, and more than thirty six hours in advance of any other Barre paper. It was given in type on the night of its occurrence, not in plates many hours after. There is sufficient matter in that one incident to show where you can secure the best and most reliable news. No other Barre paper has the Associated Press. "The EVENING ENTERPRISE" in case of war will enlarge its telegraphic service and will have the larger service of the Associated Press.
People will want the latest war news; they know as a result of the Saturday night Extra "The EVENING ENTERPRISE" can furnish what no "Bulletin Board Service" was able to do, the news as it occurred and not from plates more than one day later. No other Barre paper has local or national news either in such abundance or so prompt as "The EVEN-ING ENTERPRISE." The people already understand where to find the news and that is the reason why they have so readily and unexpectedly endorsed the "EX-TRAPRISE." That the people know where to expect the latest news from Washington on Saturday night was shown by the large crowd which filled the office and stood in front of the building waiting for the People's paper the "EVENING ENTERPRISE." They know the Associated Press service would enable the "EVENING ENTERPRISE" to give the news at once, and so they came to the office. They had no reason to expect any other Barre paper would have the news for no other Barre paper has the Associated Press news service. Late news is difficult to read from New York "Bulletin boards" so the people will watch for the "EVENING ENTERPRISE" which can issue an "Extra" with full account of the Washington proceedings almost as taken. Read the "EVEN-ING ENTERPRISE" news, and you will be in advance of those who read any other Barre paper. This shows the prompt service.

House Concurs With Senate But Expects One Clause.

Spaniards Leaving For Home. Senate Not Decided But The End Is Near. Indians May Cause Trouble.

Still Firm.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—The House convened at 10 o'clock and immediately adjourned until noon. The feeling is intense among the Republicans. Every indication points to a bitter determined contest. A motion which the Republicans have decided upon, is to concur with the Senate resolutions with the the amendment, striking out the recognition of Cuba as a Republic. It will take precedence over all motions. There was an objection to the fourth clause declaring against annexation in any form, but it was finally decided to allow it to stand. Leaders are confident that motion will prevail. But there is a strong opposition.

Cubans Still Fighting.

HAVANA, Apr. 18.—News has been received that they are still fighting in the Tinar Del Rio. The insurgents attacked the Spanish fort, entered the town, and burned the tobacco warehouses, and killed four of the garrison, and had the best of the fighting.

Riots in Spain.

BARCELONA, Apr. 18.—There was another demonstration here by the student's last night. They attempted to reach the American consulate but the police dispersed them.

VALENCIA, Apr. 18.—There was an armed demonstration here yesterday in which many women participated. The gendarmes charged twice on the mob.

Don Carlos Lying in Wait.

LONDON, Apr. 18.—Supporters of Don Carlos in England are making accessory preparations for emergency, and will seize a propitious moment for action.
They are convinced that the present Spanish dynasty is doomed, and that Spain will be compelled to choose between Republicanism and Don Carlos, and say the only chance for the dynasty is a successful war, and they seek the idea that a war with the United States would be successful to Spain.

Indians Making Trouble.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Apr. 18.—Nearly 1000 Chayenne Indians are gathered on the banks of the North Canadian river holding a ghost dance. It is feared that they will take advantage of the absence of the troops to start an uprising to secure more beef rations.

Orders for Cavalry Supplies.

VENELAND, N. J., Apr. 18.—Keighley & Sons received orders from the Government today for 1000 pairs of cavalry boots, to be ready as soon as possible.

Spaniards to Leave America

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—Under instructions from Bernabe, the Spanish consuls are arranging for the departure of the Spaniards from their localities.

Bram Trial Opens.

BOSTON, Apr. 18.—Arguments in the Bram trial opened this morning. Cotter

SPECIAL 6.00 P. M.

House Motion To Concur With Senate Defeated.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—The Senate refused to appoint a conference committee. They sent the resolutions back to the House. In the House Bromwell moved to concur with the Senate amendments. The motion was defeated in the first roll call by vote of 154 to 139.

FAREWELL SERMON.

Rev. W. R. Davenport pastor of the Hedding Methodist church preached his farewell sermon yesterday morning.
The church was crowded. Chairs had to be placed in the aisles, and doors to the lecture room were thrown open, where chairs were placed in order to accommodate the large crowd. The platform was prettily decorated with flowers which gave things a neat appearance. Mr. Davenport took as his subject "What hath God wrought?" He handled the subject admirably and it was the opinion of the members that it was the best sermon he has preached in some time. He related the disaster of the Maine and said that war should be avoided if possible.

He said the result would be that the children will fatherless, sweet hearts lose their lovers and women would mourn the loss of their husbands. Mr.
Davenport told about the growth of the church within the last five years and great work that had been accomplished.
During the last five years 171 taken on probation and 255 into full membership.
This is a net gain of 30 probationers and 100 full members, or a total of 130.
This is equivalent to a gain of 50 per cent. Mr. Davenport hoped that his successor would see a very much larger gain in membership and urged the people to support him.

House Concurs.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—At 12.07 the Senate resolution was received by the House. Dingley moved that the House concur with the Senate resolution, together with the amendment striking out the recognition of Cuba independence.
The motion was carried by a vote of 179 to 136. The scene on the floor resembled a political convention, members were scurrying around and rallying their forces. There was a hot tilt between the Speaker and Mr. Bailey after the vote. It ended in the latter denouncing the statement of the Speaker as false.
There was no excitement in the House when the Cuban resolutions was acted upon. Every-thing was over in a few moments. There was a great brawl.

President will not Approve.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—Griggs, Long, Sherman and Day, had an hour's conference with the President on the Cuban resolution. From reliable sources it is learned that the President will in all probability return the resolution without approval. This is said he will be compelled to do in order to maintain the prerogative which is clearly his under the constitution. No one in official circles doubts that hostile resolutions will be passed by Congress in a few days.

President Crespa Killed.

New York, Apr. 18.—The World says that Joaquin Crespa, President of Venezuela, was killed Saturday in a battle with Hernandez, the leader of the rebels.

Resolution Reaches Senate.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—The Cuban resolutions, as amended by the House, arrived in the Senate at 2.53 p. m.
Davis immediately moved that the Senate concur. He thought there should be no further delay. On a vote, Davis' motion was defeated. Yes, 32; nays, 46.
