

THE WEST AWAKE.

It is but a few weeks since we published the proceedings of the great Convention at Baltimore. We submit below an account of a meeting in Indiana, which equals if not out- rivals it. It is evident the people are at work and are determined to have a change. Does any one doubt it, let them read the following: THE GREAT CELEBRATION ON THE TIPPECANOE BATTLE GROUND, FIFTEEN SOLID ACRES OF MEN.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Patriot.] INDIANAPOLIS, June 1, 1840.

Presuming that some account of the great Convention of the 25th ult., on the Tippecanoe Battle Ground may be interesting to you, I hasten to give you a faint sketch, intelligent delegates now here on their return home.

For several days previous to the 29th, every avenue leading towards the Battle Ground, was filled with wagons, loaded with delegates, horsemen, and foot passengers, wending their way to this proud spot for our American arms—and when all were assembled, such a multitude has never beheld in the interior of the United States—the number cannot with any approximation to certainty be ascertained—it is variously guessed at from 40,000 to 50,000, all agree that there were FIFTEEN ACRES OF MEN; besides, from 3000 to 6000 females; and the encampment might not inappropriately be compared to Darius' vast encampment preparatory to his descent upon Greece; and this vast concourse of citizens spontaneously assembled at a season of the year when the agriculturist has much to do at home, when all classes are ground down, as it were, to powder, by an iron administration! But such an universal enthusiasm prevails this section of country, in favor of Gen. Harrison, that nothing could restrain the people from seizing this occasion to do him honor.

Over this immense meeting, Jonathan M'Carry, formerly a member of Congress from this State, was chosen President, and six other citizens Vice Presidents—these presided over the fifteen acres, each county having its separate organization.

Some considerable number was in attendance from other States, but probably four-fifths of the whole, were real Hoosiers, all "good Harrison men and true," with the exception of a very few locos who came "to spy out the nakedness of the land." Verily, they might report that "the giants, the sons of Anak dwell there;" but I should not be surprised if they should report the whole a surprise—it would only be of a piece with their reports of your great Baltimore Convention.

I might say much of Log Cabins, the camp equipage and banners, but I will leave this for other hands, with the exception of one banner, I think from Wayne county, exhibiting a down hill scene. A little gentleman, probably Mr Van Buren, appears on the canvass, several persons are seen near him, who have let go a cider barrel, and the little gentleman is running at the top of his speed and bellowing, "stop that barrel!"

Gen. Harrison was invited by a committee, specially appointed for that purpose, to be present at the battle ground, but declined as it is understood, on the ground, that it might be improper, considering his position before the people, to give his attendance at this Convention. I need not make any remarks on the contrast that will be at once apparent, between the nice sense of honor and propriety shown by Gen. Harrison in this matter, and that of Mr Van Buren in his grand tour through New York, &c.

A scene of considerable interest took place on Friday, the first day of the Convention—a number of old soldiers of Gen. Harrison, presented to Mr Brooks, of the New York Express, a flag that was borne by the distinguished Spencer, in the battle of Tippecanoe. It was presented with a few appropriate remarks by the venerable Judge Polk, and on its reception, Mr Brooks made an exceeding happy allusion to its mutilation, being a good emblem of the torn and distracted state of the country.

This Convention has been looked forward to with much interest by the citizens of this State, and no doubt, others have looked to it as an index to the opinion here entertained of Gen. Harrison. I trust the expectations by all have been fully realized, and that Indiana may by this, her decisive testimony, prove that she believes not the foul calumnies that have been heaped on her beloved Harrison.

CAPITAL TRIAL.

The Supreme Judicial Court commenced a special term in this town Tuesday, for the trial of Mrs. Eliza Norton of Monson, charged with the murder of Mr James P. Stanton of Monson, by means of arsenic mixed with medical drink and administered on the 2d of November last, occasioning his death on the 6th of the same month.

Present, Chief Justices Wilde and Dewey, Counsel for the Commonwealth, Attorney General James T. Austin and District Attorney Daniel Wells. For the defendant, Geo. Ashmun and Henry Morris.

The morning was principally occupied by empanelling the jury and other preliminary business. The names of thirty-four were called; of which number fourteen were challenged: one excused on account of ill health; six were set aside on account of previous bias of opinion: one on account of being a witness; and twelve were sworn. Amasa Holcomb of Southwick, foreman.

The case was committed to the Jury about 1 o'clock P. M. one Friday; and at half past six, they came in and announced that they could not agree. A new trial is ordered on the 1st Sept.—Springfield Reg.

The largest Sunday school in the world, is in Stockport, the pupils are 2444, and the teachers 400 in number.

ARRIVAL EXTRAORDINARY.

We have just been informed of the arrival of sundry large packages comprising a Tissue of Lies in the shape of Extra Globes, Walker's Speech, and the like, designed for gratuitous distribution in this County. We suppose these are some of the fruits of the late Emmissionary's labor at Washington, from this County. They are Federal Lies, no mistake. We suppose this County is now to be flooded with trash of this kind, and that an attempt will now be made to buy and sell the freemen of this county like cattle in the market. We caution the public against countenancing these publications. Wherever they have been circulated they have had the most baneful effect. Let the farmer, mechanic and laborer be on the look out, & see to it that they do not become contaminated before they are aware of it.—These documents are intended to lead them astray, and make them subservient to the will and power of office holders, and thus bind them with fetters which would prove more galling than even those of a Galley Slave.—Look to it freemen of Windham County. Beware! Beware!!

CONCORD, N. H., June 13, 1840.

Yesterday was the day fixed upon by the Senate and House of Representatives, for the choice of a Senator in the Congress of the United States. But the elements of discord which have so rent the administration party elsewhere, have been at work here, and the party is in quite as bad a fix in regard to a Senator, as the great Locofoco party is in regard to the Vice-Presidency. They were caucused and drilled very industriously, but to no purpose. Senator Hubbard has his friends—Gov. Hill his—Mr. Atherton his, though few—and even Levi Woodbury his—and union is out of the question. So, not daring to "come up to the scratch" now, they rescinded the resolution, and the election will be put off till the fall session. Woodbury's friends urging his claims, shows a "fearful look for judgement"—he must pack his duds next March, and if his friends can place him in this snug berth for six years, he will take it very kindly, no doubt. The party split too, in the choice of State Prison Warden, on Friday. Thirty locofoco votes were thrown against the nominee of the party. Lawson Coddge, Esq. Deputy Warden of the Connecticut State Prison, was the successful candidate.

Albert Baker, Esq., whose name has figured in connection with Mr. Gilpatrick's affair, on the way to Baltimore, is Chairman of the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Quincy of Rummy, the ablest man of the party in the House, for that station, and who filled it last year, is on the State Prison Committee. This is a root of bitterness among the party. Baker is as rabid a politician as ever lived—one of the very worst kind—abusive and bitter, with some talent, little prudence, and a deal of self-sufficiency.

Great preparations are making for the Whig Convention on Wednesday next—not less than ten thousand people I think will be present.—Boston Courier.

WHICH TELLS THE TRUTH?

The last Salem Advertiser (loco-foco) says—"The British Whigs rest Harrison's claims to the Presidency exclusively upon his military character. Never let it be forgotten that he left the service before any important battles were fought."

On the other hand, Col. RICHARD M. JOHNSON, Vice President of the United States, says:—

"Of the career of Gen Harrison I need not speak—the history of the West is his history. For forty years he has been identified with its interests, its perils, and its hopes. Universally beloved in the walks of peace, and distinguished by his ability in the Councils of his country, he has been no MORE ILLUSTRIOUSLY DISTINGUISHED IN THE FIELD."

"During the last war, he was longer in active service than any other General Officer; he was perhaps often in action than any one of them, and he NEVER SUSTAINED A DEFEAT."

Whose words shall we believe, those of Colonel Johnson, who served under Gen. Harrison, or of the unprincipled squad of hiring slanderers who ate thinking of their "salaries and their bread," more than of the interests of the country.—[Salem Reg.]

TO THE BALD HEADED AND OTHERS.

Does any one know a neighbor or a friend who has been Bald, and whose head is now covered with fine hair? One whose coat collar was covered with dandruff, though brushed every hour—which has now vanished entirely? Or one whose hairs at early age were turning grey, who now has not a grey hair? Children whose heads were covered with scurf,—whose hair would not grow, that are now growing the fullest crops of hair? Some cases must be known to most persons. Ask them the cause, and you will be told, these things have been done by the use of the BALM OF COLUMBIA. Of 20 years growth is this article, its demand increasing annually some hundred per cent.—though when discovered not opposed by any thing for the same purpose, nor assailed by almost numberless mushroom trash preparations that will ruin the hair if used to any extent. Can more than these facts be wanted—refer to the recommendations by a list of names of respectability, unequalled by any other article. Look to these things—buy this article. Stay and preserve your hair by its use, or if bald restore it. Ladies, attend to this—hundreds in fashionable life are using it as the only article really fit for the toilet. Long hair is very apt to fall out. Ladies, use the Balm of Columbia in time to save yourselves the disagree of baldness by neglect of your persons. It is your duty, as moralists, to preserve the beauties of nature, with which a bountiful Creator has endowed you—use the Balm, for it can do it.

Caution to be remembered.

Several most flagrant attempts have been made to counterfeit the true Balm of Columbia. Some of the impostors have gone so far as to counterfeit the splendid wrappers, and the Falls of Niagara, and every external mark except the name of Comstock, which they dare not forge. To avoid impositions therefore, always look for the name of Comstock & Co. or L. S. Comstock, and never buy the article unless it has that name upon it. Sold Wholesale and Retail, only at No. 2 Fletcher street, N. Y.

To the Bald Headed.

N. B. This is to Certify, that I have been bald about twenty years, and by the use of the genuine Balm of Columbia, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me at Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case & Co's Store, who had it from Comstock & Co. JOHN JAQUISH, Jr. Delhi, July, 17, 1839. For Sale by DUTTON, CLARK & Co. Brattleboro.
