If Fortune, with a smiling face,
Strew roses on our way,
When shall we stoop to pick them up?
Tis-day, my lore, to-day.
But should she frown, with face of care,
And talk of coming sorrow,
When shall we grieve, if grieve we must?
The morrow, love, to-morrose.

If these who've wronged us own their faults,
And kindly pity pray,
When shall we listen and forgive?
To day, my lose, to day.
But if stern Justice urge rebuke,
And warmth from Memory borrow,
When shall we chide, if chide we dare?
To morrow, loce, to-morrose.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we struggle to be just?
To-day, my lore, foo-day.
But if our debtors sue for grace,
On pain of ruin thorough,
When shall we grant the boon they ask?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If Love, estranged, should once again
Her genial smile display,
When shall we kiss the proffered lips?
To-day, my love, to-day,
But if she would indulge regret,
Or dwell with bygone sorrow,
When shall we weep, if weep we must?
To-merrow, love, to-merrow.

For virtuous acts and harmless joys,
The minutes will not stay:
We've always time to welcome them
To-day, ny love, to-day.
But care, resentment, angry words,
And unavailing sorrow,
Come far too soon, if they appear
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

Dr. A. D. PUTNAM HAS lately received "HILL'S FOOPPING" a new article for pound material, and perfectly harmless, both as it respects the Tech and the Constitutional Healthessy of sipplication—being introduced into a cavity in a plantic state, and hardening as soon as it is packed. It can be applied with ease to the merest shells of Teeth, and its adhesive property is such as to be retained without difficulty.

12 "Hill's Stopping" comes highly recommended by eminent Dentists in New York and other States.
