A T E S T TELEGRAPHIC CONVERSATION :

A. Good morning neighbor B. "What is the news?"

B. Why farmer A. have you not heard of the great excitement down town?

A. Not a single word of "News" since hast work have I been able to get. The fact is I don't "take the papers" 'cause I can't afford it—attough I sometimes get Mr. C's to read when he gets through reading it, which arresers a very good purpose you know. "What is the news?" Is Fickers ever unteil—Washington taken—Lloredin Killed? What is it, sir?

B. "Not a bet" of that in I mean, but the GREAT ARRIVAL OF NEW GOODS AT PIERCE, DEXTER R. CO'S ONE PRICE & LOW PRICE STORE. They have not see-ded, but hold find to Union, and have accordingly taid in for measures to gen the people, as that they will be able to the better "fight the buttles of life."

A. Well really, I cannot see why this should cause such ter "fight the battles of life."

A. Well really, I cannot see why this should cause such immense excliment.—I supposed war "self them are larund ingree keepers down's South was all the genow aclays."

B. I read all sides of the sposition, and in my homble opinion, a man would have "min his legs off" and "grow hourse at that," to keep up with Southern ners. It is the sim of mankind you know to get rich.—"to look after So. I"—find out where we can best fivest our money, &c. My mind is if a pirrate it in need of any of "the necessaries of life," now is time "to pitch in." I carried the "but latty" and the girls down to Peires, Doxte & Co. 'yesterday, and they hought in pile" of Goods, cheap, I tail ye. I'll give y a list of prices, to let ye have something of an idea of prices—They each hought a called of cess perfectly fast colors, for only 8 cents per yard. They each bought a belaine, and poid 20 cents per yard, such as they say they never bought electhere less than 23 cents. The Best Heavy Sheetling we paid only 8 cents per yard for, a heter article I has Shawmit or Atlantic A. The best article Kerssene Oil, only 92 cents per gallon. A prime article Brown Sugar, for 6] cents per his They offered me a very nice Black Dress Coat for just $6.00, and if 10 had be "possible" should have taken it. I've priced them threatch, and find they are below what I've been in the labit of paying for Goods—at will pay to give 'm acut. In conversation with 'em I learned they were determined to 'keep up the panis' by thus selling at 'fore wells." call. In conversation with 'on I learned they were deter-tion to 'keep up the parist' by thus selling at 'fow wafe, ark,' 'Since they obsend they have had a rask, and a ich prices it must continue. Keighbor, just you 'keep cool boart the South, when there is money to be made at home. A. Well really, this is execting news, I must confess, in think in quite as sensitive after all to 'look after our temp-al wants,' as it is be look after 'Piphring Jeff.' of the South as I am in want of Goods, and will go home and inform in unity, and take up on the of march and for South Cardina
